CEDAR GROVE

·When Mrs. Frank Sewell visits in Cedar Grove from now on, many old familiar objects will greet her in the homes of her friends. The treasures of a lifetime changed hands in Brooklin recently when her grandmother's possessions went to auction. Seldom are so many rare and beautiful antiques available at one sale and Cedar Grove buyers were enthusiastic and appreciative.

Better start making plans now for Hallowe'en. C.G.C.C. is planning a real masquerade party to celebrate this spooky eve. All are invited-members of the club or not-all ages. Prizes for the best costumes for men, women and children. Oct. 31st in Cedar Grove schoolhouse from 8 to 10 p.m. Refreshments, too, and free.

Notes about Neighbours The Clendenen family is together again, we are very happy to report, and both Mr. and Mrs. Clendenen are feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reesor became grandparents over the Thankskiving weekend when Dorothy and Murray Reesor became parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reesor visited in Milverton recently with Mr. Harvey Reesor.

Mrs. Charles Whittaker and her daughters, Joan and Roberta, sang together at the October meeting of the W.M.S., giving the members a very special treat. The selection was "A Child of the King." Mrs. Whittaken president, was hostess and presided at the meetling. The Study Book was taken by Mrs. Walter Reesor.
