

4 WEEKS BEFORE MARKETING
Finish your TURKEYS on

MASTER T & C
FATTENING PELLETS

Get better finish, which means higher grade at market time. See us now.

YOUR LOCAL MASTER DEALER

STIVER BROS.

STOUFFVILLE ONTARIO

WEDDINGS

HORNSHAW-CARTER

Standards of large white mums and ferns formed the setting with tiny nosegays of mums for the guest pews in Whitevale United Church when Bertha Catherine Grayce Carter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter, Green River, and Mr. Herbert Spears Hornshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hornshaw of Whitevale, were united in marriage. Rev. H. B. Hardy officiated at the double ring ceremony, and Mr. David Norton sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Peggy Clark at the organ. During the signing of the Register he sang, "Because".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered net over satin with matching embroidered jacket. Her waist-length veil of tulle was caught by a bandeau of white satin leaf formation dotted with rhinestones. She carried an all white cascade of gardenias and baby mums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Carter, as maid of honour, and Miss Marilyn Hornshaw, sister of the groom, and Miss Wanda Carter, niece of the bride as bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina gowns of Cell Blue crystal with matching capes and tropical blue velvet sashes and close fitting hats. The flower girls were Janice and Peggy Calvert, nieces of the bride, dressed alike in cell blue crystal with tropical blue sashes and head bands. All attendants carried nosegays of yellow and pink mums with tiny pink rosebuds. Mr. Fred Carter, brother of the bride, was best man, and Mr. Malcolm Carter and Mr. George Bruce were ushers.

For the reception in the Church Hall, the bride's mother received the guests wearing dusty-rose crepe and lace with navy accessories and a corsage of Johanna - Hill roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing Shadow Grey Shantung with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For their wedding trip to the States, the bride chose a navy blue suit with dusty pink hat and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. On their return the happy couple will reside at Willowdale.

ELLIOTT-HUNT

On Saturday, Oct. 15, Gormley United Missionary Church was the scene of the marriage of Ruth Elizabeth Hunt, daughter of Mr. Ernest Hunt, Gormley, to Ronald Aaron Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Elliott, Belhaven. White, yellow and copper mums provided the setting at which Rev. C. E. Hunking officiated at the double ring ceremony. Rev. Ward M. Shantz of Kitchener sang the "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" with Miss Vera Doust at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white panaglare with fitted bodice and full skirt. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara trimmed also with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible and wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. The maid of honour was Miss Marilyn Harmon

CHOOSE FALL WEDDING

The former Bernice Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roberts, Richmond Hill, is shown cutting the wedding cake with her husband, Bruce Davis, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. G. Davis of Stouffville, at the reception following her marriage at Richmond Hill United Church on October 15.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Petty who were married in Claremont United Church last month, will be making their home in Victoria Square. The bride is the former Dorothy Fern Hockley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hockley, Claremont.

gowned in Dorion green panaglare with matching feather headdress. Miss Jean Hoover was bridesmaid wearing a similar gown of copper panaglare with matching headdress. The girls carried cascades of pale pink and copper mums. Miss Ella Mae Hunking was flower girl gowned in gold panaglare and carried a nosegay of yellow and copper mums. Mr. William Elliott, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Floyd Doner and Murray Bennett.

The guests were received by the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. Leck, wearing a dress of brown crepe with brown accessories and a crescent corsage of yellow mums. The groom's mother assisted in a dress of wine crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of popcorn mums.

Following the reception the couple left on a motor trip to the United States. For travelling the bride chose a navy wool suit with coral and navy accessories and a corsage of Tallman roses. The couple will reside in Gormley.

WARD-JAMIESON

Saturday, Oct. 22nd, Mt. Zion United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Marcan Gertrude Jamieson, R.N., elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Jamieson, Balsam, became the bride of Mr. William Richard Ward, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ward, Claremont. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. Moore. Gladioli, mums and fall flowers formed the background for the occasion. Mr. Mark Lockyer of Brooklin sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Myrna Jones. The bride chose a gown of floor length egg-shell delustrated satin embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestones with matching headdress and fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of pink roses and mums.

Mrs. Glen Turney of Bowmanville was matron of honour, stationed there.

Mrs. Glen Manderson of Oshawa was bridesmaid. Both were gowned in street length blue crystal. Miss Mary Jean Jamieson, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, gowned in rose crystal. They wore matching addresses of feathers and carried yellow mums. Little Mary Jamieson of Toronto, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, gowned in blue nylon and flower headdress. She carried a basket of pink rose buds and mums. Mr. Jack Ward was groomsmen for his brother. The ushers were Mr. Donald Jamieson and Mr. Bob Ward.

The reception was held in the church school room. The bride's mother received wearing a street length cocoa brown crepe dress trimmed with lace with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a street length charcoal pink taffeta dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The bride's going away costume was a dusty rose wool dress trimmed with white angora with matching accessories and corsage of pink roses. On their return from Montreal and points east the happy couple will reside in Claremont. Guests were present from Claremont, Stouffville, Toronto, Oshawa, Brooklin, Bowmanville, Ashburn, Ottawa, Picton and Belfountain.

Stouffville Municipal Council will meet in special session this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Ten more new homes have been commenced on the Starvale sub-division east of Park St. north, and some have already been disposed of to local residents.

RINGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs were in Toronto last weekend at the home of Mrs. John Scott for a family gathering. A daughter, Mrs. Arthur Williamson, is leaving soon for Germany to meet her husband already stationed there.

Tiny Envelope Ban Moved Back

The post office last week announced advancement of the effective date of its order on mid-sized envelopes, to Feb. 1, 1956.

The post office said the new date will give time to use up the supply now on hand. Manufacturers of envelopes had co-operated with the post office by discontinuing production of the wee envelopes, used mainly for greeting cards, invitations and announcements.

Lawrence F. Clark Former Resident, Passes in Calgary

Lawrence Ferris Clark, son of the late William and Elizabeth Clark, passed away in Calgary on Tuesday, Oct. 18, 1955. Lawrence was born at Sherwood. He attended Maple, Stouffville, Alexander Muir (Toronto) and Box Grove Public School. He was with his father in business in Toronto until he went overseas with the First World War Contingent, serving with the Machine Gun Corps.

Shortly after returning from the war, Lawrence went west and later married Miss Eva R. Robinson, a High School teacher in Regina and native of Dundalk, Ont. For some time deceased had been with the Robinson Machine and Tool Co. in Calgary and represented them at the International Trade Fair in Toronto. For three weeks in 1952 he visited Stouffville and called on old friends.

The late Mr. Clark was a member of the Masonic Order and attended the United Church and was interested in all clean sports. As his wife said, the hunting season, opened on Oct. 15th, and for the first time in years her, hunter stayed at home.

Deceased who was of a kindly retiring nature and highly esteemed by all who knew him, is survived by his widow and two sisters, Miss Alice B. Clark, Stouffville, and Mrs. F. E. Baker (Margaret) of Grand Rapids, Michigan. A sister, Mrs. Sydney Pugh (Hazel) and a brother, Walter C. Clark predeceased him.

Mrs. Reg Button who is on the staff of the Stouffville High School, is recuperating this week from an attack of pneumonia which has kept her away from classes for some time.

In addition to the full list of items in the Harold Wright Sale in this issue, there should be added, a Case Forage Harvester, nearly new; a P.T.O. tire pump.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brillinger, Stouffville, left for Long Beach, California, this week where they will spend the winter months.

Some excitement was caused on Main St. on Saturday afternoon when a small English car driven by Thos. Manley of Goodwood turned turtle in front of the Snowball Barber Shop. The accident occurred when another vehicle driven by Sam Robert of Markham R.R. 2, pulled onto the high way from O'Brien Ave. The two machines collided and the Goodwood car toppled over as it rammed into the curb. No one was hurt and the damage to both cars was slight. Mr. Carl Bowdway who was passing along the sidewalk at the time was given quite a start as the one car rolled over towards her and landed on the boulevard.

Intangible: Something you can't put your finger on, like money or a hot stove.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Coulson of Toronto visited his uncle, Mr. Joe Mertens, on Sunday.

Mrs. Marshall Crosier of Toronto visited for several days last week with Mrs. Tom Hooper.

Mrs. Paul Bowdway, Rupert St., has been confined to the Eriehospital following a fall in which she injured her knee.

Mrs. Roy Grove is now considerably improved after spending several days sick in bed.

Mrs. Harry Pointon spent last weekend visiting her son Gerald and family in Toronto.

Keyson Motors, local Dodge-DeSoto dealer at Stouffville's East End, has agreed to sponsor a Midget hockey entry here this winter.

See The Tribune for your Christmas Greeting cards - excellent selections for business firms - order now while the selection is good.

Prepare now to place a special Christmas display in The Tribune on Nov. 24. Santa Claus arrives in town on Saturday, Nov. 26th, and the town will be crowded with shoppers.

Golden's Clothing Store is featuring ladies' fall and winter dresses this week from $5.95 to $7.95. Ladies' winter coats and blankets are other feature items in this week's special display.

Anyone dialing CHCH-TV Hamilton last Friday night at 6:15 might have caught a glimpse of Rev. W. E. Smalley formerly of Stouffville as he assisted in the Official Opening of the new school in Binbrook where he now resides.

Mr. Wm. Hall, a member of the Tribune Staff, is still confined to bed at his home at Springhurst Farm, Stouffville R.R. 2. However, Bill is feeling some better and his many friends hope it won't be too long before he will be back on the job again.

Friends will be sorry to hear of the accident suffered recently by Miss Reba Young, of Midland, when she slipped on some wet leaves on the sidewalk and broke her left arm below the shoulder. Miss Young, who is on the teaching staff of the Collegiate in Midland, is a niece of Mrs. Robt. Young, Stouffville and is a frequent visitor in town. She is presently confined to hospital in Penetanguishene.

Hallowe'en was celebrated in town as elsewhere on Monday night with the usual noise and ghost calls. Costumed figures by the dozens roamed the residential sections of town. Store windows were given the usual soap treatment but otherwise the evening passed without incident. Local police along with a couple of O.P.P. from Vandroff detachment were in evidence most of the night keeping the destructive element on the move and no serious trouble occurred.

Teachers from the Inspectorate of Mr. M. Hallman who in Buffalo, N.Y. this Friday where they will be observing teaching methods in different schools in that city. The staff of the local Public School, Stouffville, expect to attend: Mr. Watson, Mr. Sutherland, Mrs. Gordon, Miss Hosie, Miss Brooks, Mrs. Hazenburg, Miss Stouffer, Miss Parker, Mrs. Brown, Miss Burkholder and Mrs. Mustard. Several expect to remain in Buffalo for the weekend.

The Annual Hunt Club banquet was held in the Stouffville Legion Hall on Thursday evening.

The I.O.O.F. Euchre will be held on Thursday night of this week at 8.30 o'clock. There will be prizes and lunch will be served.

Mr. Harry Shuttleworth was taken by ambulance to the Sunnyside Hospital on Monday afternoon.

The Tribune was pleased to receive more letters this week giving views on the recent police controversy in town. The pros and cons of such subjects are always interesting when aired in the press.

The vacant lot at the corner of Park and Main Sts. has been recently taken over by Murphy Motors, for the purpose of displaying their new and used cars.

Miss Lois Farthing, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Farthing, has been sporting a Mary Maxim type sweater about town this week. The sweater is white, and features small animals in darker colors.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Frael returned home early last week from Arnprior where they visited with their daughter, Margaret. She is presently confined to hospital after suffering an attack of virus pneumonia.

It has now been determined that last week's cold snap was responsible for the power failure in town. Markham hydro officials report that recent rains had seeped into parts of the mechanism and had frozen, causing the breakdown.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Robbins of Orillia visited with Mrs. R. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Benson Myers, Stouffville, last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins are planning on spending the winter months in the sunny south.

In attendance at an Antique and Treasure Mart to be held in Casa Loma from Nov. 7 to 10, will be Mrs. M. Sisson of Stouffville. Mrs. Sisson will have on display there some of the lovely antiques from her large collection, many of which she bought recently on her trip to Europe. The Mart, open to the public, is sponsored by the Wimodauss's Club, Toronto.

This Thursday and Friday evenings will see big crowds at the local Legion Hall for the presentation of "Holiday Ahoey," a musical show with an all local cast. There is home talent of all ages from children up. There's also a Tiny Tot Contest for the King and Queen of Toyland. You won't want to miss this show at the hall this weekend.

Under the "Public School Men Teacher's Federation" and the "Federation of Women Teachers' Assoc. of Ontario," Inservice Training Groups are held at Thornhill and Newmarket this fall and winter. Those attending at Thornhill from Stouffville Public School include Mr. Sutherland who is taking a university subject and Miss Stouffer, Miss Burkholder and Miss Hosie who are in the Professional section studying various subjects on the course of study for the Public Schools.

Anyone interested in hearing good music from records, reproduced on equipment of extreme fidelity, will be welcomed at Allan Sengster's corner of Rupert and Albert Streets, on Monday evening, Nov. 14th, at 8 o'clock. Adults only, and there's only one rule - if you come, come prepared to listen to the music, and not to talk while it is being played. Accommodation is limited, so only the first twenty to arrive can be admitted. These evenings will continue on alternate Mondays during the fall and winter if sufficient interest is shown.

Dr. Jas. Stevens and family are now settled at their new home on the Starvale subdivision.

Stouffville Municipal Council will meet in special session this Friday afternoon.

Markham Village last week engaged a hydro superintendent, Mr. Verne Snider, who hails from Hanover.

A Progressive Euchre Party will be held in the Mongolia Public School on Friday night, Nov. 18th, to provide school playground equipment. Admission 50c.

Mrs. Harry Brillinger returned home last Friday from the General Hospital in Toronto, where she has been for two weeks since suffering from a fall in her home when her hip was broken. She will be confined to bed for several weeks.

Mrs. John O'Boyle, Main St., although failing to win the $2,000 prize offered by the Dominion Stores in their telephone quiz contest, will receive a consolation award donated by the company.

Four members of The Tribune mechanical staff were in Toronto recently attending the annual Machinery Exhibition of Sears Co. Ltd. The group took in the NHL hockey game in the evening as guests of the local paper.

The property opposite O'Brien Avenue on Main Street, owned by Mr. Robt. Sellers, is being filled in and levelled off. On Thursday of last week, trucks hauling the fill ran into difficulty when their vehicles became mired in the mud and were hauled out only after many hours of work.

Veterans Construction completed the laying of a new 4-inch main from Burkholder St. south on Russell St. to Rose Ave. on Friday. The stretch of more than five hundred feet was laid in record time.

A number of ladies of Stouffville attended the Baptist Missionary Circle in Claremont on Wednesday to hear Mrs. McLaren, a returned missionary from India. Others were present from Whitevale, Uxbridge, Goodwood and Pine Grove also Claremont United Church ladies. Lunch was served in the school room.

Mr. Ernie Austin, proprietor of Stouffville Nursing Home, discovered two large deer dead, on his farm east of Uxbridge recently. The animals had been apparently killed by dogs. Mr. Austin is planning on having the head and antlers of one of the deer mounted.

A dinner party is planned by York County Council to honour Ivan McLaughlin of Stouffville for his good showing at the World Plowing Match at Sweden. Ivan placed second this year. The dinner will be held at Cedar Cliff Manor on November 10th. All members of York County Council have been invited to attend.

The results of "Name the Cake" contest held recently by the Stouffville Bakery have been announced. First prize, No. 223, went to Miss Helen Nicely of Stouffville with the name "Festive" by which the fruit cake will now be known. For her winning name Miss Nicely will receive $15 cash and a decorated "Festive Fruit Cake." A runner-up, No. 359, was also selected and this prize went to Miss Eva Hoover of Stouffville. For her name "Hospitality" Miss Hoover will receive a decorated "Festive Fruit Cake." Between two and three hundred entries were received which made the task of the judges, Mrs. Elmer Daniels, Mr. Cec. Hendricks and Mr. McCharles of "Standard Brands Co." quite a difficult one.

SANTA CLAUS PARADE
Nov. 26, 1955

PRIZE BULLETIN

- Following is a complete list of the prize money for the Santa Claus Parade, Nov. 26. Get busy now - select your class and get your float planned. Let's make this parade the best yet... It's lots of fun.
- BEST CHRISTMAS FLOAT - 1st - $25.00 2nd - $20.00 3rd - $15.00 4th - $10.00 5th - $5.00.
- BEST DECORATED BICYCLE - 1st - $5.00 2nd - $3.00 3rd - $2.00
- BEST DECORATED DOLL CARRIAGE - 1st - $5.00 2nd - $3.00 3rd - $2.00
- BEST SCHOOL FLOAT - 1st - $20.00 2nd - $15.00 3rd - $10.00 4th - $8.00 5th - $5.00

For information or help: Contact Ken Wagg, Cec Hendricks, Harold Spofford.

Anniversary Services

at Gormley United Missionary Church
Sunday, November 6th
10 a.m. - Rev. O. M. Bell, Vineland - Bethesda Trio.
11 a.m. - Missionary S.S. Mrs. John Erb.
7.30 p.m. - Rev. O. M. Bell.
- Wideman Male Quartet.
- EVERYONE WELCOME -
C. E. Hunking, Pastor.

POT LUCK SUPPER

and
ANNUAL MEETING
of the Stouffville Horticultural Society to be held
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14th
IN THE UNITED CHURCH BASEMENT
Supper at 6.30 - Bring your Basket
Bread, Butter, Meat, Coffee & Dishes provided.
Program at 8 o'clock
SPEAKER - MR. JOHN BRADSHAW from CFRB also other items of interest.
- COME AND BRING A FRIEND WITH YOU -
M. Mertens, Secretary.

HOUSTON'S
Has a full line of Sick Room Needs.

Special this week . . .
HOT WATER BOTTLE 99c

Cold weather is coming: Stock up now on toiletries that are kind to your skin.

We feature . . .
ELIZABETH ARDEN
LUXURY HAND LOTION
Blue Grass Fragrance - June Geranium Fragrance with new gift dispenser only $1.25.
An old favorite . . .
Tiffany Hand Cream

HOUSTON'S
"THE" Rexall Drug Store
Stouffville Phone 229