Mr. Vacher owns 50 acres on the 9th Concession, and spends some of his time there in the summer. Mr. Vacher came to Canada in 1907 and worked on a farm in Vaughan. Local citizens numbering less than a hundred turned out on Sunday afternoon for the annual Remembrance Day service held in the Stouffville United Church. The local veterans' organization was well represented, as well as the Ladies Auxiliary, Scouts and CGIT. The parade from the Legion Hall to the Cemetery and the Memorial Park gates, was led by the Whitey Band. Rev. Douglas Davis presided at the service. Rev. F. A. Dearmond offered prayer and Rev. Jas. Lowden of Claremont delivered the address. Following the church service the parade moved to the park where wreaths were laid at the gates to commemorate the fallen. Reeve Elmer Daniels spoke a few brief words; Rev. Douglas Davis offered the prayer and the Last Post was sounded by Bugler, Jack Arlitt of Newmarket. The Provincial Government wreath was laid by Mrs. D. Davis, the Stouffville Wreath by Reeve Daniels, the Veterans' Association by Mrs. F. Winn and Ladies Auxiliary by Mrs. J. Hoover.

MENNONITES AT COURSE

Forty students have enrolled in the Ontario Mennonite Bible Institute in Kitchener, for the 20-week course.

The school, sponsored by the Mennonite Conference of Ontario, is the only Bible institute within the Mennonite denomination. Students have enrolled from six states and Ontario. Rev. John F. Garber of Burton, Ohio, the acting dean, told students in his opening address that "life for the Christian must be integrated with Biblical truth."

He said Mennonites traditionally are Biblicists. They believe every problem in life can be solved according to principles taught in the Bible.

A Kiwanis Club has been formed in Markham, making two service clubs in that community. Markham is growing fast because of its close proximity to Toronto, but we have noticed that some communities can become overloaded with such organizations. Certainly there would be no place for a second service club in Stouffville. One finds it difficult, if he is an active citizen, to keep up with even the present activities.

EDITOR'S MAIL

Nov. 13, 1935

The Stouffville Tribune, Dear Mr. Editor,

I am not a resident of Stouffville, but am a reader of your fine weekly newspaper which I purchase each week and would like to speak just a word of appreciation for the indulgence which you have shown in allowing this recent outburst of comment in your community concerning your policemen. As I say, I am not a resident, but I do shop in your town and enjoy your fine stores very much.

I am further asking your indulgence to add my support to the letter written by "Shocked" of last week. Such stepping out of line as was committed by your municipal officer recently is to be deplored and I well know how long such an officer would last if on our local township council. Some things are done, and some things are just not done, and commenting by civil servants is one of these. Having been one of these in the past, I know whereof I speak. It is not my place to give long comment on your affairs, not being a ratepayer. However, I do commend your paper on the manner in which it handled the contentious matter editorially and will continue to follow events in Stouffville through your columns.

Yours truly,
 J. Gifford

Controversy Must End
 Like many controversies of old, they can go on and on. The Tribune has provided considerable space for those who are desirous of stating their views on police matters of the present, but we believe that everything must have an ending and so we decline any further comments on the subject. Much has been said for and against and we are not desirous of providing our columns for any further prolonging of the matter.
