

Missionary to Preach

Mrs. Whitman, a returned missionary from the Sudan Interior Mission, will be the special speaker at the Claremont Gospel Chapel on Sunday evening at 7:30. She will be accompanied by Brother Lowrie of 'People's Church, Toronto. Mrs. Whitman is well known around this district, having spoken at the Pike's Peak Tent Meetings on a number of occasions. She is considered to be one of Canada's greatest women preachers.

Former Resident Laid To Rest

The funeral services for the late Mrs. Will Bingham, who has been a resident of Whitby for the past few years, were conducted Tuesday afternoon of this week, November 15. Mrs. Bingham was 75 years of age, and was laid to rest in the Claremont United Cemetery.

Mrs. Bingham was a resident of Claremont for many years prior to moving to Whitby. Her husband, who predeceased her, was engaged in the painting and paper-hanging business. Four daughters mourn the passing of the deceased. These are Verna, Margaret, Mary and Gwen. All are married.

The Unionville News

The Unionville Branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Mason, Unionville, with 12 members present. The president welcomed three visitors, Mrs. A. Grant, Miss Elizabeth French and Mrs. Butcher. Markham Fair Board sent a cheque for our W.I. display at the Fair. It was decided to purchase a new book for historical research. Mrs. Russell-Brown and Mrs. H. Brookfield were appointed to supervise the June Fair for 1956, and Mrs. W. Snowball to look after ziffs at the Christmas Party. Mrs. Russell-Brown who attended the Women's Institute Convention in Toronto explained how the money from Women's Institutes was spent. Used clothing for children 6 to 12 years was asked for. Next meeting is to be our Christmas meeting and will be held in Central United Church basement. Members are to bring a Christmas gift worth 25c. Mrs. Mason explained about concerts to be presented by Canadian entertainers from Massey Hall. Membership tickets will be sold at $5. for 3 or more concerts. A drive for members will start on Nov. 30th. Mrs. Kennedy named the following conveners of groups to discuss: Mrs. Russell-Brown, the sponsoring of a prize by our institute for Markham Fair; Mrs. Champion, district cemeteries needing attention; Mrs. Thompson, the need of a shelter at bus stops; Mrs. Toozgood, anything to improve our local library; Mrs. Gresham, where we as a group could go on sight-seeing trips. Some aprons and pot holders were handed in for our bazaars.

Mrs. Temple spent a few days this week at Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. E. Caseley visited their daughter, Mrs. Morris at Willowdale. They motored to Cannington to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. Sorry to hear Mrs. P. Kennedy and Doreen have both been on the sick list. The teachers and officers of Central United Sunday School met at the home of the superintendent, Mr. A. Dyke, last Wednesday. Arrangements were made for White Gift Service to be held on Sunday, Dec. 11th, when Rev. Dr. Nunnist of Fred Victor Mission will be the guest speaker. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summerfeldt in the passing of her mother Mrs. Lester Espey, Woodbridge. Mrs. G.A.M. Davison received word that her daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wyndham of Oakville had landed at Gibraltar. They plan to be in France until after Christmas. They will meet Mr. Wyndham's

CHERRYWOOD

Mrs. M. Hollinger
The W.A. held its regular meeting on Wednesday in the church hall. Mrs. Tindall, president, opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. Mrs. L. Gates gave the devotional thoughts on the theme "The Way" in which we were reminded again of the wonderful gifts of peace, happiness, courage and confidence that are available to us from God if we ask rightly in His Name. A Remembrance Day period was reverently conducted by Mrs. N. Laughlin. Mrs. R. Morrish gave a concise and interesting review of the study book. She did this by question and answers and by recalling interesting stories that other members had brought to our notice at previous meetings. A specially happy part of the meeting was hearing the report of how successful our turkey supper had been, both financially and socially. A vote of thanks was extended to all outsiders, both young and old, who came to our assistance when help was rather scarce on that particular evening. As our next meeting is election meeting the nominating committee would like all nominations handed in on or before Dec. 8. This committee consists of Mrs. Wm. Hollinger, Mrs. C. Hollinger and Mrs. W. Holmes. A good representation of the association attended a very interesting meeting at Fairport at the invitation of the association of that church. After the singing of the National Anthem and the W.A. benediction the meeting was closed. Group eight served a delightful and delicious lunch. Sorry to hear that Mr. Donald Milne has been ill and in the East General Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. J. M. Tindall of Claremont, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gaudiche and daughter of Long Branch and Miss B. Roach of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. Tindall on Sunday. The H & S are holding a bazaar in the school house on Friday evening, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. Everybody welcome. Mr. Wilmo's Gates and Mr. Cecil Hollinger returned home on Saturday from deer hunting. Wilmo being lucky enough to get one. Mrs. Jones of Trenton visited with her daughter, Mrs. Wilmo Gates for a few days recently. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollinger spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell at Brougham recently. Mr. L. Gates and Mr. R. Morrish enjoyed a week's hunting in the north country. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sinclair and Mr. and Mrs. S. Powell and family visited with Mrs. Wm. Forsythe and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Forsythe at Goodwood on Sunday. The W.A. is having a bake sale at the Stouffville Sales Arena on Saturday, Nov. 16. Mr. P. Teefy is enjoying a trip to the west coast. Mr. and Mrs. Levergood of Windsor spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Todd. Mrs. R. Wright visited in Lindsay on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hollinger had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Todd.
