Buffonville News

Mrs. J. Leaf KELLY - SMITH St. Thomas, Nov. 26 - At a ceremony in Alma Street Presbyterian Church Dorothea Margaret Smith, R.N., daughter of Mrs. Smith and the late Henry Smith, became the bride of Dr. George L. G. Kelly, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Buttonville. Rev. James K. West officiated and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Smith. She chose a gown of embroidered tulle over heavy white satin having short, shirred sleeves, a scoop neckline and a bouffant, floor-length skirt. A crown of seed pearls and rhinestones held her finger-ring veil and she carried a cascade of yellow rosebuds and ivy. Miss E. Hawkins, R.N., was maid of honour; bridesmaid was Miss E. Jack, R.N., and Susan Smith, niece of the bride, was flower girl. They wore similar waltz-length gowns of strawberry red crystal and carried white mums. Randall Muselman was best man and the ushers were J. E. Smith, brother of the bride, and Morley Wallen. Receiving, the bride's mother wore Dio blue crystal-ette with a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted in mink crepe with pink beaded neckline and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The couple will live in Newmarket. Neighbourhood Notes A number of local people have asked to subscribe to the Canadian Concert Series which is being sponsored by the Markham branch of the organization. If you are interested in hearing some of Canada's top artists in your own community, it is still not too late to buy your tickets. Contact Mrs. W. W. Mason, Unionville, or Mrs. Lunney, Unionville. Among those attending performances of "The Yeomen of the Guard" at Markham last week were Rev. A. C. and Mrs. Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Mumberson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig, and Mrs. S. J. English. Local boys who have had the singular honour of playing on the first Junior B football team of the new Thornhill High School and participated in winning C.O.S.S.A. were: Harvey Brown, George Putnam, Frazer Craig, Barry Kedwell and Don Gohn. Next Saturday the boys of the team and their parents are being entertained at the school, and later in the season Thornhill Lions will be their hosts.
