The Christmas meeting of the Sr. Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Fred McRoberts on Tuesday evening of last week with twentytwo ladies present. The Roll Call was answered with a gift for the Children's Aid Society. The motto, "Oh! that Christmas lasted the whole year through.!" was given by Mrs. A. Huston. Mrs. Bruce, the District President, was unable to be present, due to illness. Mrs. H. McCague, Mrs. N. Snider and Mrs. M. Jarvis gave reports of the Institute convention held at the Royal York Hotel this fall. Mrs. Jim Valliere gave the Bible Reading of the Christmas Story and Mrs. McCague led the group in the singing of Christmas carols. Several of the ladies exhibited Christmas articles that they had made. Dainty refreshments were served at the close by the hostess and her committee.

White Gift Service The annual White Gift service was held on Sunday afternoon in the church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The primary and junior classes were in the choir and sang several carols. The beginners' class sang "Away in a Manger" and "Shepherds Leave the Hillside." Betty Hill acted as Mary, Nelson Buchanan was, Joseph, Misses Marion and Faye Nichols and Audrey Gee were angels, Donald Boynton, Neil Donnelly and Harry Barber were the shepherds: Ronald Gee, Philip Hill and Sammy Snider were the three wisemen.
