Rev. Frank Muir Writes Local Friends from Japan

Within a week of being posted in Japan, a letter was delivered to the writer's friends in Stouffville. As a former pastor here, Rev. Muir is well-known, and he states in his letter that he appreciates the arrival of the Tribune each week in that far away land. In this letter, Rev. Muir states that he and his family enjoyed a lovely Christmas, and had one or two Japanese pastors in during the day. The portion of his letter following deals with Rev. Muir's thoughts on the subject of "Those Two Front Pews".

It is said when Dwight L. Moody as a young man, having his heart warmed in response to God for a glorious salvation, went up to the pastor after the morning service, he said he wanted to do something for his Saviour. With no wealth or education or outward appearance of talent this would seem to pose a real question to a pastor. But the story is that this pastor responded with, "Alright, my boy, be respons-

What To Do Where To Go This Sunday

Last week we ran the first in a series of articles on interesting places for you and your family to go, and things for you to do on Sunday afternoons in Toronto. This is the second article in this series, and here are our suggestions for this coming Sunday.

There will be a film shown in the ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM THEATRE — and it's free to the public. Titled "The Back of Beyond," the film is about Australia today, dealing mainly with life in the isolated communities and homes of the desert areas of Australia. This show is part of a series of films about the peoples of the world. This film should be fascinating to children, as well as adults. The show begins at 2.00 p.m., lasts till around 4.00.

Or, if you'd like an afternoon of outdoor fun, we suggest you take your friends or the youngsters on a skating party at RIVERDALE TERRACE, Danforth and Broadview. The large, outdoor rink has fine, smooth ice regardless of weather, and lots of room for children to play about in. Admission is only 50c per person. There's lots of parking space. Skating begins at 2.00 p.m. Sundays, ends at 6.00.

Then, about 5.00 or 6.00 o'clock, you can drop in for a delicious dinner at SCOTT'S ON BLOOR STREET. It's a couple of doors west of Yonge — just a short way from the Museum — a few blocks from Riverdale Terrace. Scott's are serving Sunday dinner now from 4 to 9 p.m. They have a delicious French Buffet (or table service) featuring everything from a grand assortment of hors-d'oeuvres, to plump golden turkeys and tender Roast Beef. Crisp, white table linen and soft lights lend an atmosphere of comfortable relaxation to Scott's, and the waitresses are pleasant and efficient. The prices, too, are very reasonable. Only $1.95 for the Buffet, with as many second helpings as you like. And Scott's really welcome family groups so take the kids along — reduced prices for children. You can phone for a reservation — WALnut 2-4320.

Those are our suggestions for this Sunday. We hope you enjoy yourselves. And watch for next week's article with more ideas of interesting places to go and things to do on Sunday afternoon in Toronto.

BOY SCOUTS LOOK FOR BIG YEAR IN THIS AREA

A meeting called by District Commissioner R. Edmunds to form a South Lake Simcoe District Committee of Boy Scouts was held in the Community Hall at Keswick. Most Groups were represented by their leaders and members of their Group Committees. The interest in the need for such a meeting was apparent by the large attendance and general participation in the discussions.

Such a Committee is designed to work with the Commissioner to promote Scouting for boys, to co-ordinate joint Group activities such as rallies, training courses, etc., and through the District Commissioner to keep Provincial Headquarters informed of its progress and requirements.

The election of officers to the Committee resulted in a fair representation of the District which is bounded by Aurora, Stouffville, Uxbridge, Mount Albert and Bradford. Those elected for the current year were: Chairman, Rev. E. H. McLellan, Aurora; Vice-Chairman, Mr. J. S. Johnston, Keswick; Secretary, Mr. H. T. Jaques, Newmarket; Treasurer, Mr. J. H. D. Williams, Aurora; Members, Scoutmaster R. Stewart, Keswick; and Scoutmaster B. Magill, River Drive Park.

Field Commissioner C. Pilling from Provincial H.Q., briefly outlined the duties of the District Cubmaster and District Scoutmaster. These positions are held by Mr. A. Townsend of Sutton and Mr. C. Everett of Newmarket respectively.

A working constitution was proposed and adopted to permit the Committee to go into immediate operation.

It was the general feeling of the meeting that, as the result of this organization, Scouting in 1956 will take on greater meaning to the boys, parents and citizens of this community.

Mr. Sam McKuen of Markham was a visitor in the Tribune office recently, and pointed out to us that the account of early logging in last week's paper should have credited Andy Stouffer with the feat of journeying almost as far as Alliston while giving vocal lessons.

If you don't understand the difference between "evening" and "night" try associating these words with "gown."

The observance of National Health Week commences this Saturday.

Mrs. Asa Sider, one of Stouffville's esteemed elder citizens, will mark her 92nd birthday on Wednesday of this week Feb. 1st. Relatives and friends gathered last Saturday night for a birthday party to do honour to this remarkable lady. Despite her advancing years she continues to enjoy good health, carries on with her housework and has gone through a lifetime without the aid of glasses.

We notice a number of houses in town are displaying name plates near their front doors. The idea is a good one, in view of the fact that our houses are not numbered for mail delivery, and it helps out in case of strangers seeking to locate citizens in town. We understand that Richmond Hill is undergoing a survey for house mail delivery. A population of 5,000 is necessary for the postoffice to consider house to house mail service and our Yonge St. neighbor has now passed this figure.

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Larsen, Ottawa, have been credited with saving the life of three persons when fire destroyed their home in St. Clair Gardens recently. Mrs. Larsen is the former Betty Sanderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sanderson of O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville. The local couple was passing the blazing City View home and Mr. Larsen pounded on the door for more than five minutes to arouse the occupants. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen saw flames shooting from a summer kitchen window of the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Monuk as they were returning from visiting friends in City View. The inside of the 2-storey brick-siding home was destroyed and only a few articles of furniture saved.

Word was received by the Tribune this week of the safe arrival of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Watts in Florida. The letter reads: "We had a pleasant drive down, driving the 1500 miles in four days. We had one day sunshine but the other 3 days dull and raining. We left the snow in Maryland. The sun is shining bright today, with the temperature around 60 degrees."

Mr. and Mrs. Watts at the time of writing were staying at White Sands Motel, New Smyrna Beach, Florida.

Mr. "Red" Forsyth, local barber, has produced an old edition of the Stouffville paper dating back to 1903. The weekly was then known as the Stouffville "Pilot". Businessmen, whose advertisements appear in the paper are as follows — Silvester and Dougherty; J. C. Bundy, Todd and Cook, Cunliffe and Peters, J. H. Crooks, Standard Bank of Canada, the Sovereign Bank of Canada, Dr. Barker, dentist; Gordon R. Duncan, Ratcliff and Co., W. H. Todd, J. A. Hesse, S. M. Warriner, A. Lehman's Shoe Store, Armstrong's Bakery, S. S. Burkholder, furniture, and J. Brownsberger, harness shop.

The meeting was held in the Lions Community Hall and there was a good attendance. The local Society provided the program which included a talk on House Plants by Mrs. M. Mrs. Fleury entertained with a couple of humorous readings and Mr. Eugene Baker showed some coloured slides. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.
