Mrs. W. A. Krudup passed away at her home in Richmond Hill on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Albert Hawkins, Miss Edith Raymer, Mr. John Hawkins and Miss Marie Baker were guests at the Cole-Townsend wedding at Birchcliffe Baptist Church on Saturday.

WEDDING
DAVIS - SHEARER

Red tulips and white chrysanthemums decorated the altar of Saint Stephens United Church, Toronto, for the April 20th marriage of Thelma Shearer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shearer of Toronto to Albert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Davis of Stouffville. The Rev. Geo. Ivany officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon tulle over satin with a shirred bodice of white crystal-ette, her finger-tip length veil of white tulle was gathered at the top by a pearl studded tiara decorated with rhinestones and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of red roses and white carnations.

Maid of honour was Miss Marlene Shearer, the bride's sister, who wore a dress of blue crystal-ette with a ballerina-length skirt of nylon tulle over net and satin and she carried yellow roses.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Jean Meyers and she wore a shrimp pink dress of crystal-ette with ballerina length skirt of nylon tulle over net and satin and carried blush pink roses.

The best man was the brother of the groom, Mr. Fred Davis of Ottawa, and the usher Clayton Davis, a brother from Toronto.

The reception was held at the HMCS York Lakeshore Blvd., in Toronto. Immediately after the reception the happy couple left on a motor trip to Blind River, returning through Ottawa. The bride's going-away outfit was a light pink suit of wool-gabardine, with light beige accessories. They will reside on a farm near Stouffville.

CHERRYWOOD

The W.A. will hold their regular monthly meeting in the hall on Wednesday, May 9, at 2 p.m. There will be visiting societies at this meeting. The guest speaker will be Rev. Shuster.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Wm. Tweddle is under the Doctor's care. Wishing her a speedy recovery.

Allen Gates had his tonsils removed at Pickering-Ajax Hospital one day recently. Hoping you are feeling OK now, Allen.

The Home & School held their regular monthly meeting in the school house on Wednesday evening, Mrs. J. Thompson, Mrs. L. Gates and Mrs. C. Hollinger were hostesses for the evening. A film on Indians was shown. Mrs. Riches, the president, was in the chair. Miss Paulette Riches gave a number of piano selections.

A number of ladies attended the Dessert Luncheon at Centennial on Thursday.

Local and Personal Happenings

Dr. and Mrs. Bodendistel of Guelph were visitors in town last week.

Richmond Hill tax rate will remain this year at 79 mills, based on an assessment of four and a half million dollars. Police costs in our neighboring town amount to $20,200.00

The 1955 Buick owned by Mr. John Davis was in collision with another car in North Markham last week. The one side was scraped and dented but damage was not too extensive.

The severe electrical storm that hit this area Friday night caused widespread damage to hydro and telephone communications. A number of television sets were damaged by lightning bolts. The heavy rains brought rivers and streams up to bank level and many flooded cellars were reported.

Last Saturday evening a surprise party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Mackay in their new home on Maytree Ave. on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. After an evening of games a buffet lunch was served including a 25th anniversary cake, and the happy couple were showered with many and varied gifts.

Around twenty-five members of the CGIT, with their leaders Mrs. H. Lewis and Mrs. Ted Topping attended a District Rally at Willowdale United Church last Saturday morning and afternoon. The girls report a wonderful day with folk and square dancing in the afternoon and singing led by Miss Mona Armstrong. The Church at Willowdale is new and all enjoyed being there and seeing it.

Deaths—
VERNON—Keith, Corp., U.S. M.C.—died as the result of an accident on April 26th, 1956, at Camp Le Jeune, North Carolina, son of Mrs. W. F. Maunder (Kathleen M. Freel) of Stouffville. Interment in Stouffville Cemetery. (Fuller particulars next week.

GOOD RESPONSE TO MISSIONARY CONVENTION

The most successful Missionary Convention in several years closed last Sunday evening in the Gormley United Missionary Church. Throughout the week missionaries from various parts of the world spoke with enthusiasm and challenge of the great work of evangelism in the present day.

A highlight of the Convention was the playing of a tape made in Nigeria by Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hunking, young people who left this community to take the Gospel to those in the darkness of Africa.

Attendance at all services was excellent. Throughout the year in all departments of the Gormley-Bethesda churches $26.00 was given for missions. Convention offerings added $17.00 more, making a total for the year of $43.00.

DEATH

Chief Constable W. A. Diamond makes no exceptions when it comes to tagging drivers who insist on breaking the town's parking bylaws. Last week he placed a ticket on the windshield of his own car that his wife had brought down town. While doing the weekend shopping she left it double-parked. We understand that Chief Diamond paid the $1.00 fine.

Mrs. Geo. Miller who resided on Church St. for some time and disposed of her home to move to the city, returned to Stouffville last week from Toronto, and will make her home in the Smith Apt. on Church St. Miss A. B. Clark, former tenant has moved into the city.

Five of our members, Mrs. Birkett, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Klinck, Mrs. Middleton, and Mrs. Wallace attended the Annual Meeting for our District (No. 13) at Tottenham last week.

MARKHAM VILLAGE COUNCIL

Markham Village council received a bill last week for hospital treatment for a dog, amounting to $28.00. The account concerned an animal which had bitten a child in the neighbourhood and was taken to the city to be checked for rabies. Council there is holding up payment pending an investigation.

"Spring isn't officially here until the frost is all out of the ground," says Mr. W. T. Bradshaw of Markham. Mr. Bradshaw says that when digging recently, he hit frost about one foot below top of the ground. He says that the particular spot was out in the open and was covered with snow during most of the winter.

REMODELING OF THE KITCHEN

The remodeling of the kitchen in the Stouffville United Church basement has been completed and the members of the Women's Association are planning to have it officially opened and dedicated on June 2nd, at which time it will be open for inspection. This dedication service will be followed by an afternoon tea, bake sale and white elephant sale. Any donations to the white elephant sale will be gratefully accepted at the church during the month of May.

WILFRED LAZENBY WAS CHURCH HILL FARMER

The death occurred at Maple Glen Rest Home, Gormley on Sunday, April 29th, of Wilfred Walter Lazenby. He was in his 79th year.

The late Mr. Lazenby farmed in Whitchurch Twp. for a number of years at Church Hill, on the 9th concession. He has been retired now for several years and since then has made his home in Stouffville and Newmarket, most recently with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wagg.

Deceased is survived by one daughter (Leone) Mrs. Leo Wagg and a sister (Clara) Mrs. Arthur Vaughan of Ballantrae, also three grandchildren, Percy, Neil and Shirley. His wife predeceased him.

The funeral on Tuesday was conducted from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel with interment in Church Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were four nephews, Carl Rose, Bruce McLean, Richard Wright, Roy Fowell, Tom Clark and John Williams.
