

Box Grove Real Estate Farm Sales Brisk

Shirley Howard

Don't be surprised if some day soon you see a sign—"This way to the Box Grove Subdivision." A number of local farms have been sold recently; among them the Speers farm and the Freeman property and several of the farms on the south side of the town line. These latter are of course in Scarborough Township and hence part of Metropolitan Toronto. It was this overshadowing of farms by the city which led to the planning of a television program written by Dean Hughes of Unionville entitled "In the Shadow of the City", to be shown on June 17th at 10 p.m. The farm of Archie Little has been the location for much of the filming and the Little family have been pictured in all phases of their daily living. It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Little will also be appearing in person on the program and they can be assured of an especially interested audience from this part of the country.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Bert Roffey whose brother, Ed Roffey of Markham, passed away on Saturday evening in his 70th year.

On Friday afternoon the senior class from our school went to Mount Joy for a baseball game, the Junior team returning victorious and the seniors losing their game. At the same time, Mr. Burkholder took the junior room on a nature hike to Coakwell's bush.

The June W.A. meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, June 6th, at the home of Mrs. Haines. Project for the evening will be the making of Christmas novelties for the bazaar and a sale of leftover articles from the last bazaar.

Starting on Wednesday, May 30th, at 4:15 and continuing for the next month, Church membership classes for the Box Grove United Church will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. Everyone interested is welcome to these classes which will be under the direction of the minister, Mr. Unstead.

On Sunday the Markham High School Band journeyed to Niagara Falls to take part in the parade there for the Lions Club Convention. Girls from the village, who took part were Susan Armstrong, Audrey and Ruth Jarvis and Marilyn and Joan Penny.

There have been more German measles in the village and some recent sufferers are Donna Speers, Betty Lou Coakwell, John Dickinson, Danny Dickinson, Neil Hamill, and Kathy Stevenson.

Happy birthday to David Rimmer who was six years old on Tuesday.

On behalf of the Canadian Cancer Society, Mrs. Haines would like to extend thanks to the community for their co-operation in the recent campaign. Altogether about $55 was collected. The money collected by the Cancer Society in their annual drive is used to provide dressings, welfare services and to support research and help educate the public to watch for the cancer danger signals and seek early treatment.

We are pleased to report that Mary Connor is feeling better now after being very ill last week with a bad case of blood poisoning which started from a small unbroken blister on her thumb. Mrs. Connor would like to extend her thanks to all her friends and neighbors who were so helpful when she was ill.

weekend when Mrs. Hardy's father, Mr. Buchanan bought a small horse. Needless to say, the Hardy girls are the envy of the neighborhood children.

Congratulations to Joyce Gray who won first place for the girls in the High School Field Day having a total of 44 points out of a possible 50.

The Gray's have planted a few hundred tulips in front of their place which are expected to be in full bloom by the weekend.

The pupils of Grade 8 are busy writing exams this week; we wish good luck to them all.

The Girls' Baseball League is now formed and plays on Wednesday evenings. There are two teams, one managed by Marg Walter with Louise Jarvis as captain and the other managed by Mary Connor and captained by Gail Hardy. The Missionary Sewing Circle held a closing party at Gray's on Monday evening complete with games and refreshments.

Visiting with the Coakwells on Sunday was Ann Coakwell of Toronto.

There are two new families in the village this last week, one belongs to one of the Sissons' ducks and the other to one of the Gray's banties.

The winners at last Friday's euchre were Mrs. Riddle, Mrs. Lotton, Mrs. Marquis, Artie Miller, Herb Jarvis and Bill Ham. Frezout was won by Mrs. Swain and Bill Swain.

Ed Roffey Was Former Councillor

Mr. Edwin Roffey of Markham, a village councillor for 12 years, passed away suddenly at his home, early Sunday morning. News of his death came as a shock to his friends and neighbours. The deceased had not been in ailing health.

Mr. Roffey was born in England. Upon coming to Canada, he took up residence in Toronto and with his father, the late Alfred Roffey, he made and sold pumps in the Broadview-Danforth district. He came to Markham 39 years ago in 1917 and continued in the same business. His wife, the former Lillian Day, predeceased him 12 years ago. The late Mr. Roffey was in his 70th year.

The deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Fred Reid of Markham. There are also three brothers, Jim in Toronto, Bert of Box Grove, and Fred in Pickering, also two sisters, Mrs. Carey of Detroit and Mrs. Gledhill in California.

The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. Geo. Thomas of St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, with interment in Elmwood Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Reuben Meyer, Gordon Lunau, Frank Grove, Harry Johnson, Charles Hill and Fred Williamson.

A long-time bachelor, newly married, says he doesn't feel comfortable after all these years eating his breakfast with his hat on.

CEDAR GROVE

What will be reported in Cedar Grove next? On Sunday night Yvonne Housser's sleep was interrupted by a visiting deer who inartistically dug up the landscape. The question is—Where is the deer now?

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCowan, in their new home in Markham, were hosts to the Community Club on Monday evening. John Petrie, club president, was recovering from the flu so Don McClelland, vice-president, was in the chair. The program for the Garden Party is settled and committees have been chosen to look after the booths, parking, lights and all the details behind this annual undertaking. There will again be two booths and no change in the price of admission.

Last year's Community Picnic was so successful it will be repeated this year. July 18th (Wednesday evening) bring your own supper to the Log Yard and join in the fun. There will be games, prizes, races—more about this later.

ANCIENT SCROLLS FOR MONT. COLLEGE

McGill University in Montreal will next year become the sole North American repository for some of the famous Dead Sea scrolls, which date from the time of Christ and are said to be the most ancient versions of the Old Testament in Hebrew. According to the April Reader's Digest, McGill will get some of the priceless relics in return for being the first institution outside Palestine to respond to an appeal by the Jordan government for financial assistance in purchasing the scrolls from the Bedouins.

The finding of the first of the scrolls eight years ago has since led to further archaeological discoveries which it is said will throw new light on the origins of Christianity.

The article relates how two Bedouin boys, exploring a cave near the Dead Sea in 1947 in search of gold, found several clay jars containing foul-smelling lumps wrapped in linen. Tearing off the linen, the young treasure-hunters stared sadly at 11 scrolls covered with strange writing. In their bitter disappointment the boys little dreamed that they had made the most amazing manuscript discovery of modern times.

Five of the scrolls found by the Arab boys turned out to be a book of the Old Testament and study of the script indicated that they dated from the time of Christ. Described as "an absolutely incredible find" by Dr. William F. Albright, renowned archaeologist of Johns Hopkins University, these five scrolls alone were later sold for a quarter of a million dollars!

Some scholars disagreed, and one even described the entire discovery as a hoax. For there was no known book of the Old Testament in Hebrew more than 1100 years old.

Albright was backed up, however, by the torrents of evidence that now began to pour in. More finds were made in the same area. Linen from the original cave was tested for radioactivity and found to be around 2,000 years old. The "Qumran Ruins", close to the cave of the original find and long thought to be the remains of a Roman fort, were now revealed to have been a monastery, apparently the home of an ancient Jewish sect called the Essenes.

Additional caves disclosed fragments of almost every book of the Old Testament. Subsequent searches east of the Dead Sea have turned up parts of the New Testament written in Greek 1300 years ago.

Audience Enjoy Rural Musicale

On Wednesday evening, May 23, the second music festival was held in the newly decorated Uxbridge Music Hall under the direction of the supervisor, Mrs. Colby. Pupils from Altona, Fifth Line, Garibaldi, Goodwood Jr. and Sr. rooms, Pinegrove and Webb schools contributed patriotic, secular and religious numbers in combined choirs. Singing games, folk dances, a circus, a patriotic drill and a rhythm band selection rounded out the interesting programme.

Interesting scenery and costumes provided by the different schools made attractive settings for several numbers. The pupils and their director deserve great credit for the type of material and the effort put before the public. The numbers by the Colby Boys' Choir were much enjoyed.

Many thanks go to the parents and friends who made up the appreciative audience and who were responsible for having each small tot in his place on time. Attractively wrapped gifts were presented to Mrs. Colby and Miss Jeanne Pearson, the pianist, for her musical contribution to the above communities. The Boys' Choir showed their appreciation with beautifully wrapped gifts also.

The teachers are Mrs. Woodcock, Mrs. Sheehy, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Wagg, Miss Brown, Miss Beare and Mr. Martin.

RCAF FLIES AROUND THE WORLD

First round-the-world flight carried out in 1956 by the RCAF's Air Transport Command has been completed by No. 426 "Thunderbird" Squadron.

Flying one of the Squadron's four-engine North Star aircraft, a full complement of aircrew and groundcrew of Air Transport Command's "workhorse" unit circled the globe on long hops by way of Gander in Newfoundland, the Azores, Gibraltar, Malta, Cyprus, Bahrain in the Persian Gulf, Karachi, Delhi, Colombo, Singapore, Manila, Tokyo, Wake, Honolulu, San Francisco, Winnipeg, and then home to the Squadron base at Dorval, near Montreal.

Designed to familiarize transport aircrew with the aerodromes and airfield facilities around the world, the flights provide valuable training for pilots, radio officers, navigators, flight engineers, and transport groundcrew in long range logistic support operations.

The globe-circling flights, numbering about three a year, and requiring about 3 weeks to complete, have evolved out of the trans-oceanic familiarization flights for Air Transport Command aircraft which began in July, 1948. With RCAF transport commitments to all parts of the world, the original training flights and routes have been revised, becoming round-the-world operations.

The trips are unscheduled and undertaken only when a training requirement exists. Such training is essential in order to maintain a high standard of efficiency in the RCAF's Transport Command, a "moving" force whose unofficial motto is "Anything. Anytime. Anywhere. Safely."
