(Kitchener-Waterloo Record)

At 6.30 on Wednesday, June 20th, twenty-three members of

The Garrett Evening Auxiliary sat around prettily decorated, well-laden tables for a sumptuous put luck supper in the United Church basement. This was followed by their regular meeting which opened with a sing-song of several hymns taken from The Gospel Call. After the President had disposed of the business, Miss Anne Lehman gave a very interesting Worship Service dealing with "Music in the Old Testament." Miss Leh-

Caution!

The school bell has rung for the last time until next September-hundreds of kiddies have been turned loose on the streets of Stouffville and surrounding hamlets. Their lives are in your hands. Now more than ever you should drive with care paying particular attention to children playing near the street.

Don't mar life by being careless. Stouffville cannot spare the life of one child. Remember . . . Speed kills! Beware!
