

WEDDINGS

STOFFER-PAISLEY
The Second Markham Baptist Church was decorated with standards of mixed gladioli for the beautiful double-ring ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 22, 1956, at 3 o'clock, when Phyllis Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paisley became the bride of Bert Grenfell Stoffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Stoffer of Stouffville. Rev. Bruce Hisey performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. F. C. Huson. Miss Joy Grove, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and the Nuptial Benediction with Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff at the organ. Mr. Keith Clarke assisted the groom with Mr. Robt. Paisley and Mr. John Stoffer acting as ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white lace and net over satin with the simple lace bodice closed with tiny covered buttons. The collar was trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt had lace panels, back and front, with appliques of lace on net. A matching net cap held her fingertip veil of tulle illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of Rapture roses and stephanotis.

Miss Jean Paisley, sister of the bride, maid of honour, with Mrs. Keith Clarke, bridesmaid, were attired alike in floor length crystal-charm turquoise princess line dresses with softly draped collars dipping low in the back. They carried woven baskets filled with Sweetheart roses and yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Joy Grove wore a similar gown of deep rose in waltz-length. They wore matching hats with miniature braided edgings.

At the reception, which was held in the Ringwood Christian Church, the bride's mother received wearing a light blue tricotina dress with dusky rose accessories and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a blue stone tricotina dress trimmed with pleated satin with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. For the wedding trip to points unknown, the bride chose a light brown dressmaker suit with brown accessories.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Todd of Orono wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Elizabeth, to Donald Gordon of Kendal, the marriage to take place on Oct. 20 in Orono United Church.

On their return, the happy couple will reside in Stouffville.

DONER-BROWN

Baskets of white, peach and yellow gladioli provided a pretty setting in Bloomington Christian Church on Saturday, September 15th, when Phyllis Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Brown became the bride of Howard Walter Doner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Doner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of white embroidered nylon taffeta with flower buds of pearls in the scalloped neckline. The full-length gown fell into a Chapel train. A matching scalloped headdress with flower buds of pearls held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a cascade of red roses and white gladioli.

Miss Lillian Brown was maid of honor for her sister, wearing a floor-length gown of cream de cocoa taffeta and carrying a cascade of yellow roses and zinnias. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Wagg and Miss Evelyn Doner, sister of the groom, who wore identical floor-length gowns of peach taffeta and they carried cascades of Talisman roses and zinnias.

Models at Fashion Show

Pretty little Jessie Smith, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith, Church Street, Stouffville, made her first professional modelling appearance recently in Toronto. A graduate of the Estelle Modeling School, Jessie was selected to model dresses for the Simpson-Sears Company's fall fashion show, the theme being "My Fair Lady."

Local and Personal Happenings

Uxbridge Twp. Couple Wed Twenty-five Years

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Leadlay, R.R. 1, Uxbridge, was the scene of a happy occasion on Sunday, Sept. 23, 1956, when relatives, friends and neighbours gathered to congratulate the couple on their silver wedding anniversary. They were taken completely by surprise as their daughters had planned the occasion in honour of their parents. Mrs. Leadlay had previously invited several friends for an anniversary dinner, and so the children had decorated the house without arousing her suspicion.

Mr. and Mrs. Leadlay were married at her home near Aylesbury, Saskatchewan, in 1931, and came east on their honeymoon and lived ever since around the Stouffville district, before moving to Uxbridge in 1938.

Mrs. Leadlay is the former Miss Isabel MacKenzie. A brother, Rod MacKenzie, still resides in Aylesbury.

At the door on Sunday in charge of the guest book was Miss Jean Leadlay. Mr. and Mrs. Leadlay received their guests in the dining-room which was decorated with pink and white streamers, and wedding bells. Throughout the home were baskets of gladioli, asters, and other flowers. Mrs. Leadlay was attired in blue and wore a corsage of gladioli and fern. Misses Grace and Kay Leadlay assisted their parents in looking after the guests.

The happy couple received many useful and lovely gifts. Among the gifts was a walnut silver chest from their family. In the centre of the dining-room table which was laid with a lovely lace cloth was a two-tiered wedding cake decorated in silver, pink and white, and on either side were silver candlesticks. The cake was cut by the bride and groom of 25 years ago, and later served to about 75 guests.

Among the guests were Mr. Leadlay's mother, Mrs. L. Leadlay, who is 77; and his aunt, Mrs. Bolton, who is 91. Both ladies are from Aurora. Also present was a cousin, Miss Katharine MacKenzie of Toronto, and Rev. and Mrs. B. S. Black, pastor of Quaker Hill Presbyterian Church where the Leadlays are members. Other guests were present from Stouffville, Richmond Hill, Oshawa, Agincourt, Clarksonton, Maple, Markham, Dickson's Hill, Unionville, Sandford and Uxbridge.

Mrs. Nelson Chapman, neighbour and close friend of the family, poured tea. The lunch was daintily served by the girls, assisted by Miss Alice Percy and Katharine MacKenzie and assisted in the kitchen by Mrs. J. Mitchell of Clarksonton, a friend of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leadlay have 4 daughters and one son. Grace is a nurse at Sunnybrook Hospital; Kay, a teacher at Dunbarton; Bill, Jean and Carol at home.

Rev. Mr. Black spoke a few words and in a message to the honoured guests, quoted the following: "for your two-selves may the future be rainbowed with God's precious promises which the Bible tells us are exceeding great and precious."

We extend our congratulations to this highly esteemed couple and offer best wishes for many more happy years together.

The new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Len Wilkes is presently under construction in the Timber's Subdivision, west end of town.

Another new home in the Starvale Subdivision is presently under construction, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. Alda and family. Mr. Russ Forfar is doing the work.

The Stouffville Nursery School will be welcomed as a new exhibitor at the Trade Fair this year, the space having been donated by Marie Jack, Hairdressing Salon.

Mrs. I. Hampton and Miss Marian McRae of Toronto were Sunday visitors at the Mertens home.

In the past few weeks a number of new operators have been added to the switchboard of the Stouffville-Bethesda local office. They are as follows: Mrs. Marion Meyer, Miss Leona Atkinson, Mrs. Shirley Frost, Mrs. Keith Murphy, Miss Shirley Harmon and Mrs. Adele Willis.

The Stouffville Scout Troop, under the leadership of Roy Dowdell, Larry Bellman and Ray Ford, will meet on Tuesday evening, October 2nd, at 7:30 p.m. in the United Church basement. Every boy is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paisley of Portland, Oregon, have returned home after visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. I. H. Paisley and family. Many relatives gathered at the Paisley home last weekend on the occasion of their departure. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lon Allen, R.R. 3, Stouffville, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Adamson and Mrs. Margaret Stoakes of Toronto.

The various committees in the Stouffville Lions Club have been appointed with the following men as chairmen: Attendance—Fred Campbell; Community Betterment—Ken Wagg; Finance—Charlie Livingstone; Membership—Bruce Winterstein; Programme—Ted Edwards; Boys and Girls—Vern Davies; Health and Welfare—Harold Spoford; Publicity—Albert Smalley and Don Davis; Safety—Cec Hendricks; Special Activities—Bill Ford; Visiting—Neil Smith. The President this year is Dr. John Button.

Stouffville W. I. Choose Convention Delegates

The first fall meeting of the Stouffville W.I. was held in Christ Church Parish Hall last Thursday. Mrs. Burgin conducted the meeting. Eighteen members answered the Roll Call. Letters were read thanking the branch for donations, from the Home & School and Ball Team. Mrs. J. Williamson and Mrs. W. Sanderson were chosen as delegates to attend the convention at the Royal York Hotel from October 30th to Nov. 2nd. The date was set for the annual Burka for Nov. 3rd Mrs. M. Burk gave an excellent paper on the life of Madame Curie, co-discoverer of Radium. After the meeting, lunch was served by the Tea hostesses, Mrs. P. Barry, Mrs. N. Burton and Mrs. G. Bartholomew.

WEDDING

CLAYTON-DUNCAN

A very pretty wedding ceremony was conducted on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan, Brougham, on Saturday, Sept. 22, 1956, at 4 p.m., when their daughter, Georgina Elaine was united in marriage to Harold Edward Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton of Toronto.

Rev. H. H. Lackey officiated and the organist was Miss Barbara Stewart of Markham. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered nylon, waltz length with fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The best man was a brother of the groom and the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred DeCaire acted as Matron of honour. She wore a waltz length gown of blue net over taffeta while the junior bridesmaid, Kay Duncan, was attired in a similar gown of pink net over taffeta. Following the wedding breakfast at the bride's home, the happy couple left for a honeymoon to be spent in the Laurentians, after which they will make their home in Toronto.

The party who recently stole two radios from the summer cottage of Mr. L. E. O'Neill has been picked up in Toronto. The man attempted to sell the stolen articles to local residents here.

The Salvation Army truck will be in Stouffville on Tuesday, Oct. 2nd, and Wed. Oct. 3rd for its annual collection of goods.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Price have purchased the former L. W. J. Buckland home on Edward St. Mr. Price is a buyer for Canada Packers with his office in the Stouffville Sales Arena.

Mr. Rae Marshall and Delbert Booth of Sky Line Farms, Kettleby, flew with Walter Booth to Chicago on Sunday to look at new processing equipment for their plant at Kettleby.

In order to prove that spirit at the Stouffville District High School is far from dead, students took part in Main Street parade on Friday afternoon prior to their selection of the 1956-57 student's council.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hastings were guests at the wedding of Dr. Jean Hogarth and Mr. D'Arcy McGuinness on Thursday evening at the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church.

Saturday afternoon saw an extra large crowd of shoppers in town. The unusual sunny weather coaxed many window shoppers out of their homes. The familiar figure of Chief Diamond directing traffic at the corner of Main and Mill Streets eased the congestion considerably.

Mrs. Stanley Hastings and her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Morningstar, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week at Delawana Inn, Honey Harbor, Georgian Bay, when Mrs. Morningstar addressed the Convention of Allied Florists being held there.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, a car driven by Mr. J. D. Holman of Goodwood was in collision with a gravel truck at Lincolnville. Chief Constable Wm. Diamond was summoned and rushed Mr. and Mrs. Holman to Stouffville where they received treatment from Dr. D. H. Smith. The truck, driven by Mr. Carl Walker, Toronto, went through a guard rail and stopped after plunging down a rather steep embankment. P.C. Frank Moore of the Vondorf O.P.P. investigated.

The regular meeting of the Willing Helpers was held in the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening. Mrs. R. Fleury gave a most enjoyable reading and Rev. D. R. McKillican showed wonderful pictures of England, Scotland and the Continent taken during his stay overseas last year. There was a good attendance to enjoy the fine program.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Emmerson and Mr. and Mrs. W. McCowan attended the funeral of the late Otto Davis on Monday afternoon. Mr. Davis had been employed by the T. Eaton Co. for over thirty years. Recently retired, he died following a short illness at his home on the Kingston Road, Scarborough, on Thursday, Sept. 20, 1956. He is survived by his wife, Mary A., a cousin of Mr. McCowan of Stouffville, and one daughter, Margaret (Mrs. S. Prior). Funeral services were held in the Chapel of McDougal and Brown Ltd., 2900 Kingston Road.

Watch for the date of the Opening of the new Beauty Salon, "The Powder Puff" to be operated by Miss Joy O'Neill and located in the L. E. O'Neill block.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Baxter motored to Manitoulin Island recently to spend a week with relatives and friends there.

Mrs. Phyllis (Klinck) Bockner, husband and family of St. Louis, Mo., are en route to Stouffville where they will visit at the Harry Klinck home.

Friends will be sorry to hear that Mr. Harry Klinck has entered the Western Hospital, Toronto; however, we are pleased to report Mr. Klinck is making favourable progress.

Work has commenced on the construction of a new paved drive at the front of the Public School here. The job will be completed in two weeks.

A preliminary report issued by federal officials as a result of the recent census, gives Aurora a population of 3,920. This is an increase of nearly 200 since September, 1955.

Quite a large number of people were in town on Saturday afternoon hoping to see the OBA Midget playoff game between Stouffville and Caledonia. Unknown to them however, the contest had been cancelled.

In a list of the exhibitors at the Trade Fair which appeared in last week's issue of the Tribune, the name "The Three Sisters" was incorrectly used instead of "The Marguerite Shoppe" now operated by Miss Marguerite Simons.

A tape recording was made of the regular meeting of town council on Thursday evening. The minutes of the previous meeting were recorded earlier, by Clerk Garfield Brown and played back at the regular session.

The narrow bridge on Market Street has posed a problem in the laying of sewers along that particular road. It was thought for a time that it might be possible to move the shovel over the bridge but it has since been decided to reroute it and approach the bridge from the north.

United Church CGIT

Your help is requested by the C.G.I.T. girls of the United Church. Help us raise funds to help others, by collecting BOX-TOPS from General Mills breakfast cereals, Betty Crocker Cake, Cookie and other mixes, Biscuits and Gold Medal Flour. To our group each top is worth 5 cents. Save them from now until Nov. 9th. A C.G.I.T. girl will call and collect. If not, Phone 32J or 393.

SKATING CLUB

Skating commences at 3:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 15. Registrations and fees will be accepted Friday, Oct. 12th, 4:5 p.m. at the rink. Fees—Srs., 13 years and over on Nov. 1st, $25.00. All under 13 years, $15.00. Special rates for families of three or more. Skating days will be Monday, Tuesday and Friday.

NOTICE

Those wishing to send for blankets have old woolen and cotton rags and money at Mrs. Wm. Reaman's, Glasgow, by Oct. 20, Phone 66920.

Canadian Petrofina Ltd.
Business Opportunity
New Fina Service Stations
FOR LEASE IN STOUFFVILLE AND MARKHAM
Excellent Opportunities for Aggressive Businessmen.
EXPERIENCE NOT NECESSARY
as we have a development program to thoroughly train our dealers.
Capital Required
MARKHAM STATION $6000.
STOUFFVILLE STATION $4000.
Financial Returns from this venture warrants the attention of a top notch man.
For Appointment, Phone
H. G. McGILL
TORONTO, ONT. Baldwin 1-9328

"PLANT A HEDGE" — "ORDER NOW!"

CHINESE ELM Eastest and Fastest Growing —12-inch size, 100 for $2.50; 18-inch size, 100 for $3.00; 24-inch size, 25 for $3.25 or $18.00 per 100; 3-ft. size, 25 for $4.00 or $25.00 per 100.	PRIVET "Amorosa" variety, 17-18 inch size, 100 for $3.00; 18-inch size, 100 for $3.25 or $18.00 per 100.	RED BARBERRY Maroon-red all season —12-inch size, 25 for $1.95 or $22.00 per 100.
PEONY ROOTS Red, White or Pink, 1 for $1.95.

FREE ONE RED SPIREA SHRUB FOR EARLY ORDERS.
ALSO CANADA'S FINEST BUREAU GARDEN GUIDE
BROOKDALE-KINGSWATER NURSERIES
BOWMANVILLE (Phone Day or Night, 3-3345) ONTARIO

STANDARD ME
By resolution of the Township of Markham, the following lands revert to Standard Me
SUNDAY, SEPT. 24
Dated this 24th day of September 1956.
I, the undersigned, Clerk of the Township of Markham, do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the resolution of the Township Council of Markham, Ontario, passed on the 24th day of September, 1956.
Clerk of the Township of Markham.

Sandricks Hardware
PAINTS and ENAMELS
budget prices
STOUFFVILLE - ONTARIO

Notice To All Advertisers
Your Co-operation In Submitting Display Advertising Copy Before
4 p.m. on Tuesday
Every Week Will Be Appreciated.
Remember - Early Composition Secures A Good Position.
The Stouffville Tribune
Telephone 152

BETHESDA Anniversary Services
on SUNDAY, SEPT. 30
11 a.m.—REV. V. WOODS of Aurora.
Soloist—Mrs. Morgason.
7:30 p.m.—REV. G. DAVISON, Melville.
Quartette: Rev. Bruce Hisey and sons.

CLAREMONT BAPTIST CHURCH Celebrates Its
135th Anniversary
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th
The services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. will be conducted by the Minister.
GUEST PREACHER—REV. FRANK BRECKON of Newmarket.
The Men of Zion Trio will sing at both services.
We bid you welcome to our church, its work and worship, its instruction and service, its comfort and blessing.

STOUFFVILLE TRADE FAIR
SEPTEMBER 27-28-29
STOUFFVILLE ARENA