

Local Weddings

JOHNSTON—ORB

The Victoria Square United Church was the scene of a beautiful fall wedding on Saturday, September 15, at 3 p.m. when Anna Gertrude Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Orr, became the bride of Mr. Robert Kennedy Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston of Nashville. Rev. Charles Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston of Nashville, Rev. Charles Fockler, assisted by Dr. J. Ross, performed the double-ring ceremony amidst a setting of mauve and white Gladoli.

Mrs. Gordon Orr sang Through the Years, before the bridal party entered the church, The Lord's Prayer during the ceremony, and I'll Walk Beside You, during the signing of the register. She was accompanied at the organ by Miss Coral Perkins.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was given in marriage by him. She looked lovely in a long-sleeved white embroidered nylon marquisette gown over white satin with fitted bodice and a hoop skirt. Her fingertip veil was of white tulle with Queen Anne head-piece with sequins and outlined in seed pearls. She carried white feathered mums, stephanotis and green ivy.

Miss Helen Thomas, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Misses Ethel Thomas, cousin of the bride and Betty Johnson, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. The attendants wore waltz-length gowns of emerald green crystalettes with matching emerald green leathered hats and sequins. They carried baskets of yellow and bronze mums.

Misses Laurie and Anita Orr, nieces of the bride, acted as flower girls. They wore pale green nylon dresses, and carried baskets of yellow and bronze mums. Masters Ronald and Donald Orr, nephews of the bride, acted as ring-bearers. They wore grey trousers with navy-blue jackets. The groomsmen were Mr. Ken. Hodgson and Mr. Robert Arlow.

For the reception which was held in the church parlours, the bride's mother received her guests in a crepe toned lace and crepe dress with beige hat and gloves. The groom's mother assisted in a brown crepe dress with taupe hat and gloves. For travelling, the bride donned a blue suit with dusty rose hat and gloves.

MARSHMAN — BROWN
Marlene Shirley Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy D. Brown and Maurice Frederick Marshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Marshman, exchanged marriage vows in the Christian Memorial Church on September 22. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dearmond.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz length gown with a boat neckline and long sleeves adorned with sequins. Her seed pearl coronet held her fingertip veil of nylon net. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Miss Ruth Marshman, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length blue lace over taffeta gown with matching head piece. She carried a bouquet of Johanna-Hill roses. Erma Brown, bridesmaid, sister of the bride, wore a pink lace over taffeta gown with matching head piece. She carried a bouquet of Johanna-Hill roses. Miss Brenda Marshman, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a mauve nylon short dress with matching head piece. She carried a nosegay of flowers. Best man was Thomas Marshman, brother of the groom. The ushers were Bruce Marshman, brother of the groom, and Frank Hoey, brother-in-law of the bride.

The reception was held in the Masonic Hall. The bride's mother received in a two piece blue celanese dress with navy and white accessories with a corsage of mixed roses. The groom's mother received in a two piece grey celanese dress with a two piece grey celanese with pink accessories with a corsage of mixed roses.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon for points north.

Cutting The Cake

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas Burkholder are pictured above cutting the cake following their wedding on Saturday in the Stouffville United Missionary Church. The bride was the former Mary Alice Pennanen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Viotta Pennanen, Stouffville. —Cadieux Studio.

Down The Aisle

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blizzard are pictured above coming down the aisle of the Peach's United Church following their marriage on Saturday afternoon. The bride was the former Barbara Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stewart, 7th concession of Markham and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blizzard. —Jim Thomas.

The new paved drive being constructed at the Stouffville Public School by the Newmarket Paving Co. will be completed this week.

Counting your blessings is a lot more fun than reckoning your troubles.

Local and Personal Happenings

The brick residence at the corner of Main and Victoria Streets, owned by Mr. Charles Brillinger, has been sold. Mr. S. M. Sinclair transacted the sale.

Mr. Harold Murphy, accompanied by Messrs. Art Bolton, Don Uens and Lloyd Campbell, motored to Toronto last week to view the 1957 Ford for the first time. The party were treated to a banquet at the Club Kingsway. A sparkling new model is now on display at Murphy Motors, East end, Stouffville.

ROBB—HOOPER
The altar of Brown's Corners United Church was banked with standards of bronze and yellow mums and pink asters Saturday afternoon of last week, when Dorothy Cora Hooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, Buttonville, became the bride of William John Robb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robb, Toronto. Rev. A. C. Huston performed the ceremony and Mrs. S. J. English and Miss Dorothy Hood played the wedding music. Mrs. George Hooper, soloist, sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white sculptured lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a picture neckline, and the skirt fell in a graceful flare. Her veil was tulle illusion and was caught to a small sequin-embroidered tulle crown and she carried sweetheart roses and white baby's mums. Mrs. Ted Gough, matron of honour for her sister, wore a ballerina gown of dusty pink taffeta with matching picture hat and net stole. She carried yellow and bronze mums. The bridesmaids, Misses Mary Hooper, sister of the bride, and Marion Nichols, carried identical cascade bouquets, and were similarly gowned in Nile green taffeta. The pretty little flower girl was the bride's cousin, Marilyn Pratt, who wore yellow taffeta with a small halo headress and carried a nosegay of mauve and yellow mums. Charles Hooper, younger brother of the bride, was ring bearer for the double ring ceremony. Mr. Nelson Buchanan attended the groom and the ushers were George Hooper, brother of the bride, and Donald Robb; the groom's brother.

At the reception held in the Buttonville W.I. Hall, Mrs. Hooper received her guests wearing cinnamon lace over taffeta, with matching hat and accessories, and a corsage of yellow rosebuds and mums. Mrs. Robb chose Queen's blue lace over brocade taffeta, with pink hat and matching accessories. Her flowers were pink rosebuds. For a motor trip through the eastern United States the bride donned a gray flannel worsted suit with cinnamon hat and accessories and corsage of yellow roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Robb will live in Toronto. Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Detroit, Chatham, Hamilton, Toronto and other points.

LEMONVILLE
The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Assn. will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 10th, at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. Graham. Bethesda W. M. Society who are the guests of the Lemonville Assn., will provide the program. A cordial welcome is extended to all ladies of the community.

Mr. Mel Kerr, Toronto, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kerr. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson called on a niece, Mrs. Gould, Richmond Hill, recently after having supper with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greenfield, Markham. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Blair of Montreal River recently spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnett.

BINGO
Bingo every Saturday night at the Veterans' Hall, sponsored by the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary.

The third game of the Buttonville-Thornhill softball final will be played here on Thursday evening in the local park. The boys would appreciate your support. The series is presently tied at one game apiece.

Miss Vivian Sadler of Bowmanville has returned home after visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. T. Lee.

Messrs Don Haynes and Don Harper returned home on Friday after a three week motor trip into Western Canada.

Mr. Charles Livingstone journeyed by air to Montreal on Saturday, returning home the following day.

Rev. W. E. Smalley of Binbrook, Ont., was a visitor here over the weekend, spending a few hours with his son, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smalley on Church Street, Rev. Smalley was a former minister here in the Baptist Church.

Mr. Ben Talbot, 9th concession, left on Sunday for a trip to the British Isles. Mr. Talbot will visit with relatives near Oxford, the scene of the world ploughing match.

In spite of warnings by Police Chief Diamond, the Public School Board and Principal Lorne Bowdway, a number of school children still persist in riding their bicycles over the broken stretch of road between Church Street and Baker Ave. Mr. Woodward, the local school guard, is also very concerned over the pupils' safety.

Mr. Barry Wilkes, a graduate of the Stouffville District High School, has enrolled in the Ont. Veterinary College at Guelph. Barry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Wilkes, Stouffville. Mr. Murray McMullen is also taking the five year course and registered at the College on Sept. 18th.

Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Lunau, a former pastor at the Goodwood United Church, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, Oct. 10th. They will be receiving friends at the Westmoreland United Church, Westmoreland and Hallam Ave., Toronto, from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 in the evening. They would be pleased to meet some of their old acquaintances from this district. The Westmoreland United Church are giving Rev. and Mrs. Lunau a reception in the church parlours on the same evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Symes, Lloyd Ave., is being stuccoed this week.

W.A. Bake Sale
The ladies of the Stouffville United Church W.A. will hold a Bake Sale in Stouffville Sales Arena at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 13th.

SKATING CLUB
Skating commences at 3:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 15. Registrations and fees will be accepted Friday, Oct. 12th, 4:5 p.m. at the rink.

Fees — Srs., 13 years and over on Nov. 1st, $25.00. All under 13 years, $15.00. Special rates for families of three or more. Skating days will be Monday, Tuesday and Friday.

Science can magnify the human voice 12,000 times, and Mom more than that when she's calling Junior to lunch.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hart, Main Street W., has been purchased by an Oakville couple. It was formerly the property of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Storey. The sale was made by the H. J. Lee Real Estate.

The new 'Powder Puff' Beauty Salon, operated by Miss Joy O'Neill, will open on Tuesday, October 9th. For appointment phone Stouff. 9SW1.

Local photographer, Mr. Ted Cadieux was a rather busy man on Saturday with no less than five weddings booked for the afternoon.

Mr. Doug Ramer has recently been employed with Walter Taylor Motors as Service Manager for the firm.

The annual Initiation Dance at the Stouffville District High School will be held on Friday evening, Oct. 5th. Each member of the student body has permission to invite three guests.

The regular meeting of Whitechurch Township Council will be held on Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

The Newmarket Brass Band were recently honoured at a banquet following their winning first prize in a Dominion-wide competition at the C.N.E. A band from British Columbia placed second. It cost the B.C. group close to $5,000 to place their entry in the competition. The Newmarket band has played here a number of times at Santa Claus Parades, the Trade Fair and at other forms of entertainment. Constable John McGee of the Markham Twp. Police Force is a member of this distinguished group. They will be one of the feature music attractions at Markham Fair on Saturday.

The regular meeting of Stouffville town council will be held on Thursday evening of this week.

The Autumn Thank offering Service of the afternoon auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society will be held in Stouffville United Church Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11, at 2:30. The guest speaker will be Mrs. C. Maxwell Lovey's, Home Mission Executive Secretary of the Dominion Board. Mrs. James A. Macklin of Agincourt will conduct the Worship. Mrs. George Hutton of Agincourt will be guest soloist. Invitations have gone out to Auxiliaries in rural north and south districts. A special invitation is extended to all Stouffville ladies to attend this meeting.

Stouffville Crusade For Christ
The Evangelistic Campaign sponsored by the Stouffville District churches presents the following financial report.
Total Receipts with 1955 Balance - $3,296.56
Expenditures
Bill Graham Association - 1,394.54
Cyril Redford, Song Leader and Soloist - 350.00
Organist and Pianist - 150.00
Heintzman Organ Co. - 150.00
Youth For Christ - 106.02
Radio Advertising - 115.80
and P.A. - 413.32
Advertising - 40.00
Seat Rental and Trucking - 80.00
Sundries - 350.00
Rent of Arena - 146.88
Balance on hand - $3,296.56

Horticultural Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of the Horticultural Society is to be held in the United Church basement on Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 8 o'clock. Mr. R. J. Young of Markham as guest speaker will be showing pictures of flowers, autumn scenes, etc. His pictures are of a high quality and those interested should not miss the opportunity of seeing them. A special feature on the program will be Mrs. Osterdahl and her daughters. They will be dressed in native costumes and will talk about life in Norway. The prize money will be paid at this meeting. The bulbs for premiums are also on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boothby of Mission City are spending a short time with his sister, Mrs. Geo. Hughes, Lloyd Ave., and other friends.

The staff at the Stouffville Public School and members of the Board met for a social get-together at the school on Monday evening.

Chief Wm. Diamond of the Stouffville Police has recovered the second radio that was reported stolen from a summer cottage north of Goodwood. The suspect appeared in Newmarket court on Friday and was placed on probation. Whittby O.P.B. are expected to lay additional charges, however.

Night classes resumed on Oct. 2nd at the Stouffville High School and each Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 p.m. Instructors of four popular classes are as follows: Art, Mr. Harold Hodgkins; Sewing, Mrs. Hazel Peckins; Typing, Mr. G. H. Langdale; Woodwork, Mr. J. R. Hammond. Persons interested in classes not listed apply to the principal, W. E. Duxbury.

Mr. Ray Hobbs, operator of the Western Tire Store in Stouffville, was the winner of the Red Riding Hood doll dressed in 50 $1.00 bills sponsored by the local Lions Club. The draw was made on Saturday night at the Trade Fair.

Mrs. Topham, Mill Street, Stouffville, was the winner of the man's suit donated by Ted's Men's Wear, Stouffville. The draw was made at the Trade Fair on Saturday evening.

A new two storey office building of concrete block construction is being erected by the Ken Betz Construction Co. on the Robt. Sellers' property, Main Street, Stouffville.

Badminton News
An organization meeting of the Stouffville Badminton Club will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10th, at the Stouffville District High School. The local group hopes to be part of a league comprising Agincourt, Uxbridge and Aurora. Last year, the club had a membership of 23 persons.

Dr. Helen Abel, who recently underwent an operation in Ottawa is convalescing at the home of her parents on Albert Street. Dr. Pearl Driemen, who accompanied her home, returned to Ottawa on Sunday.

On Saturday, Sept. 29th, the Stouffville Cub Pack visited the Richmond Hill Observatory. The Cubs were accompanied by their leaders and some of their fathers. Accompanying the party were Messrs. Lloyd McLean, Harry Sandford, John Chambers, Joe Forsyth and Dr. Neil Smith.

On The Public School Staff

Miss M. Ford is one of the seven new additions this year to the teaching staff of Stouffville Public School. Miss Ford, commencing her first year in the profession, is in charge of Grade 3. Possessing a winning smile and a pleasing personality, the new staff member has been given one of the rooms that were remodelled this summer. Miss Ford's home is at Wroxeter, near Wingham, Ont. —Jim Thomas.

SAVE MONEY

USE YOUR 'HOME GROWN' GRAINS WITH

CO-OP CONCENTRATES

THE BALANCED FEED YOU NEED

Stouffville Co-op

Stouffville — Ontario

Notice To All Advertisers

Your Co-operation In Submitting Display Advertising Copy Before

4 p.m. on Tuesday

Every Week Will Be Appreciated. Remember - Early Composition Secures A Good Position.

The Stouffville Tribune

Telephone 152

Time to plant —

Choice Selection of Fine Quality Dutch Bulbs

UNIONVILLE NURSERIES GARDEN CENTRE

No. 7 Highway

Phone 95