FATIGUE, CAUSE OF FARM ACCIDENTS

The farmer may love his tractor but it doesn't have that old horse sense. The result: Farmers are running into more accidents since the mechanzation of agriculture.

The American Medical Assoclation, in a recent report to the Health League of Canada, says it is alarmed at the high accident die each year as a result of accidents-mostly cause by fatigue. Farming rates third among major industries in the number of accidental deaths.

The explanation is this:

The horse had to have a rest during the course of the day. Everyone, including the farmer. realized it, so the farmer rested too. The machine, on the other hand, continues as long as the fuel supply holds out and so does the farmer.

CONCERT FOR BALL TEAM GALA EVENT

The baseball club concert in Daley's Hall on Tuesday evening was a complete success, according to The Stouffville Tribune of October 1, 1889. The story of the affair goes on to state: "Mr. Ramsay's singing was the feature of the evening, and it is needless to say that everyone was delighted with his impersonations. He recited "The Old Maid" for an encore and by special request, "Death Doomed," the latter being of a tragic nature and would have been considered out of line for a comic singer, but Ramsay did it well and the audience preserved a death-like stillness.

Miss Pearce's recitations were cleverly done. Mrs. A. Fleury sang twice. Although suffering from a cold, her singing was most pleasing. Mr. McCartney sang to fill in a gap in the program and covered himself with glory. A cornet solo by Mr. Noah Stouffer was executed with his usual skill and spirit, and three selections by the orchestra added much to the program. By kindness of Mr. Yake, the
