

O'Brien Ave. Couple Wed 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sanders, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday. More than fifty relatives and friends called on the local couple. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders have been lifelong residents here.

MISS JANET BRUCE HONOURED ON BIRTHDAY

On Friday evening, Oct. 19, at the beautiful home of Mrs. W. Bruce and Genevieve, there gathered a number of ladies of the Melville Church, to do honour to Miss Janet Bruce on the occasion of her birthday. Miss Bruce is the oldest living member of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Melville Church. Mrs. McLay, the President, presided over a short programme consisting of a solo by Mrs. Chadwick and two readings by Miss Janie Carruthers. Mrs. McKay spoke warmly of Miss Bruce's years of faithful service as Secretary of the organization. Miss Bruce thanked Mrs. McKay and told of how much pleasure it had given her to be of service. Happy Birthday to You was sung and then followed a shower of small gifts and Miss Bruce expressed her surprise and pleasure at the tokens of appreciation. Then followed a social half hour when refreshments were served and, on request, Miss Bruce played several hymns and all joined in singing. Mrs. Bruce and Genevieve were thanked for their kind hospitality and a delightful evening was brought to a close by prayer.

Ross Anderson from Filmore, Sask., brother of Hugh Anderson of Stouffville, is here visiting for a week.

Reports of poor delivery of The Tribune, from Toronto subscribers, continue to come in. All Tribunes arrive in Toronto on Thursday morning but Toronto postal delivery is so badly behind that it requires two and three days to get them out of the city offices. A check-up again last week revealed papers still lying in Toronto post-office from Thursday to Monday. Subscribers should do everything possible to stir their city postal authorities into action, as the newspaper is almost powerless with the exception of getting the papers to the city on time, which is being done. The discontinuance of the regular city afternoon delivery was a serious blow to the efficiency of the delivery.

Mr. Walt Smith has received the contract to plow the snow on the village streets this winter for a fee of $5.00 per hour.

Mr. James Brown of Gormley has been appointed to the new position of service manager at Patrick Motors, west end of Stouffville.

Due to a broken water main at the east end of town, the local fire brigade replenished the water supply at the Stouffville Poultry Farm, formerly owned by Mr. Delbert Booth, on Thursday evening.

Council will move to prevent all-night parking on the Main Street. The members feel that the cars are a hindrance to the Dept. of Highways during snow removal operations in the winter.

Road construction men found a small sucker about four inches long while excavating near Stouffer Street and Main. The fish was very much alive and in some miraculous way must have got into the drain from a nearby stream. However, at the time the fish was discovered, there was no apparent outlet, and how it survived is a mystery.

Mr. W. M. Earl, Asst. Registrar of the Motor Vehicle Permits Dept., Toronto, will speak at the Stouffville District High School in the near future. Mr. Earl was a recent speaker at the Lions Club and on request by Safety Chairman, Mr. Cec. Hendricks, Mr. Earl stated he would be happy to address the students whenever satisfactory arrangements could be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rae, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Manewell and Mr. F. Glen Ratcliff were in attendance at the Canadian Independent Telephone Assn. Convention held last week at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

Women Teachers Hold Supper at Oak Ridges

The Ridge Inn, Oak Ridges, was the setting for a supper meeting enjoyed by the York 2 and 3 branch of the Women Teachers' Federation of Ontario on Thursday, Oct. 18.

The group was welcomed by the president, Miss Margaret Fockler, after which a roast beef dinner was enjoyed by everyone.

The programme of the evening was begun with the introduction of the members of this year's executive. Mrs. Kingsley entertained with a piano selection, followed by a clever portrayal of a "salesgirl in hardware" by Miss June Ross.

Miss Young reported on the annual meeting of the Federation which she attended at Toronto in August and Mrs. Kingsley gave another piano selection. Miss Etile Hosie and Miss Kathleen Webster then outlined the history function and importance of the Federation. The point most stressed was the dependence of the Federation upon the interest and support of the individual member.

Miss Hosie, on behalf of this branch, presented a silver Federation spoon to Miss Webster, the retiring president, in appreciation for her service to the group.

RINGWOOD

Mrs. Fred Steckley Church services on Sunday, Oct. 28th at 11.15 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Carver and boys of Ottawa spent the weekend with their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Grove, also visiting other relatives.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY UNITES MARIE, SYMONS, AND MORLEY RYAN

Standards of pink and white gladioli was the setting in Trinity United Church, Uxbridge, on Saturday, Sept. 22, for the marriage of Marie Symons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Symons, to Morley Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Ryan. Rev. H. A. Kennedy, assisted by Rev. E. R. Hall of Danforth United Church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of French Persian lace and nylon tulle over satin with high neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. Her French fingertip veil was caught to a pleated lace bonnet shaped head dress covered with iridescent sequins to match her dress. She carried red Happiness roses and white baby mums adiantum and trailing ivy. The bride's attendants were: maid of honor, Mrs. Jean Hunter, sister of the bride, and Louise Ryan, sister of the groom, and Norene Ross. All wore waltz length dresses of lace and net over taffeta in shrimp color with matching feather head dress, and carried baskets of baby white and turquoise mums, with trailing plumosus.

Junior bridesmaids, Susan Ryan and Patsy Hunter were dressed alike in turquoise net and lace over crystallette with matching head dress, and carried baskets of baby mums in shrimp and white and trailing plumosus. Mrs. Remion played the Wedding music, Mrs. Colby sang The Lord's Prayer, and during the signing of the register, "Because," Mr. John Reesor acted as best man and George Symons and David Raymer were ushers. A reception for about 140 guests followed in the church parlors.

Receiving, the bride's mother wore a dress of dusty rose imported French lace and net over taffeta with navy accessories and corsage of yellow Sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted in medium blue dress of lace and crepe with navy accessories and corsage of pink Sweetheart roses. For travelling, the bride chose a brown suit with pink accessories and pink corsage of Sweetheart roses. After the reception the happy couple left for Nashville, Tennessee. On their return they will live in Cedar Grove.

WILSON — FISS

Mt. Zion Church was the scene of the ceremony that united in marriage Lila June Marie Fiss and William Anderson Wilson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fiss of Balsam, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Milliken. Rev. H. Moore of Greenwood officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of floor length white satin. The portrait neckline was outlined with seed pearls and sequins, with a bouffant skirt. Her veil fingertip length was of white silk illusion net and she carried a bouquet of Sunset Roses, white mums and ivy.

Mrs. Bert Third, Milliken, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Sheila Pegg, Greenwood, and Miss Doris Nichol of Toronto. They wore apricot ballerina length crystalline gowns and carried crescents of mixed yellow and bronze mums. Norman Wilson of Don Mills Road was groomsmen. The ushers were Fred Fiss, brother of the bride, and Alan Wilson, brother of the groom. The organist was Miss Jean Pascoe of Claremont. Before the ceremony Mr. Allan Clark sang "Perfect Love." He also sang during the signing of the register.

HINDSON — ROBB

The setting was St. Andrew's United Church for the marriage of Mary Christine Robb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robb, of Milliken R.R. 1, to Donald Clarence Hindson, Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hindson, Timmins. Rev. G. Thomas officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with the square neckline outlined in Alecon lace and short sleeves shirred. The dropped waistline fell into a bouffant skirt which had a shirred effect on the bottom. Her coronet of Alecon lace held her fingertip veil and she carried white carnations and pink roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. S. D. Bowman and the attendants, all sisters of the bride, were: Mrs. R. Pardon, Joanne Robb and Myrna Robb. They wore waltz-length dresses of cornflower blue crystal charm with matching coronets, and carried pink and white carnations, mums and roses. The groomsmen were G. White, and ushers were J. Creighton, N. Lillie and R. Heise. Receiving at the church hall, the bride's mother wore brown silk with a corsage of pink roses and carnations, and the groom's mother assisted in dusty rose with a corsage of white gardenias.

During the reception a cable was received from London, England, from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nolana, a cousin of the bride, who were unable to be present at the wedding. The couple will live in Toronto.

BENNETT—MARCH

The setting was Richmond Hill Presbyterian church for the marriage of Rosemary Ann March, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. March, Maple, Ont., to Raymond John Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bennett of Gormley, Rev. A. C. Huston officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted bodice of chantilly lace had a scalloped neckline and fell into an apron over the skirt of illusion which fell into a chapel train. Her matching embroidered pillbox held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried lilies. The maid of honor was Mary Sherry and the attendants were: Coral Perkins and Mrs. R. Wilson. They wore waltz-length dresses of lace with matching boleros and picture hats in shrimp and aqua. Flowergirls, Jill March and Muriel Morrison wore aqua dresses of nylon net trimmed with velvet and matching headbands. All carried flowers to match their dresses. The groomsmen were Fred Walker and the ushers were Bill Clubine and Nigel March.

Receiving at Victoria Square United Church parlors, the bride's mother wore a bronze dress with a corsage of white and bronze mums and the groom's mother assisted in beige with a corsage of yellow and bronze mums.

United Church W.M.S. —

Amidst a setting of beautiful mums and soft inspirational music the Woman's Missionary Society opened in the United Church. The president, Mrs. Fairies in the chair, opened the service with a call to worship and prayer. The service, in charge of Mrs. Woods' group followed. Mrs. James A. Macklin ably conducted the worship period. Mrs. George Hutton of Agincourt favoured us with two solos, lending much to the atmosphere of the meeting. Mrs. C. Maxwell Lovey's, Home Miss. Secty. of the Dominion board as guest speaker proved to be very educational and led us along with her as she reviewed her trip to England, Scotland and European Countries in picturesque language. We saw the results of long years of Christian service down through the centuries by our forefathers, who bequeathed to us the privilege of growing up amid Christian teachings.

Mrs. K Campbell ably thanked all those who helped make the successful service. Rev. Davis closed with prayer after which the visitors enjoyed with us the social cup of tea — a fitting ending to a very enjoyable meeting. —Mrs. A. Dowsnell

High School News

By Dianne Corbett
On Wednesday, October 17th, the field day was held. The day dawned warm and sunny, making it perfect for the holding of the various athletic events.

Both the boys and the girls were allowed to enter a maximum of five events. At the end of the day a large number of the students remained to find out who were the champions. When the final points were added up, the following champions emerged:

Boys—Junior: Jim Spang. Intermediate: Steve Kennedy; Senior: John Little.

Girls—Junior: Helen Gayman; Intermediate (tied): Mary Cole, Caroline Ogilvy; Senior, Pat Skinner.

Although we lost our rugby game last Friday against Markham, we scored our first goal of the year. John Little was the player who crossed the white line.

Several members of our rugby team have received injuries. Some will be unable to participate in remaining games. Considering this, the team has done fairly well for its first year in 12-man rugby.

This Friday there is to be a "Masquerade Ball" at the High School. Everyone has to wear a costume to this party, which is in celebration of Halloween.
