The maid of honour was Miss Eleanor Mills of Toronto, and the two bridesmaids were Miss Helen Robinson of Hamilton and Miss Elsie Crawford, Vandrof, cousin of the bride. They have all been much enjoyed and appreciated by those privileged to attend.

Presbyterian W.M.S.
The November meeting of St. James auxiliary of the W.M.S. was unique in that it was held at the home of an Associate member, Mrs. R. E. Osborne. The president, Mrs. R. Stevens presided and opened the meeting with a Call to Worship, "I am the Way and the Truth and the Life" and prayer.

The Associate Members were invited especially to attend this meeting and the president extended a sincere welcome to the large number present.

The secretaries and treasurer's reports were read and approved. The offering was received and dedicated by the president. Group No. 1 took charge of the program and opened with an instrumental solo by Mrs. D. McKillop. The theme of the study, "What is the World Offered?" took the form of a symposium. Remedies that are being offered to a world in revolution were presented — 1. Nationalism and the Revival of Old Religions (Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism), taken by Mrs. W. McCowan, Miss M. Stirling and Mrs. H. Dixon; 2. Communism—Miss E. Goudle; 3. Secularism—Mrs. W. Morris; 4. Christianity—Mrs. A. Q. Thompson.

This discussion revealed that other religions and gospels have absorbed many of the fine qualities of Christianity but not Jesus Christ. Because Christ knows and understands and has experienced this earthly life, Christians can offer the world a Leader who brings to men a Way of Life which if sincerely followed, would revolutionize this world beyond anything ever dreamed of.

Mrs. Harold Dixon sang a solo, "Dew of Heaven fall on Me". The devotions were presented by Mrs. E. Ferguson and Mrs. A. Battisby, stressing that it must be our personal victory that overcometh the world.

The meeting closed with prayer. The president thanked the hostess, Mrs. R. Osborne for the warm welcome we had received, and a social hour was enjoyed by all.
