

CLAREMONT and PICKERING TOWNSHIP DISTRICT

The staff and employees of the Sarco plant will hold their annual Christmas party on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Don Hedges was in Toronto on Saturday on a business trip.

The members of the local Cub Pack enjoyed a Christmas party in the hall on Wednesday evening of last week. A party for the Girl Guides was held on Thursday.

Seven members of the Boy Scouts will camp out next weekend at Presquille Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown and four children, Michael, Jennifer, Susan and Karen took up residence last week in the former Randy Forsyth home. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are formerly from Galt.

Wayne Redshaw, noted hockey player here, has been acquired by Cliff Johnston's Junior "C" team at Brooklin. The "Combiners" are currently leading their group defeating the opposition quite handsly.

Quite a large number of local skaters were in attendance at the Stouffville Arena on Saturday evening.

The Mission Band held their final meeting for the year on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the United Church basement with an attendance of 34.

Mrs. Jackson, leader for the past two years, resigned and Mrs. Stickwood was appointed for the position.

The selling of Christmas cards enabled the organization to realize quite a sum of money for Missions. The meetings have been held monthly after Sunday School session.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Mateland Anderson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Sanderson, in the death of a brother, Fred Sanderson of Toronto, whose funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon of last week, with interment in Claremont Union Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linch of Toronto were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tansley.

We regret that Mrs. Clark has not been feeling very well lately. She attended the funeral of an old friend in Toronto recently, and also lost a brother-in-law in U.S.

We understand Mrs. J. Beelby has not been feeling well of late, also her neighbour Mrs. Condy. We trust they may soon be feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace visited on Sunday with Mrs. Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Petty of Victoria Square and Mr. and Mrs. E. Maye of Oshawa were Sunday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hockley.

ATHA

The 4th meeting of the 4-H Club Girls met on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15. Meeting opened with the theme song "O Canada," followed by the 4-H Pledge repeated in unison. Roll Call—Exchange of material for reference file. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Business followed with Mrs. Crosier in charge. Party planning, including theme, decoration, entertainment and refreshments were discussed. Mrs. Hope gave a demonstration on varied sandwich making, that would be suitable for all occasions. Then followed a demonstration, Mrs. Crosier in charge of a buffet table set up suitable for Christmas by two girls who drew tickets for this particular job. The sandwiches were then passed, also hot cocoa made by the girls, and a social time was enjoyed. Home Assignment—Plan a party with a special theme, including decorations, entertainment and refreshments, put in Record Book. Also Work on Record Book and Reference File. Meeting closed with "The Queen" to meet again Dec. 29.

GOODWOOD

Mrs. Reuben May Best wishes to our Editor and Staff and to all our readers for a very Happy Christmas holiday.

Mrs. Dan Wagg has returned home after spending several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ron James of Markham. Grace was suffering with an ear infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben May and girls and Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brandon in Newmarket and visited Mr. Charles Brandon Sr.

Sorry to learn that Mr. Byron Boake is very ill at the home of his son Tolar. We wish for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin had Sunday tea with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones.

It will be time for Uxbridge Township Annual School meetings before another issue of the paper. It is to be hoped there is more interest taken in our schools than there appeared to be in Township affairs. Remember, if you don't go to the meeting, keep quiet the rest of the year!

Mr. Gribble is not improving as it was hoped he would after returning home from hospital! May Mrs. Jack Todd have a speedy recovery. The doctor has ordered her to bed for a couple of weeks.

Brougham Women's Institute Entertains School Children

A very enjoyable afternoon was held in the Township Hall on Tuesday last when the Women's Institute held their regular meeting and entertained 23 of the pre-school children and their mothers. Mrs. M. Ellicott, the president, was in charge.

During the business period a donation of twenty-five dollars was voted to the Retarded Children's School at Ajax. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Hodgson, delegates to the recent convention, gave an interesting report of the convention. Santa then arrived and after a little talk with each of the children, who went up and told him what they wanted for Christmas, he gave each one a present and a bag of candy.

The meeting closed with The Queen, followed by a very dainty lunch served by the hostesses, Mrs. Geo. Gray, Mrs. W. Milne and Mrs. H. Malcolm.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hughson (Marjorie Wannop) on the arrival of a little son at Oshawa Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Puckrin and family of Willowdale visited with Mr. and Mrs. K. Pascoe on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Gray moved into the Mutch house last week. We welcome Mrs. Gray and Jimmie to our midst.

Glad to report that Mrs. Mairs is improving. We hope to soon see her around in her usual way.

Remember the Sunday School Concert this Friday evening. Come and meet Santa.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. M. J. Harlock (formerly of Brougham) is now in the hospital recuperating after an operation, but suffering an attack of pneumonia. All join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Miss Barbara Mairs, R.N., of Oshawa Hospital spent the weekend at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burrows and family of Demeressville, near Trenton, spent the weekend with his parents, Chas. and Mrs. Burrows.

The Women's Missionary Society of St. John's Church held their meeting in the Church on Thursday afternoon, December 13, with the president, Mrs. H. Malcolm in charge. The meeting was opened by singing a hymn followed by prayer. Mrs. T. Norton was called upon to conduct the election of officers, but all officers were put in for another year except the President who is yet to be chosen. Mrs. Stolk gave the Scripture reading. Mrs. Grudeff gave the program in the form of a Candle Service which proved very beautiful and interesting. Several Christmas Carols were sung. Mrs. H. Malcolm and Mrs. E. Norton favored with a duet, Away in a Manger. Meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Grudeff.

The weekly Euchre was held as usual on Tuesday evening, and the following were lucky winners: Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Milne, Mrs. Pugh, Mr. N. Burton, Mr. W. Hardy and Mr. Lehman. Special prizes went to Mrs. Hammond and Mr. A. Ellicott. It was decided not to hold any more Euchres this year, but to start again on January 8th.

Mr. D. A. Beer ran a special bus to the Shopping Centre at Oshawa on Saturday and says he will run another next week, December 23, providing there are any wishing to go.

Mr. Frank Ham, also Mr. Wm. Palmer of Claremont, called on Mr. and Mrs. M. Hamilton one day last week.

GREENWOOD

Remember the Christmas Tree and Concert on Thursday night of this week, the 20th, starting at 8 o'clock.

The Sigma C boys met in the basement of the church on Tuesday night.

Our sympathy is extended to the families of the late Mrs. Andrew Pegg and the late Mr. Torgerson who passed away last week.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Nellie Corbett is feeling some better this last few days.

We understand that Mr. Arnold Wilkie and Mr. Knudsen have sold their places to city people.

During church service last Sunday morning Miss Edna Green donated new pulpit chairs to the church in memory of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Green. Rev. Mr. Moore had charge of the dedication, and Mr. Alan Clark favored us with a solo for the occasion and also for the White Gift Service.

The afternoon W.A. met at the home of Mrs. I. McLean last Friday night. Group 1 had charge of the worship service with the theme song and hymn 299. "It came upon a Midnight Clear." Mrs. McLean read Psalm 139. Lesson thoughts by Mrs. Pascoe, hymn "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" and prayer by Mrs. Brown. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted, the Roll Call for January to be "New or Beginning."

It was moved by Mrs. Brown and seconded by Mrs. McLean that the present officers remain in office for another year. The January meeting is to be at Mrs. Minaker's. Mrs. McLean and Beatrice served lunch.

GREEN RIVER

"Christmas time is here again. It's time to say Hello And wish the best to all the folks That it's so nice to know!"

Merry Christmas, everyone! The many friends of Mrs. Wiesman are very sorry to hear of the accident to her foot. They wish her a speedy recovery.

Also sorry to hear that Mr. J. Buckles is confined to the hospital. We also wish him a speedy convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Malcolm of Galt called on relatives on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Chafen visited with Mr. and Mrs. Watts of Willowdale recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchings of Pickering were recent callers at the Hutchings home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Barrett, Mr. M. Carter of Brooklin were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Carter.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson of Agincourt on the arrival of a little daughter. Mrs. Simpson is the former Hazel Michell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Pearce and family, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. T. Williams of Willowdale.

A very happy and pleasant surprise party was held for Mrs. Roy Carter in honor of her birthday on Sunday, Dec. 9th, when twenty-three members of the family gathered for a birthday supper on the Saturday evening. She was the recipient of some lovely gifts, which also included a birthday cake complete. We also would like to extend belated best wishes.

The Ladies Aid held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Fleischer on Wed. last. There was a short playlet entitled "There's a Song in the Air" after which several lovely gifts were exchanged.

On Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock, the Xmas Concert of the Baptist S.S. will be held in the Church. A most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present with us then.

All the ratepayers of S.S. No. 11, Pickering, please remember the Annual School Meeting will be held at the schoolhouse on Thursday, Dec. 27th, at 10 a.m.

Maybe we should blame it on the pumpkin when the wife's pie turns out to be a frost.

Merry Christmas

It is our sincerest wish that this Christmas brings a great abundance of warm and lasting pleasures to everyone.
