CEDAR GROVE

One of the nicest preludes to Christmas was a carol service held on Sunday evening by the Young People of Zion Church. Bill White, renowned for making choral singing easy and enjoyable, led the group.

A pot luck supper sponsored by the Sunday School drew over one hundred and twenty to the church last Friday night to partake of the ladies' excellent dishes and a visit from Santa.

While most of us are rushing around preparing for Christmas, some of Cedar Grove's members are celebrating birthdays. We congratulate Mr. Freeman who celebrated his 86th last Thursday, and Bert Tapscott, who had one too.

Gordon Lewis had a bad break playing hockey recently. He was thrown hard against the boards and received a double fracture of the leg. Sorry to say, he will be out of circulation for 16 weeks.

Don't forget the School Concert on Thursday at 8.15 p.m.

Alfred Perry returned home from the hospital over the weekend in time to spend Christmas in familiar surroundings.

Have you noticed the bright lights decorating some of the houses in Cedar Grove this year? We look very festive, indeed.
