Community Shocked by Death of Former Resident

The community was shocked on Sunday morning when word reached town of the sudden passing of Dr. S. T. Bodendistel, D.V.M., of Guelph and for some years resident of Stouffville. While Dr. Bodendistel had given up his veterinary practice here due to health reasons, it was believed since moving to Guelph he had been quite well. Death came quite suddenly following the evening meal on Saturday.

Dr. Bodendistel was quite active in community life while in Stouffville, was a member of the Lions Club and a charter director of the Stouffville Arena Co.

Besides his wife, the former Mary Dixon, deceased is survived by one son James and a daughter Joanne; a brother Dr. Anthony Bodendistel, Dearborn, Mich., and Kathleen (Mrs. Alex Clarke) Richmond Hill.

The funeral on Tuesday was conducted to the Church of Our Lady for requiem high mass, with interment in Marymount Cemetery.

Wedding

COOPER-CAIRNS

Trinity United Church, Uxbridge, was the setting for a lovely double ring marriage on Saturday, Feb. 2, 1957, of Shirley Marjory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cairns to Mr. Gerald Kenneth Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooper.

Rev. H. A. Kennedy officiated. Mrs. E. Dobson was at the organ and accompanied Mr. Ted Reeves of Sharon who sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon net over bridal satin, trimmed with chantilly lace with strapless lace bodice and bolero to match. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a pearl necklace and earring set, the gift of the groom; and carried a cascade of American Beauty roses and white baby mums.

Mrs. Melville Albright, Matron of honor for her sister, wore pale blue nylon net over taffeta with matching feather head-dress. Lois Ashton and Beatrice Gilbert were bridesmaids, gown-ed alike in shrimp nylon net over taffeta with matching feather head-dress.

Joan Albright, niece of the bride, was flower girl in pale blue lace dress, trimmed with nylon net. She carried a basket of pink and white carnations and wore a carnation headband. The attendants all carried colonial nosegays of white baby mums.

Mr. Larry Harney of Long Branch was best man, and the ushers were Keith Sherman and Glenn Forgrave of Owen Sound.

The reception was held in the Church parlors. The bride's mother received in dusty rose lace with navy accessories, a fur neckpiece and corsage of white baby mums. The groom's mother assisted wearing navy crepe with navy accessories and corsage of white baby mums.

For the wedding trip to the States, the bride wore a pink tweed-fitted suit with pink and black accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

W.M.S. Meeting

The February meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held in the Church parlors with the new President, Mrs. Woods presiding. After the business session, reports of Toronto East Presbyterian were given by Mrs. Forgie, Mrs. Fairles, Mrs. Holden. This will be the last connection we have with Toronto East. We will be associating with a newly formed Presbyterian called "York".

Miss Francis Bonevick, returned missionary, spoke in the morning, also took part in a panel discussion on Missionary education. Her topic was "Words" and she mentioned the loose way we use them ourselves, TV and on the radio. She took "Missions" as her word to speak on. Among many other interesting remarks she said, "Every Canadian who goes abroad is judged as a Christian whether he likes it or not." She stressed the responsibility of parents in the home. Beware of careless talk and prejudices. Have good simple readable material; learn dignity.

Miss Dorothea Bell in presenting the allocation for 1957 said, "We can't go back or stand still; we must go forward. God has not doled out a single flower or one small star but has bountifully bestowed His gifts upon us. Can we do less?"

Rev. Daniel Pattia, a native of India, now studying in Emmanuel College, told of how the Missionaries had endured hardships to bring the Gospel to his people. When his parents died, they took him to the school and when there was no money to further his High School education, someone in Canada had sent a gift for an orphan and it was used for him to further his education and how sincerely grateful he was! He said it was the richness of the poor in knowing Christ that is the people's power. Girls who were outcast and have been trained as nurses are called to help the Orthodox and serve in royal families, all because they were saved. They don't want pity. Consecrated prayer, support and money will change lives everywhere. Billy Graham said, on his return from India: whatever happens in India will happen in the rest of Asia.

Mrs. Grant Wells took as her worship theme, "The Healing Touch and the Open Door." It is threefold, teaching, preaching and healing. She also spoke of several fevers—worry, worldliness and indulgence. In the coming year we must tear down fences and look to larger horizons. Her message was inspiring and thought provoking.

Mrs. Thomas gave an interesting and concise review of chapter 2 on Formosa from the Study Book, "East of Burma". Mrs. L. Forsyth and Mrs. Nigh entertained with two piano duets which were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Fairles expressed thanks to all for her group, and Mrs. M. Harris closed the meeting with prayer.

Local and Personal Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ogden and Mr. Roy Minton flew to New York City on Wednesday for a few days holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Bowen and Leslie of Oshawa had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gord Wagg and Gayle.

Another interesting letter has arrived from Japan from Rev. and Mrs. Frank Muir and family to friends in Stouffville. These former local folks are receiving the Tribune in the Far East and enjoying it very much. Friends here will regret to learn that Mrs. Muir had a fall recently, suffering a double dislocation of the left arm which will keep her out of action for a month.

Library Board Meeting

The annual meeting of the Stouffville Library Board, which was held recently, received the reports of the Secretary and Librarian. Miss Anne Lehman has been appointed Secty.-Treasurer to fill the place of Mrs. Frank Riches, who has left town. The Secretary's report showed $641.24 spent on new books and periodicals during the year.

In the Librarian's report a gratifying increase in juvenile reading was shown as against a decrease in adult fiction. A total circulation was given of 10,529. 155 books were discarded during the year and 271 were added to the book stock in addition to 125 which were on loan from the travelling libraries Dept. of the Board of Education.

Owing to the change in business hours during the year, the Library was forced to change its hours also, and is now open on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday from 2 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p.m. A number of the newcomers to the town have become library patrons and it has been the means of helping them to adjust to their new environment.

The board is as follows: Chairman, Mr. W. F. Sherwood; Secty.-Treas., Miss Anne Lehman; Book Committee—Mrs. G. Sisco, Rev. D. G. Davis, Mr. G. Ford; property committee—Mr. Sherwood, Mr. R. Fleury, Rev. D. G. Davis, Mr. G. Ford; Librarian, Mrs. G. R. W. Thomas.

Horticultural Meeting

The United Church Basement had a very spring-like appearance for the Horticultural meeting on Monday night of this week. Mrs. M. Storrey was chair lady for a panel discussion group. Mrs. A. Farthing was prepared to answer questions on Bulbs for Winter blooming. Mrs. Ira Russell on African Violets and Mrs. J. Ridout on House Plants. Questions were quite varied and some splendid information was given. The flowers on display were by courtesy of Mrs. Storrey and her panel of ladies.

Music was provided by a trio—Mrs. Delos Brown, Mrs. Stewart Wideman and Mrs. Earl Hoover, with Mrs. Levi Forsyth as pianist. Some very interesting slides were shown by Miss Jean Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Edwards; Kimberley Ann Coppin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Coppin.

Eight-year-old Robert Daniels son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Daniels, Park Drive N., Stouffville, is very proud of the huge 27 inch trout he hauled out of the icy waters of Lake Simcoe on Saturday. The fish weighed nearly eight pounds. In spite of his years, Bobby is rapidly becoming a veteran fisherman. Although in the company of his father and Mr. Elgin Wagg, he landed the big beauty without any assistance from his fishing partners.
