Ballantrae Ratepayers' Meeting to Discuss School Accommodation

The W.A. met last Wednesday with the No. 1 group providing a very entertaining program, and also lunch. Mrs. D. Gray sang a solo, "I Will Pilot Thee." Miss Maud Jaynes played on her auto-harp and sang "What a Friend", and Mrs. Ross Hood gave an interesting reading — "Neighbors." Group 2 will be planning the program for next month, the date being March 6. Mrs. W. Overs, Mrs. Wallwork Sr., Mrs. J. Paterson, Mrs. A. Watson, Mrs. T. Phillips, Mrs. G. Talbot are the members in Group 2.

There has been a Pot Luck Supper planned for all members and their families on Friday, Feb. 22; at the Ballantrae United Church. Sounds very interesting; do make an effort to attend.

Sorry to hear that our assistant minister, Mr. N. Hodgson has been in and out of the hospital. We do wish him a speedy recovery.

A social evening attended by Teachers and School Board was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Davies.

A much needed improvement at our school, S.S. No. 11, recently was the acquisition of 1 1/2 acres from Mr. Ross Hood.

Miss Lorene Talbot spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Talbot.

Here's a date to remember—Feb. 19th. There is to be a very special ratepayers' meeting at the school at 8 p.m. sharp. Please make every effort to attend; we feel that this is an important meeting, so don't sit at home and be left out of decisions made by a handful of people. We all have the privilege of giving our opinions, so ratepayers, how about it? Let's make this the biggest turnout ever.

BLOOMINGTON

The February Ladies Aid meeting was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker with President Mrs. E. Lemon in the chair and giving the devotionals. The Roll Call was answered by Bible verses with the word 'Care'. Mrs. Dougherty gave a report of the Women's meeting in Gospel Tabernacle, Toronto. Mrs. M. Barnes opened the program by the singing of a hymn and a short reading. Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Mills sang a duet and the viewing of a number of scenic and floral slides was much enjoyed. Birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. Lemon, Mrs. Mills and Mrs. J. Winterstein. A number of "thank-you" notes from recipients of boxes of fruit were read by the Secretary, Mrs. C. Lemon. Mrs. Baker was hostess.

Mrs. John Johnson, daughter Elaine and Mrs. L. Paisley of Brampton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Barnes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Fisher, John and Elizabeth of Windsor, were at her parents', Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Doner of Toronto were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Doner.

Congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. A. Cowie who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary with a family gathering.

Mr. I. Hill returned to Scarborough Hospital on Friday for further treatment.

On the sick list last week were Mrs. N. Storry and Miss Bernice Ramer. Mrs. Graham of Ballantrae was with Mrs. Storry for most of the week.

MARKHAM TWP. HOST FOR BUDGET NIGHT

Under the patronage of Markham Township, the annual Budget Night for school trustees will be held at the Buttonville Women's Institute Hall, on Thursday, February 14, at 7 p.m. A dinner is to be tendered to the trustees and guests by Markham Twp. Public School Inspector, Maynard Hallman and Separate School Inspector F. J. Hodge have commended Markham Council and Planning Board for their interest in this event and have expressed the feeling that the evening will contribute immeasurably to the better understanding of mutual problems between these public bodies.

Those attending will include school trustees from Markham Township itself and union sections served by Markham Township, along with separate school trustees from Thornhill and Markham villages.

During the evening's program, Reeve William Clark of Markham will speak and an interim report of the Education Committee of the Planning Board will be given by C. Laurin. Requisitions will be presented by township clerk, Charles Hoover and township auditor N. L. Morton will speak. Following the program, the trustees will meet with various educational and municipal officials to draw up their school budgets.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson and family were Sunday guests at the Les Wilson home.
