GOODWOOD

Mrs. Reuben May
We are hoping that little Scott Stewart, seven months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stewart, will soon have his arm out of the cast. He broke his arm about three weeks ago.

The Goodwood Friendship Group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Taylor on Tuesday evening the wettest kind of night one could have. The attendance was down but those who braved the night had a very enjoyable and interesting evening. Mr. Sanderson of Claremont gave a talk and demonstrated with pictures the different kinds of insects that are a common menace to us or our city friends; also, what cure could be used if extreme caution is not used in following directions on poison containers. The best way if you have serious trouble is to hire a professional exterminator, who is quite a busy man, he informed us.

The group are hoping to tour the General Motors plant in Oshawa about the middle of March. Any who are interested will be quite welcome to come along. Mrs. Clare Bunker assisted our hostess with a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. May had Sunday supper with their son Bert, Mrs. May and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rummunnie and wee son of Port Perry had Sunday supper with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Yake and sons.

active part in their activities. One of these is to be a Church Parade this Sunday. The Cubs will meet at the General Store at 11 o'clock and march to the Ballantrae United Church for the 11:30 Service.

At a recent meeting of the Group Committee, it was decided that in order to help the funds along the boys might sell some very attractive everyday cards. If this comes to pass, help the kids along and buy a box if you can. Another topic raised was the Father and Son Banquet. Plans are being made and as soon as they are final, notices will be sent out. Watch for them.

IN MEMORIAM

ELSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, Matilda Louise Elson who passed away March 7th, 1954.
God saw you getting weary,
Then did what he thought best,
He put His arms around you,
Mother,
And whispered, "Come and rest,
It doesn't need a special day
To bring you to our minds,
For days that we don't think of
Are very hard to find.
Lovingly remembered by
Ellwood, Isola and family.

BRIARD — In ever loving memory of Isobel Louise, our beloved grandmother, who passed away Monday, Mar. 7th, 1955.
Today recalls sad memories
Of a dear grandmother gone to rest,
And the one who thinks of her
Is the one who loved her best.
We do not forget her, we love
her too dearly
For her memory to fade from
our lives like a dream:
Our lips need not speak when
our hearts mourn sincerely.
For grief often dwells where it
seldom is seen.
Ever lovingly remembered by
her granddaughter Eunice,
John and great-granddaughter Linda Wallwork.

EVANS — In memory of the late Thomas Morgan Evans, who passed away March 10, 1956.
We who loved you sadly miss
you.
As it dawns another year:
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are ever near.
Mrs. Morgan Evans
and family.

MORGASON — In ever loving memory of a dearly loved wife and mother, Violet Morgason, who departed this life Mar. 11, 1943; also our darling daughter and sister Grace, who left us ten years ago April 12th.
Calm and peaceful they are sleeping.
Sweetest rest that follows pain:
We who loved them sadly miss
them,
But trust in God to meet again.
So sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Leslie Morgason and family.

ETHEL MILLARD REESOR — Three years since the sad day
The one we loved was called away,
God took her home; it was His
will,
But in our hearts she liveth still.
Husband and family.

STECKLEY — In loving memory of our mother, Sarah Steckley, who passed away March 5, 1953.
In the dawning of the morning
When the troubled night is o'er,
We shall meet again, dear
mother,
Over on the other shore.
Ever remembered by
Rhoda, Harvey
and family.

WARD — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Charles Ward, who passed away March 10th, 1956.
The pearls that were opened,
A gentle voice said "Come,"
And with farewells unspoken,
He gently entered home.
Lovingly remembered by
wife and family.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION

The York County Temperance Convention will be held in the Christian Baptist Church, Newmarket on March 15th. Sessions afternoon and evening.

BOX GROVE

March 7
Seems like spring must be here or very close around the corner. Among the happy signs seen are — a robin, the grader smoothing out the Ninth line north of the village, the Hydro men drilling holes and putting in new poles and an auction sale of stock and implements at the Speers farm on March 27. Another sign of spring, though not so pleasant, is the annual visitation of the measles. Current victims are Sylvia Grant, Brian Crozier and Bernice Jarvis.

The doctor and nurse visited the school and Tiny Tot Club on Monday to give the senior pupils their booster dose of polio vaccine and the younger children their second shot. This week being "Education Week" there will be an open house at the school on Thursday afternoon between 1:30 and 3:30, to which all the parents are invited.

The Women's World Day of Prayer will be observed on Friday, March 8th with a community service from 7:30 till 9:30 in the Box Grove United Church. The service is interdenominational and everyone is welcome. Many of the women and girls of the community will be taking part as well as a girls' choir under the direction of Miss Robin Armstrong.

The Hi-Fi Club will hold a dance Friday evening, March 8th. Admission will be 35¢ and refreshments 10¢. Everyone is welcome. Last Thursday the Club held a skating party on the ice behind the school with dancing and refreshments after at the clubhouse.

Farm Forum was held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cookwell with a discussion on the Gordon Report. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dowdell with the topic "And Never the Twain shall Meet".

Last Sunday morning at the Box Grove United Church Sunday School, Mr. Don Raymer, acting on behalf of the Sunday School, presented a pen and pencil set to Herb Bradley who left on Monday for Regina and the R.C.M.P. His successor as Sunday School Superintendent will be Mr. Joe Grant.

Happy birthday on Monday this week to both Linda Hardy and Christine Burkholder, ten years old.
