Neighbourhood Notes—The trend this week is back to school. Walter Magee and Wesley Fierheller are at Thornhill High School this year.

Music students are getting back to work also, and Mrs. S. J. English is busy arranging lesson schedules.

On returning from vacation we were sorry to learn that Mrs. R. H. Clarke is still in the Toronto East General Hospital. It is our hope that she will soon return to health.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig, Janet, Miss Lena Fraser, and Mrs. S. J. English picnicked at Innisfil Park, Lake Simcoe. Mrs. English returned home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gray at Kirkland Lake on Saturday of last week.

Rev. A. C. and Mrs. Huston visited locally last week. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Spears, Markham, for a short time.

The sharp clap of thunder which started everyone on Monday morning might have done real injury to Mr. Alexander Young and Mr. Ken Stots who were at the Stanley Clarkson farm, Headford, at the time. An elm tree on the farm was struck and Mr. Young who was in the barn, received a shock.

Mr. Stots and Mr. Cameron, who were in the milk house, were circled by a bolt of lightning.

Mrs. James McQuay was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott, Oshawa, recently.

Little Miss Lynda Jones was four years old on September 1st, and on Saturday afternoon Mrs. Jones entertained at a birthday party for her. Present were Kim and Elizabeth Foster, Irene Craig, Trina Leach, and David Lindsay. Other guests were Linda's grandmother, Mrs. James McQuay, her aunt, Mrs. Donald McQuay, and Mrs. Lindsay.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. W. B. Webster and his family. Mr. Webster's mother died recently.

On Sunday morning at Brown's Corners United Church the guest minister was Rev. Buchanan of Willowdale. Miss Dorothy Hood played the organ. The speaker for next Sunday was not announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid, Darlene and Donna Dimma of Cedar Grove and Douglas-Rutherford, Agincourt, took a bus trip to Fort Valley, Georgia, last week. Mr. Reid's new school bus was there and the party returned home in it.

Local people have been interested in the Dairy Queen contest at the C.N.E. Beverley Burr who represented York County was eliminated in the semi-finals we are sorry to report.

CEDAR GROVE

The wistful note that mourns the end of holidays was weak on Monday night, when little girls went to bed. It was overruled by a strong interest in what will be worn on the first day of school. And it is hard for a little girl's mother to dampen the desire to wear everything new the first day. On checking with little boys it seems that the thing to be is a turtle. You cover up the boredom of the last few holidays with a shell of "who wants to go back to school?" that mother doesn't believe but must, however, go along with anyway.

Was the Ex a whole lot noisier this year than ever before? Or are the years beginning to tell? The midway barkers, when all they had was a megaphone, could be discerned one from the other, but with the advent of the P.A. systems all you can do is go in to find out what they are raving about. Or stay out and forget the whole thing. This seemed to be the attitude this year. Music Day seems to be the day that draws most of Cedar Grove. Go where the pipes are playing or the choirs are singing and you will be sure to see a few familiar faces.

The Wiener Roast will be held on Sept. 14th, Saturday in Woodland Park, same spot as last time. All those who were crying for another one soon, will be glad to hear the news.

Notes about Neighbours—Johnnie Offen is still on crutches after a break-in at Canadian Tire forced him into too quick action. Hope it won't be long now before he can walk unaided.

Alfred Perry spent a few days in the hospital recently but is home again now and happy to see anyone going Green River way.

Norma and Don Corneliuss spent the weekend at Beamsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reesor Sr. came over from Queenston recently and on Sunday called on Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Lapp and Mr. and Mrs. John Offen.

LEMONVILLE

The holiday season is once more past and everyone is back to work again. The children sounded quite happy as they journeyed back to school for another term.

Miss Betty Cribar and Mr. Robt. Carroll were married at her home on Saturday afternoon. We are glad they are living in our community and will commute to Toronto. We extend our very best wishes to them for their future happiness.

The W.A. will meet at the home of Mrs. Ross Winterstein on Thursday, Sept. 12th. Ladies please note change of date.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp Sr. have returned to their home in England three weeks ago after spending the past year and a half in Lemonville with their son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sharp, The W.A. held a surprise party for Mrs. Sharp, presenting her with a two layer hammered aluminum plate.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carey have bought a home in Markham and with their family and aunt moved there on Saturday. A farewell party and presentation was held at their home on Thursday evening when they were presented with a step table and lamp. They will be greatly missed from our community.

Nothing is impossible if a man doesn't have to do it himself.

There are no scholarship awards from the school of experience.

ASK THESE QUESTIONS....

before you decide about mausoleums

An attempt is being made to establish a mausoleum in this community. Salesmen will be approaching you soon to buy burial vaults. Here are some of the questions you should have answered before you invest:

1. If there is a demand for a mausoleum, who demands it, the community or the promoters?
2. How much profit will the promoters take out of your community?
3. Why buy before the building is completed—before you can see what you're getting?
4. Are the crypts double sealed?
5. Are drainage and ventilation facilities adequate?
6. How much will be set aside for the Perpetual Care Fund and where will the Fund be deposited?
7. Who will remove the bodies of your loved ones from the mausoleum if it starts to deteriorate?

If in doubt about any of the answers you get, talk to someone who can advise you—your lawyer or financial adviser. Don't invest before investigating.
