Rev. D. Davis for his devotional read Dr. Phillips' Modern Translation, 1st eleven verses of 1st chapter of Philippians and recommended this version for study. His message was inspiring and challenging, also he said our study of Japan should be interesting and mentioned several missionaries from this area who are, and have been, working in Japan.

Mrs. C. Baker entertained with two piano solos which were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Hastings gave a concise and most interesting review of our study book, "The Cross and the Crisis," written by Dr. Inglehart which is a study of Japan. Japan faces a baffling future. One half of 1 percent are Christian but as our Master said "Where two or three are gathered together there am I." They may be small in numbers but glow more brightly by their faith. Their church service is much like our own and they open with "Holy, holy, holy" and close with "Jesus, keep me near the Cross." Mrs. Dr. Crouch read the Japanese version of the 23rd Psalm, which was interesting and beautiful.

A Toronto driving school is planning to provide instruction here. Their 8-car fleet will take in an area north and east of the city. Police Chief Edwards is in favour of personal instruction for would-be motorists.

Unique Visitor—Mr. John Phillips who is staying with his daughter, Mrs. Jack Morgan at Claremont, had a unique visitor recently in the person of Mr. F. S. Hulbert, a Toronto builder, age 86 years. It had occurred to Mr. Phillips that there were few, if any, persons living whose father participated in the Rebellion of 1837 other than his sister, Mrs. McMaster of Uxbridge and himself. Accordingly he put a friendly challenge in the daily Star. To his surprise Mr. Hulbert accepted the challenge, claiming that his father was a member of the militia which were called to deal with the rebels who had gathered at Yonge St. (Toronto now) and other points.

The uprising has been amply depicted in our school histories and in a good book called "Joshua Doan." (Better read it.) Mr. Hulbert made good his challenge by coming to visit Mr. Phillips and needless to say, the old couple had a very enjoyable day narrating the stories, as told by their respective fathers, of the war of 1837. There is no definite proof that there may not be more living whose father joined the rebellion of 1837 or whose father was a member of the militia of that early date. Please speak up.

More than 5,000 baskets of peaches have been sold from the Stouffville I.G.A. store so far this summer. Every week, a huge truckload of the fruit is transported into town direct from the Vineland district. With the end of the season still two weeks away, Mr. Ratcliff expects he will dispose of an additional 2,000 baskets by the end of September.

WEDDINGS

GRAVES—FOCKLER

Catherine May Fockler, daughter of Mr. Gordon Fockler and the late Mrs. Fockler, became the bride of Ronald William Elstone Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graves of Uxbridge in a ceremony in Ringwood Christian Church on Aug. 31, 1957. Rev. Kenyon Edwards officiated and Miss Grace Lehman played the wedding music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an ivory satin gown with inserts of lace that had a bouffant skirt coming to a chapel train. A crown of gathered satin to match, held her fingertip veil, and she carried an arm bouquet of white and pink gladioli.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. John Wilson. Senior bridesmaid was a cousin of the bride, Miss Shirley Harmon, and Junior bridesmaid was Miss Mary Fockler, also a sister of the bride. The senior attendants wore similar street length dresses of blue crystaletto on princess lines with boleros, with pink feathered bands, and carried rose gladioli.

The junior bridesmaid was frocked in pink net over taffeta with matching tiara, and carried mauve gladioli. Mr. Robert Fockler and Mr. Howard Graves ushered, and Mr. Don McCurdy of Weston was best man.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Atha. For travelling, the bride donned a figured nylon dress with a green jacket and white accessories. The happy couple will reside in Stouffville.

MAYBURY—MUSTARD

Tall standards of pink and white gladioli decorated Melville United Church on Saturday afternoon, August 24, for the marriage of Barbara Maureen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Mustard of Markham to James Clifton Maybury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Maybury of Scarborough. Rev. George Davidson officiated and Mrs. E. Nigh presided at the organ.

The bride wore chantilly lace over satin made on princess lines with long full skirt and a short train, sweetheart neckline decorated with seed pearls, and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was caught to a pill-box head-dress to match her dress, and decorated with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and stephanotis.

The attendants were Mrs. Donald Maybury, matron of honour; Miss Joy Mustard and Miss Carol Goodwin, bridesmaids. They wore frocks of iridescent taffeta in waltz length, made with rolled neckline ending in a V at the back, and large bows with streamers extending to the hem-line. Picture hats of net to match their dresses and cascades of yellow mums completed their costumes. Mrs. Maybury wore apricot, and the bridesmaids turquoise. Little Miss Barbara Yates made a charming flower girl in pale yellow taffeta with peter-pan collar and bouffant skirt. She wore a poke bonnet and carried a nosegay of baby mums.

Dr. John Button was the host at a farewell party for Mr. Ernie Austin on Monday evening. Mr. Austin, former operator of the Stouffville Nursing Home and later a resident east of Uxbridge has purchased a private hospital at Lucknow, Ont., and will move there later next week.

Mrs. Mae Nighswander who has lived in Stouffville for the past 13 years has returned to Manitoulin Island to live. Her many friends and neighbours presented her with an electric tea-kettle and a nest of three wrought iron tables. She is residing in the town of Minde-noya. Her three sons and their families live in the vicinity of Big Lake, one on the Nighswander homestead which has been a summer resort for many years.

Maybury wore pink lace over taffeta, with white carnations corsage. The beautiful wedding cake, admired by all, was made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Yates.

After a wedding trip to Lake Placid, the couple will reside in Markham.

SIMPSON—ROSE

Pink, white and yellow gladioli formed the setting in Hartman United Church when Marlene Agnes Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rose, Mount Albert, became the bride of Mr. Harry Morgan Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Simpson, Ballantrae.

Rev. W. S. Whitcombe officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mr. Clarion Baker presided at the organ. Mrs. James Oldham sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a charming floor length gown of chiffon taffeta covered with layers of net. The strapless bodice of chantilly lace was embroidered with seed pearls and a lace bolero was worn over it. Her fingertip veil of illusion tulle was held by a crown beset with sequins and seed pearls. She also wore a white gold necklace, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses, white carnations and ivy.

Miss Beth Rose, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in waltz-length tulle. Her dress was lilac with matching head-dress and white accessories. She carried a half-moon shaped bouquet of yellow and pink carnations. Miss Anne Smalley, bridesmaid, was gowned alike in pale green. She also carried a bouquet of yellow and pink carnations.

Miss Carolyn Flewell, a pupil of the bride, was flower girl. She looked lovely in a floor length gown of pale green tulle. She carried a small half-moon shaped bouquet of pink and yellow carnations. Mr. Richard Fines, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Morley Rose, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ron Simpson, cousin of the groom.

The reception was held in Mt. Albert United Church parlour. The bride's mother received in a dress of rosewood crystaletto with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a royal blue sheath gown with blue and pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For travelling to Sault Ste. Marie and United States, the bride chose a pale green linen dress and stole with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

ENGAGEMENTS

The engagement is announced of Charly Mackay of Stouffville, daughter of Mr. George Mackay and the late Mrs. Mackay of Toronto to Burness Truman William Steckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Steckley of Stouffville. The marriage will take place quietly on Saturday, October 5th, 1957.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Tessier of Espanola announce the engagement of their daughter Lorraine to Laurence George Keeping, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Keeping of Stouffville. Marriage to take place on Saturday, Sept. 14, 1957, at 10 a.m. in the Anglican Church, Blind River.

The engagement is announced of Phyllis May Jagger, the eldest daughter of Mrs. Alice Jagger and the late William Jagger, to George Alan Gleave of Aurora. The wedding will take place on Saturday, Sept. 28th at 3 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Lorraine Steckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Steckley, will exchange vows with Mr. Keino Reman, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. O. Reemets, of Hamilton, Ontario, in Second Markham Baptist Church on Friday, October 4th at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Eyer are pictured above, following their recent wedding in the Brethren in Christ Church, Oak Ridges. The bride is the former Margaret Steckley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Steckley, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eyer of Elizabethtown, Pa. The couple will make their home in Grantham, Pa.

How Do YOU Sow Fall Wheat?

Here is a chance to see how you rate when it comes to growing fall wheat. Mark "yes" or "no". Check your score below.

- | | | |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| Yes | No | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Plow grain land 30 days before sowing. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Cultivate at least 4 times before sowing. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Use at least 300 pounds of fertilizer per acre. |

The correct answers are all "Yes"!

A survey conducted among a group of Ontario wheat producers by the Soils Department, Ontario Agricultural College, reveals that, regardless of seed variety, soil type, rate or depth of planting, the three management items listed above were common for consistent high yields over a 10 year period.

When selecting your fall fertilizer, choose CO-OP High Analysis Fertilizer. It is granular, free-flowing and contains less than one-half the moisture in regular fertilizers.
