ONTARIO COUNTY JUNIORS MAKE The Annual Conference for

Junior Farmers of Ontario was held on Saturday, January 11, Club euchre on Friday evening in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto. The County participated in the Mixed Quartette, Male tained a number of friends from Quartette, public speaking competitions and the Choir Festival. The Judges, Mrs. Olive Vanderburgh and Mr. L. T. Queen, of the Ontario Dept. of Education. Toronto, awarded first prize to the mixed quartette from On-

' The quartette, one of five competing, included Jeanne Pearson, Jeanette Dobson, Walter Kerry and Ronald Werry.

The County Choir received the following remarks from Dr. F. Roy Fenwick, Director of Music, Dept. of Education, Toronto: -"Ontario County choir, heard at the conclusion of the choir festival, provided a fitting and stirring climax to the music by the choirs." He also stated that it was an impressive performance, beautifully balanced, well blended and sung with assurance and authority, with fine vowels, enunciation and excellent musical perception.

.The Male Quartette of Ronald Werry, Walter Barkey, Grant Carson and Cloyne Stearman placed sixth in a class of ten. Brant County placed first in a close competition where points awarded ranged from 80 to 85.

Walter Kerry, Port Perry R 1 competed with over 25 other Jr. Farmers in the Public Speaking Competition. Each contestant gave a ten minute prepared speech and a five minute impromptu. In the finals, Mrs. Margaret McLeod, Thamesford, Oxford County, gave the top performance with her prepared topic of "Count Your Blessings."

Ontario County can well be proud of its Junior Farmers for giving such a fine performance at the Conference, More than 800 young men and women representing over 30 counties were
