Local Couple to Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McDowell, Stouffville R. R. 1, will celebrate their Golden Wedding on March 18th.
Mr. and Mrs. McDowell were married fifty years ago at the Methodist parsonage, Markham (now the residence of Wes Neely) by the Rev. C. J. Dobsón, Minister at that time.
They have three children, Florence (Mrs. E. D. Fennell) of Timmins; Clarence of the 10th Concession, Markham; and Robert of the 2nd of Uxbridge; and nine grandchildren.
Mrs. McDowell, the former

Olive Penny, has been active throughout her life in her home, in W.M.C. work in former years, and especially in practical nursing. Mr. McDowell farmed most of his life on the 7th Concession, Markham. He has always been interested in Sunday School and Church, and has been teacher of the Adult Bible Class for some years in Markham United Missionary Church where they both hold membership.
They will celebrate their anniversary quietly on Tuesday, at their home on the 10th Concession. They are always happy to have their friends call.

Irving Hill Passes In Hospital

On Friday, March 7th, Mr. Irving Jeremiah (Dep.) Hill, a farm resident north of Bloomington for the past 15 years, passed away in the Scarborough General Hospital following a lengthy illness. He was in his 62nd year.

Born near Aurora, the deceased served overseas in World War I with the York County 127th Battalion. Following the war, he was employed by the T. Eaton Co., Toronto, for a number of years. Fifteen years ago, he purchased the former Wm. Fockler farm north of Bloomington where he farmed until his recent death. He was identified with Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora.

Besides his wife, the former Marie Bernadette Cadorette, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Arthur Brown of Toronto, and a brother, Ewart, of Lawrence, Mass., U.S.A. One brother is predeceased.

The funeral service was held from the chapel of L.E. O'Neill, Stouffville, on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. D. Tiller with interment in Aurora Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Mervin Watts, Otto Tranter, Murray Ramer, Watson Fairles, Oliver Harding and John Hummel.

Members of Stouffville municipal council have been asked to give consideration to plans for enlarged quarters which could be rented to the Public Utilities Commission who find themselves badly crowded in their present one-room office. Some thought has been given in the past to the Utilities Commission erecting their own office and storage facilities, while council, too, has considered enlarging the present municipal building by extending the building out to the street line.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. John Harry Noble of Stouffville, Ontario, are happy to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter Betty Barbara Susan to Bruce Even Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roy Ball of Uxbridge, Ont. The marriage will take place on Saturday, April 5th, 1958, at 3 p.m. in the Altona United Church, Altona, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eby announce the engagement of her daughter, Marian Ruth Barkley, to Alvin Lester Eby. The marriage will take place April 3rd at 7 p.m. in the Dickson Hill Church.

WEDDING

DONALDSON—SNIDER
Yellow daffodils graced the altar of Victoria Square United Church, on Saturday, Feb. 22, 1958, when Elizabeth Ann, (Betty), daughter of Mrs. Snider, and the late Mr. John Snider, became the bride of John Alexander Rae Donaldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Arnel Heights.

Rev. A. F. Binnington officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Jim Barker. Mrs. Allan Orr was the soloist and sang "I'll Walk Beside You", before the bride party entered the church, and "O Perfect Love during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her brother Sammy, the bride was beautiful in a princess style gown of white velveteen. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline with lace applique and long sleeves. With a full-length skirt set off with a short train, her finger-tip veil was held by a rhinestone and pearl studded headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red roses, white carnations and white hyacinths.

Her attendants were Mrs. Earl Law, cousin of the bride, as matron of honour, and Miss Janet Oakes, girl-friend of the bride as bridesmaid, and Miss Mary Lynn Snider, sister of the bride as junior bridesmaid.

The senior attendants were attired in similar velveteen waltz-length gowns of emerald green. They were fashioned with boat necklines and princess waistline with full skirts and matching satin shoes. The junior bridesmaid was also attired in emerald green velveteen. Her dresses were gathered at the waist with a short full skirt, petterpan collar and puffed sleeves. They all wore white feathers in their hair and short white gloves. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses, yellow carnations and white hyacinths with yellow streamers.

The best man was Mr. Hugh McMaster, and the ushers were Mr. Douglas Tribbling and Mr. John Brumwell.
At the reception which was held at the Summit View, the bride's mother received wearing a sapphire blue dress with pale blue accessories and a corsage of red roses and white hyacinth petals. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a dress in Dior blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses and deep pink carnations.

For the honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and New York the bride chose a light brown flecked dress and a dark brown fur jacket. Her hat and gloves were white with dark brown suede purse and shoes and her corsage was white roses and yellow carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson will be taking up residence at Highland Park.
