Spring is a treacherous high-way time. Watch for ice slicks hidden on the shady sides of hills. Watch always for the unexpected, warns the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

The familiar V-shaped formation of migrating birds, such as Canada geese gives the rear birds an unobstructed view while their leader guides them through the air.

Buttonville Girl Crowned "Princess"

Beverly Burr was a princess when Thornhill High School held their annual formal recently. The theme of the evening was "Around the World in 80 Days."
Neighbourhood Notes—
Elsie Hood and Donna Bringer were members of the rink which won the Chesborough-Pond Trophy for annual competition in the 7-year Fille Bonspiel recently. Elsie was skip.
Mrs. Douglas Hood left last Friday for a visit with her daughter Marlon and son-in-law Jack Stephenson in Tago, Saskatchewan, and incidentally to get acquainted with her new grandson, Tommy.
Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Kennedy, former Agincourt friends, at their Washago home. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson spent Sunday with Mrs. Stephenson's aunt, Miss Galbraith, who has been ill.
Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Adam Brown were hostesses on Wednesday of last week when a reception was held in the Queen Elizabeth Building, Exhibition Park, for Premier Diefenbaker. Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Paterson attended the dinner for Solon Low, which was held at Casa Loma on Monday evening.
Bake Sale & Tea—
Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlop entertained Buttonville Home and School executive at their home on Wednesday evening of last week. Plans were laid for a tea and Bake Sale which will be held in the school on Saturday afternoon of this week. This will be a must for all parents of school-aged children, we fancy, and all members of the community are cordially invited. The sale begins at 2.30 p.m.

Skating Party—
Last Saturday afternoon the Brown's Corners Sunday School pupils piled into Norm Reid's bus and away they went to Unionville Skating Ring for an afternoon's skating party. Afterwards everyone returned to the church parlours for refreshments. Among those assisting at the party were Messrs. Wilfred Turner, Ross Hord and Walter Brumwell; Mrs. Walter Brumwell and Mrs. Norman Reid. Rev. A. F. Binnington skated with the party, but was unable to return to the church for the social hour.
W.I. Euchre—
On Friday evening of this week, the last Euchre game of the present series will be played at Buttonville Hall, and interest is high. The series winner will take home the grand prize a turkey.
On Friday, March 14, there were 12 tables of players and the winners were: Mrs. Roy Woods, Mrs. Wm. Wray and Mrs. Geo. Kelly; Messrs. Ken Stots, H. Cunningham, and Gordon Risebrough. The lucky draw was won by Mr. James Curtis, and freeze-out winners were Messrs. Ken Stots and Wm. Muirhead against Mrs. George Kelly and Mrs. Cade. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. K. Stots, Mrs. K. Arnott, Mrs. G. Purves, and Mrs. E. Walton.
Executive Luncheon—
On Tuesday of last week the Brown's Corners W.M.S. were hostesses for a luncheon and executive meeting of the York Presbyterial. There were approximately 40 women attending from the various points of the presbytery, with Dr. Margaret Arkinstall presiding. Mrs. Wm. Rodick and Mrs. A. F. Binnington received the guests, and dessert luncheon was served in the church parlours at tables attractively laid with spring green placemats, yellow tulips and green and white candles.

At the meeting which was held in the church proper, Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson sang a solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. W. Miller.
Mrs. Lak Entertains W.I.—
On Thursday evening of last week, W.I. members were entertained by Mrs. Nell Lak at her John Street home. Mrs. Adam Brown presided in the absence of Mrs. Charles Hooper, and Mrs. James Rodick was secretary. During the brief business meeting a report of the District executive meeting was given by Mrs. F. H. Leaf. The program was provided by Miss Jean Lak, the hostess' daughter, who recently returned from Germany after spending 13 months teaching in a Girls High School there. Miss Lak showed pictures of parts of Austria, the Bavarian Alps and Germany proper, not often visited by tourists, as well as beautiful views of the vineyards along the Rhine and the fairy-tale castles which dot its banks. Her audience was most interested in the side-lights she gave of German home life.
When the pictures were concluded, Mrs. Lak and her co-hostess, Mrs. Elmore Hill served delicious refreshments.

Hugson Drive, Buttonville, will hold Open House on March 29 to celebrate their 50th Anniversary.
On March 29, 1908, Miss Mae Wiltshire became the bride of Mr. Elmore Hill at the home of Rev. Baker, Toronto. Since that day 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Hill have farmed in York and Markham townships, and two years ago sold their John St. farm and moved to their present residence in Arncliffe Heights.
Of their five children three still live in the Toronto area, one is on the B.C. coast and one in northern Ontario: Ernest of Newmarket, Mrs. George Charly (Alice) of South Porcupine; Leslie, Scarborough Bluffs; Mrs. C. Bowers (Florence), Kamloops, B.C.; and Mrs. Bruce Robson (Hazel), of Thornhill. There are also 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
Mr. and Mrs. Hill are valued members of this community, and Mrs. Hill has been active for many years as a member of Brown's Corners United Church, W.M.S. and Harmony Club, as well as the Buttonville W.I.

C. A. Cathers In Final Week Of Campaigning
The final week of federal election campaigning is well under way. C. A. "Tiny" Cathers, North York's Conservative MP, is busy meeting people and attending pre-election meetings throughout the riding. Mr. Cathers who was made an MP last June with a 7,000 majority, is seeking re-election on March 31. Mr. Cathers' name will be the first on the ballot to be seen.
A large caravan from the communities of York-North travelled to the Queen Elizabeth building, CNE grounds on Wednesday of last week for the John Diefenbaker reception. The event was a great success.
Bustloads and carloads of people from all points in the riding attended. Receiving the guests were Prime Minister J. John Diefenbaker and Mrs. Diefenbaker, Premier Leslie Frost and Mrs. Frost, C. A. Cathers and Mrs. Cathers and other Progressive Conservative candidates for the York ridings.
A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cathers was held at the Legion Hall in Sutton on March 18th. It was sponsored by the Conservatives of Sutton, Georgina and North Gwillimbury townships; 350 attended and many were turned away through lack of space.

On Monday, March 17, a social evening was held at Vandorf in Whitchurch township. J. Pallet, MP for Peel, was the guest speaker. Along with the candidate, Mr. Cathers, were Mrs. J. Moffat, president of the Ladies' association and association officials Floyd Corner of Aurora, also Prof. Ernest Smith, Gormley.
Other such events are taking place throughout the riding this week.
In a 20-mile race, a man would win over a horse because of his endurance.
