

HOW WOULD YOU CALL IT?

An umpire is often called on to make a decision on a rule that neither he nor any player in the park is positively sure about. In such cases, in order that the game shouldn't be held up while the official peruses the rule book, the umpire often makes a ruling to the best of his knowledge. Sometimes he's right and sometimes he's wrong. Such a case occurred in the Claremont Community League last week. How would you call it?

Claremont were at bat and Markham were in the field. Dave Beverley of Claremont was parked on third base and Doug Allman hit a fly ball into left field. The Markham outfielder in attempting to catch the ball, juggled it three or four times. The moment the ball touched the Markham player's glove, Beverley took off and scored. The plate umpire ruled he was safe. The Markham Management argued that the runner couldn't legally leave the bag until the ball was securely caught. The base official, (the writer) agreed, and following a hurried consultation with the plate umpire, Beverley was called out. Who was right?

According to Section 9, Rule 47, "a base-runner who holds his base on a fly ball may advance the moment such a fly ball TOUCHES the person of a fielder with the risk of being put out. If my interpretation of this rule is correct, then Beverley of Claremont was safe. The plate official was correct and the base umpire was wrong. Sorry, men.

COSTLY GAME

Tuesday night was to be the opening game here of the Markham Township Softball League. It had to be cancelled, however, since a flick of the switch would automatically cost the town approximately $61.00. In other words, for a two-hour ball game, the fee would be the same as for one month. It is easily understood that to play the game here on Tuesday would have been financially foolish. It is expected that the lights will be turned on next week at the start of a new month.

Mr. Geo. Storey, Secretary-Treasurer of the Public Utilities Commission, informed your reporter that too often, organizations do not understand the operation of the park floodlights. He pointed out that the arena's power supply carried a similar calendar-month charge.

TOO LATE NOW

Stouffville's softball predicament is far from rosy, according to our latest report. With the schedule now underway, it is feared that our entry here may find it difficult to scrape together the necessary nine players per game. This is indeed, a sorry state of affairs. If there is a player shortage as the schedule opens, I would hate to place much faith on any influx of bench strength as the season progresses. Good performers just aren't picked up that easily. Any young men who are really interested in the game should have made up their minds before this late date. Begging and coaxing players to attend pre-schedule workouts and regular games never has worked out and never will. Just as was the case last year, when they're needed most, they're nowhere to be found.

This spring, a successful attempt was made to re-organize the Markham Township circuit. It wasn't done without some energetic work on the part of two or three local softball enthusiasts. The first two or three meetings were disappointing failures but the sponsors wouldn't give up and their interest finally paid off. Now, it's possible that a withdrawal by our team here might disrupt the entire organization. The group is presently struggling along with a minimum of four teams. Anything less than four entries would dissolve the whole setup. We cannot let this happen.

Ducklings? Goslings? This charming miss seems to be wondering as she admires her Easter present.

"Picture Your Easter in Color"

After the bleaker days of winter, there's really nothing like new Easter finery and fresh Spring flowers to give our lagging spirits a lift. This is the time of year when color reappears on the scene—slipcovers on the furniture, the first Spring foliage and blossoms, pastel sweaters and gay silk prints, bowls of Easter eggs and jelly beans on the coffee table.

Almost everywhere you look these days, the world seems to be putting its best foot forward—which makes it a fine time for you to put color film into your camera. For all of you who're planning a picture record of Easter at your house, color film is a must.

You know how color snapshots or color slides have a wonderful way of bringing back colorful scenes with remarkable realism—how they help you relive every vital detail of a time and place. Well, isn't that the kind of record you'd like to have when you review the pictures you shoot this Eastertime?

Basically, there are two kinds of color film—one especially designed for taking color snapshots, and the other for making color slides. No longer a "special occasion" item created for elaborate

Greenwood Blanks Uxbridge 4-0: Claremont Wins

Right hander Neil Pascoe twirled Greenwood to a 4-0 victory over Uxbridge in the first game of Thursday night's twin bill. Claremont rallied to beat Markham 9-3 in the second contest.

The Greenwood windmill hurler allowed the rival Uxbridge batsmen only two hits in the seven inning tilt. John Hill tapped out a single-base blow in the second inning and Jim Noble connected for a safety in the sixth.

Jake Cain hurled good ball for Uxbridge but received rather weak support in the field. Greenwood moved out front 1-0 in the second inning when Lorne Disney romped across the plate. McTaggart chalked up additional bases in the fourth.

Bill Mitchell, Bill Maxwell and Laurie Barclay each clipped Cain for a pair of hits. Howard Malcolm belted a triple and Neil Pascoe poked a single.

Claremont 9, Markham 3. Leading 3-1 going into the top half of the third inning, Markham faded at the bat and failed to score another tally for the remainder of the contest. Claremont's whirlwind moundsman settled down and retired the opposition in one, two, three order in the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

Wayne Redshaw paced the Claremont attack with three runs. Will Glendon romped home with a pair. Bob Cherry, Dave Beverley, Lloyd Pascoe and Haughman scored singles. Reesor, Degeer and Mathews chalked up the Markham runs. Ted Mathews went the distance on the hill for the Markhamites.

Claremont catcher Dave Beverley and third sacker Bob Cherry delivered the pay-off blows for the winners. Both players whacked out ringing doubles with men on base.

Bob Petch, Jim Raymer, Monte Hallman and Morris Procenko attended the game. Procenko was the only one of this number to take a turn at the bat.

Richmond Hill Team Wins COSSA Meet

Richmond Hill High School scored 66 points to capture the Central Ont. Secondary Schools Association track and field championship. Uxbridge and Pickering District tied for second place with back with 28 points. Host Trenton High School tallied 17.

Athletes from Parry Sound to Trenton broke nine records during the day-long meet with Trenton's Al Clarke, a junior, being the only double record setter. Clarke won the eight-point shot put with a heave of 46' 8", and also took the javelin throw at 139' 8".

Oshawa's Aru, shot put (47' 9"), Hunter, Orillia, hop, step, jump (42' 7 1/2"), and Moore, Uxbridge, pole-vault (11' 2") set senior marks. In the intermediate division, Michels of Parry Sound, broad jump (21' 3 1/2"), and winner of Pickering District HS, high jump (5-3 1/4") broke existing standards.

In addition to Clarke's junior records, Gibson of Richmond Hill, broad jump (18' 5 1/4") and Arbuckle of Uxbridge, hop, step, jump (39' 5") established records.

LUNAN HOMERS

Markham Drubs Richmond Hill 10-1 in Softball Opener

A towering home run over the left field fence by pint-sized Terry Lunau started Markham on the victory trail in the opening game of the Township softball circuit. The Aces stepped into Richmond Hill on Tuesday night and trounced the Yonge Street squad 10-1. The Aurora-Stouffville tilt, scheduled for the Stouffville park, was cancelled.

A pair of walks to Markham's Harry Young and Bruce Middleton set the stage for Lunau's circuit clout. The winners added a single tally in the third and salted the game away with a five hit, six run barrage in the 7th. Richmond Hill pushed their only run across in the bottom half of the second.

First-sacker, Monte Holman turned in a torrid plate performance for Markham. In six trips, he whacked out three singles and a triple. His three-bagger was a blow to deep centrefield that was good for an easy four bases. In completing the circuit, he neglected to touch the third sack and had to retrieve the bag. He later scored when Morris Procenko rapped a single through the infield. Jim Raymer, Terry Lunau, Bob Petch, Bruce Middleton and Morris Procenko each collected a pair of safeties. Mike Huggins had one hit.

Bruce Middleton, Markham's whirlwind hurler, went the distance on the mound for the Aces. He was clipped for six hits. He issued 4 walks and registered .5 strike outs. He was given strong support by his mates, both in the field and at the bat.

Geo. Ward started on the mound for Richmond Hill. He gave up 11 hits. Bill Jackson took over in relief and finished the contest. He was clipped for 3 hits. Joe McLean was the Hill's top batsman, belting a double and two singles.

On Thursday night of this week, Stouffville journeys to Markham while Aurora entertains Richmond Hill. On Tuesday night, Stouffville will play host to Markham here and Aurora travels to Richmond Hill.

When you really have something to show for your bills, it's likely you have a happier home.

Altona Wins Second Whips Uxbridge 15-7

Altona, a once-doubtful entry in the Claremont-Community League, is, to date, having little trouble with the opposition. Last week they whipped Markham 12-6 and on Monday night they trounced Uxbridge 15-7. In the twin-bill opener, Greenwood posted its second victory in as many starts, beating Peach's 6-5.

Altona 15, Uxbridge 7. Fielding a sprinkling of new talent around a nucleus of top-notch veterans, Altona struck for five runs in the first inning and never were headed. They added single tallies in the third and fourth innings, three in the fifth and five in the sixth. Uxbridge staged a brief three run rally in the fifth but left a pair of men stranded on base. They scored singles in the first and seventh and two in the second.

Murray McDowell worked 5 innings on the mound for the winners. Bruce Redshaw completed the route.

Harold Hodgson and Cliff Morris paced the Altona attack, each counting three runs. Cliff Dunkeld, Allan Redshaw and Bob Clout collected a pair. Gord McDowell, Geo. Neal and Bruce Redshaw romped home with singles. Miller scored three of Uxbridge's seven runs. Jim Noble, David Noble, Jerry Cooper and Earl Yake completed the circuit for the other tallies.

Greenwood 6, Peach's 5. Greenwood chalked up their 2nd straight victory and Peach's dropped their second in a row in the Monday night opener. Greenwood's runs came in pairs as they counted two in the first, third and sixth innings. Peach's scored one in the first and fifth and three in the fourth.

Going into the sixth and final inning, Peach's held a 5-4 edge. This advantage faded, however, when Neil Pascoe singled and Carter connected for a 2-bagger. Bill Maxwell's hit pulled the game out of the fire for Greenwood.

Earl Brooks, Carl Timbers, Eric Pilkey, Les Jarvis and Ross Beckett rounded the sacks for the defending champs. Glenn Carter, Bill Maxwell, Bob Blake, Les Wilson, Laurie Barclay and Neil Pascoe scored for the winners.

Love affairs that are sincerely taken to heart are not the ones taken to court.
