

News of the World in Pictures

RESORT TO THESE—Highlights of beach fashions for 1958 in London include beach separates with a tight-fitting top (left) and a design to capture the feeling of sea currents and topped by a novel lobster-pot hat (right). Fashions carried out sea motif.

FLOORED BY BEAUTIES—At left, contestants for a beauty queen contest in London put their collective heads together and stand on chairs, looking down at the photographer. That photo on the right is the one he took.

THEIR DEAREST FRIEND—Danny must have heard of Mary's little lamb, because he follows kindergarten children to Gunnison, Ut., school. He's class pet.

THESE PICKETS, SEE RED—Carrying a small forest of signs, members of the Federation of Former Political Prisoners picket the headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations. The group is composed of Hungarian refugees.

A GAME QUEEN—Lovely Lee Rutherford, 17-year-old blonde from Phoenix, Ariz., is another in a line of queens of beauty. She reigns over shuffleboards.

CAUGHT IN A QUAGMIRE—This dramatic rescue scene doesn't really matter because it's just from a movie in London. The studio provided some quicksand. A spy is being rescued from the quicksand by three fellow actors in this scene.

BIG DAY FOR SMALL BOY—Pope Pius XII leans from his gestatorial chair to pat a child held aloft by parents during a mass audience in St. Peters.

PULLING THE PLUG—Sam Isernoff, an Indian ordained a canon of the Church of England, draws a plug from one of the holes in the floor of the Church of St. Thomas, in Moose Factory, Ont. Floods that once carried the church away now flow through.

PLANTING FRIENDSHIP

A COMMUNITY-WIDE do-it-yourself project is underway in Pacific Palisades, Calif., to help the victims of the Malibu fire, one of the worst such disasters in the history of the state. Residents of Palisades launched a program of "Keep Malibu Green" by digging up plants from their yards and giving them to homeowners in Malibu. Youngsters take the plants to the sheriff's station and they are distributed from there. Other communities are helping in the project.

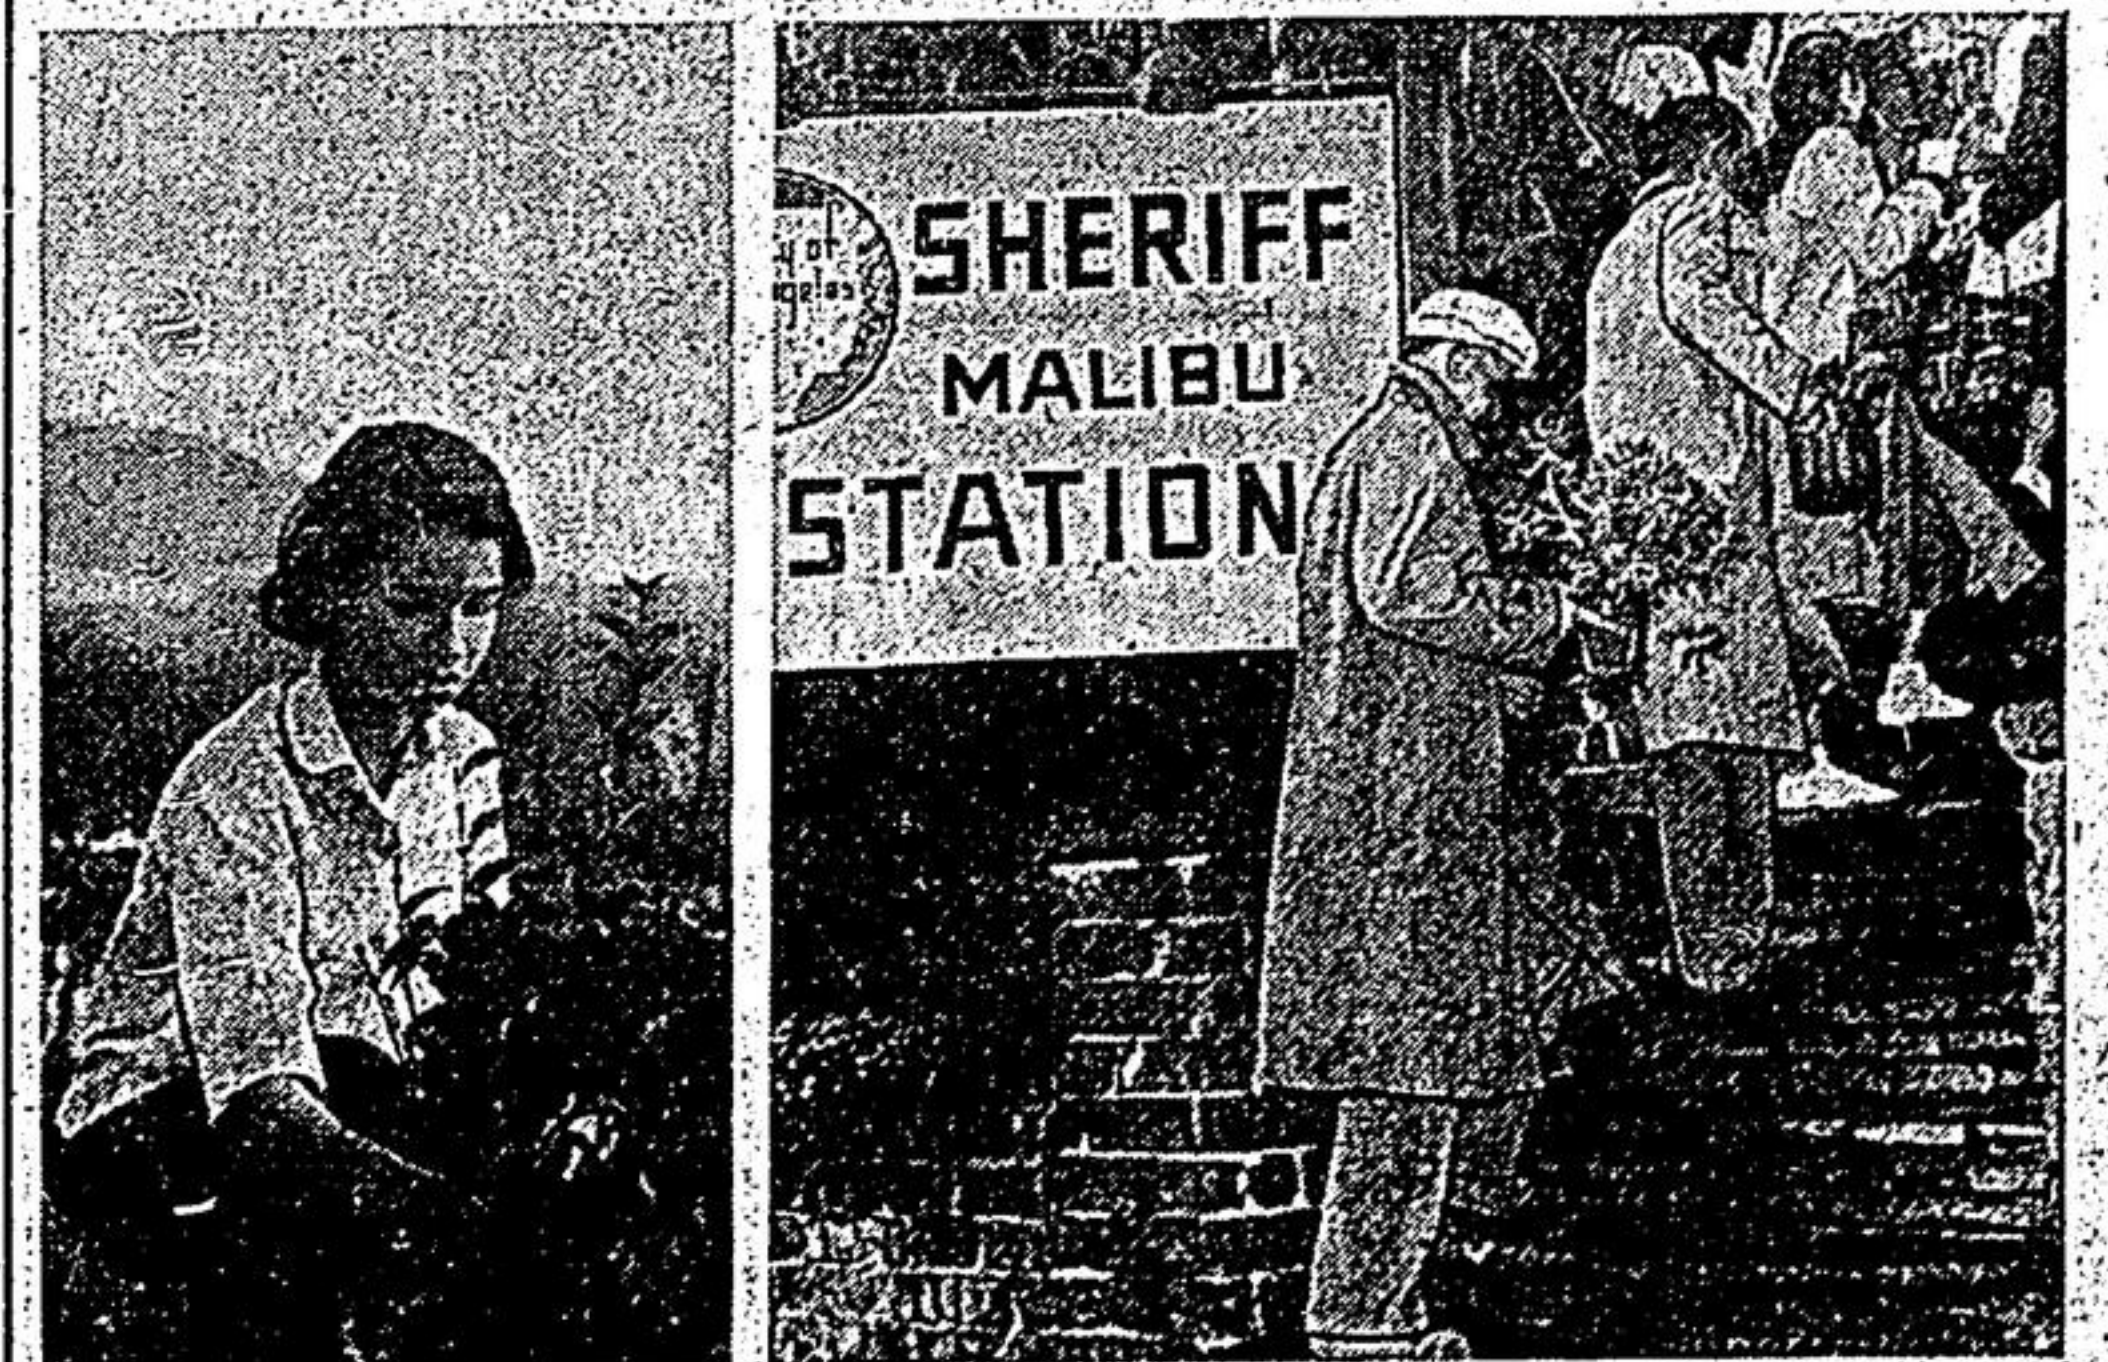

Larry Ackard, Chamber president, and girls plant around a burned-out site.

QUICK SERVICE STATION—No automobile gets more attention than this cowpony does from these girls on a Tucson, Ariz., ranch. The girls are, (from left) Carol Prickett, Kathy Brown, Jo Miller and Karen Milton. Horse is unidentified.

King Features Syndicate

A youngster replants (left) while others (right) bring plants to the station.