

Stouffville Tribune

Threw Bottles on Road Fined $50 and Costs in Magistrates Court

ous view of motorists throwing Mr. Hunt owned 12 trucks but bottles onto the highway when the evidence showed the brake he fined Gaitino Novielli $50 to be rusty denoting it had been and costs when he appeared in neglected. court at Vandorf on Tuesday. The officer laying the charge stated that he was driving into salesman, stated that while he the city with the police van.. He was charged with driving 43 mi. was following a truck when he an hour in a 30-mile zone, he noticed a bottle thrown onto the would only admit to 35 miles shoulder of the road. A second an hour. later another bottle was thrown on the pavement, and he had to he was pleased to have him apswerve around to avoid hitting pear and did not doubt his good

He apprehended the truck driver and found Novielli, a passenger, who admitted throwing the car. bottles. Novielli pleaded guilty as charged.

Magistrate Kelly stated that a car might drive into this glass and have a blow out with serious injury resulting to occupants or by being diverted across the highway, cause injury to others.

Tuesday's court dealt with 95 two hundred last week. Many seven days. were settled out of court.

No Emergency Brake truck without an emergency factory. brake, was fined $14 and costs. He pleaded guilty, stating that he didn't know the truck required two brakes.

Leslie Hunt, the owner, gave interview the police officer beevidence that the truck was used | fore he put the car back on the in rough sub-division ground so road. that possibly the brake had been made non-effective by a bump, guilty of a serious offence and Magistrate Kelly stated that especially since he was on the it was for the protection of all Don Mills Rd. where there was that any owner keep his truck heavy traffic.

Fire Agreement !-

Endorse Resolution

tion of the fines collected in magistrate's courts.

Pheasants Released

In Markham Township

Magistrate Kelly took a seri- in good condition. He noted that

Only Admits 35 Miles George Adamson, a real estate

Magistrate Kelly stated that intentions, but he was not quite fast enough in getting his speed reduced after seeing the radar The Magistrate noted the radar equipment was proven and that he had operated the equip-ment while in the navy and did not doubt its accuracy. Adamson was fined $5 and the Vehicle Dangerous to Public Romeo Gaston, charged with operating a motor vehicle in a manner dangerous to the public, was fined $30 and costs of

The police officer stated that he found the car with a loose Emanuel Kamoseti, charged steering unit and no emergency with operating a light , pickup | brake. The foot brake was satis-

Gaston pleaded guilty and produced a bill showing that repairs had been completed. Magistrate Kelly told him to

He said that Gaston had been

THE TRIBUNE, STOUFFVILLE, ONT., THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1958

lice last week, following a serious accident on the 4th concession, south of Victoria Square during the early hours of Fri-crashed almost head-on. Both vehicles were thrown into the of the other auto, 32-year old

Karl Juthman of Hamilton. He suffered a broken ankle, broken hip and broken collarbone. Mary Gustavsson, 25, of Scarboro, a passenger, suffered a broken

Juthman was pinned behind the wheel of his wrecked car for a time until he could be released by police and bystanders. The front fender of Noble's car was Juthman's vehicle. P.C. Cliff

Finish Cashel Paving

mile speed limit for that portion in a 30-mile zone. Council passed a resolution recommending the 40-mile speed limit, subject to the approval of the Unionville

Will Close Nursing

Wrestlers Here

A midget tag team match will be one of the highlights of Stouffville's opening wrest-

Friday Night

Fuzzy Cupid.

day morning.

assisted.

Gormley Driver

'An accident on the Don Mills molished this nearly-new car of Hamilton. Wm. C. Noble of Markham Twp. Police with owned by Mr. Karl Juthman Gormley was charged by careless driving.

Charged in Crash William C. Noble, 52, of Gormley, was charged with careless driving by Markham Twp. Poin Markham Township, has been Police said that the two cars the topic of much discussion among Conservation Officials in recent years. Bruce's Mill, one of the few the amount of dirty drainage beactive businesses of its type in ing put into township roadside Vito Costamzo. 17, of Rich-York County, is up for sale for a price. The Metro Toronto blame the road department men day night when his motorcycle and Regional Conservation As- if they refused to go in and collided with a CNR freight sociation have offered the present owners more than $30,000 for the mill, the original home- Twp. council meeting on Mon- south of Vandorf. stead and 25 acres of property. To date, the offer has not been

Mr. Latornell explained to the Tribune; that the Conservation the sale was made. He said that be transformed into a park and department engineers." -the original home would, in time, be made into a museum for Markham Twp. The present the park. The original mill was erected in 1829 by Mr. Casper Shirk. The property passed to the Bruce has been operated under the firm name of Bruce Bros. since 1848. The present mill was erected in 1858. A portion of the original building has been retained.

Time and tide has taken its large dam which blocked a stream to provide the mill's trary to the Zoning Bylaw, be tricity were used.

Lot 25, Con. 8, Whitchurch Twp., Swanick testified that he had had passed this bylaw, they tive business it was in the 1800's. buildings. Reeve Clark said that while

Markham Road Work A busy little country feed mill, nestled in a scenic wooded area near the hamlet of Almira Reeve Clark Declares

"I'm sorry that the deputation; of ratepayers from Doncaster sub-division has left, as I would Train Kills Cyclist the amount of dirty drainage be- On Lake Wilcox Rd. is deplorable, and I wouldn't mond Hill, was killed on Monwork in these ditches," declared train at a level crossing on the reeve Wm. Clark at Markham Lake Wilcox sideroad, 3 miles day night.

Representatives from this westbound, motorcycle struck ducted a verbal tirade during the from the diesel engine. Costam-Mr. Arthur Latornell, Conserva: ducted a verbal tirade during the zo was thrown forty feet. His tion Field Officer of Woodbridge; evening against the township rd. zo was thrown forty feet. His animal with one shot from his wrecked motorcycle was 100 feet 12 gauge shotgun. The fox has dents was hurriedly organized. manner in which its business was conducted.

Mr. Stevens, a ratepayer, commented that certain culverts had not been put in as the ratepayers' had recommended, but reeve Clark replied, "who are we trying to suit here, the ratepay-Association was desirous of ers or the department of highkeeping the mill in operation if ways who are paying 50% of this work. This work was fully the surrounding property would inspected and approved by the

"I can't believe it," replied Mr. Mr. Russell, another ratepayer said, "the road department of cil would be kept fully informed dog was the hero of the scuffle. and Michael 4, were touched by Markham Twp. should be given when the plans were drawn.' a complete revision. There are too many giving orders, one of them countermanding the other. This township should be able to family in 1843 and the business pay the road foreman enough money that he doesn't have to help unload gravel with a shov-

Markham Road Supt. Canning said that his men were cleaning An adjoining storehouse was up after two other construction companies, and it would be impossible to do anything further until the shoulders of the road and the pipe-line depressions had fully settled...

Provincial Highway In reply to a question from in 1954. On two previous occa- Markham Twp. council regardsions, it had been damaged but ing rumours of a proposed new each time it was repaired. Now, provincial highway through the Water power ceased to be an He said that the majority of · Trustees of Thornhill Village efficient means for operating the farmers had their own electric appeared before Markham Twp. mill when much of the bushland | choppers and could do their own council on Monday night and was cleared from the area and work. He noted that many of his demanded that the Nursing the river was transformed into customers were long-time resi-Home at 1045 Yonge St. which a small stream. From 1929 to dents in the district and had not was carrying on business con- 1950 both water power and elec- changed over to the more modern methods.

"People today are in a bigger | Two brothers, Robt. and Wilwere complaints concerning the hurry than they were fifty liam Bruce, were the original home and the septic tank was years ago," said the owner, Mr. owners in the Bruce family. It Neil. "A water-driven mill isn't was later passed on to Robert Clerk Crisp advised council fast enough for our more mod- and Alex "Sandy" Bruce. A nephew, Robert Alex Bruce now to permit the licensing of Nur- Mr. Neil explained that the owns the land and a grandsing Homes and once council old country mill isn't the lucra- nephew, Robt. Neil owns the

Conservation Assoc. Dirty Drains Could Stop

Provincial police said th

Engineer Dalton C. Draper of Dewhurst Blvd., East York, said the motorcycle appeared to veer toward a ditch as the train approached the crossing.

Police said there are no signals at the crossing, but it is clearly marked by signs and Jones. Mrs. Jones' three children One fox hole was dynamited on visibility is good.

township, the Department re of running away, ran at her. praise of the White collie. "I plied that, 'no decision had been Brandishing a stick, she held don't know what I'd have done reached yet as to the location the animal at bay until the chil- without Tippy," she, said Neiof the new north-south high dren could escape into the house. ther Mrs. Jones nor her three way, but that the township coun-

Appreciation · the work done on this street.

Two Cows Burned as Fire Destroys Barn On Bruce Clarke Farm

sible for the outbreak. Through barn. fire under control.

Two milk cows died in a barn | aided firemen in combating the fire on the property of Mr. B. blaze. The fire was completely Clarke, 6th concession of whit- out of control when the Stouffchurch Twp. on Monday after- centrated all their water on the noon. The remaining thirty head adjoining structures. The barn of registered Holstein cattle were was partially covered by insurance. Mr. Clarke plans to re-The blaze started in an up- build in the near future. His stairs hay mow and within min- cattle are presently being milkutes the entire structure was led on the farm of Mr. Ross a raging inferno. Spontaneous Harper. Only recently, a new adcombustion is believed respon- dition was built onto the main the efforts of Stouffville firemen | Stouffville Fire Chief Bill Mala nearby pig pen and driving loy discounted the report that shed were saved. The Aurora their truck was delayed enroute fire department was also sum- to the fire by an accident on the moned to assist in keeping the townline. He told The Tribune that although a collision had Additional water was supplied occurred there, the fire truck by one of Winterstein's trucks. had plenty of room to swing a round the obstruction.

Newmarket Asks $3,600 for County council on a request by fire during the early hours from Newmarket for a grant of of Friday morning. Branksom $3,000. The request was made to Lodge south of Bond Lake was cover a portion of the cost for burned to the ground in a specthe proposed expansion of the tacular blaze. police quarters.

borne by the county.

Markham's Junior Red Sox will provide the baseball opposition for the Cardinals in Stouffville on Thursday evening. On Friday of last week, the Cards upset Markham 7.2 in a North York game.

One of Markham Township's No action was taken by York oldest landmarks was destroyed

Reeve Luck of Newmarket ex- den and county commissioners plained that the additional space when informed that Magistrate was required because the town O. S. Hollinrake was interested is handling the county's police in taking over all of the Newwork. Newmarket considered market town hall for court and one-half of the cost should be police work. "Police courts and the policing of same are a di-"The county is under obliga- rect responsibility of the Attortion to supply a police court or ney-General's department," they police cells," reported the war- said.

Altona Pastor Shoots Fox: Suspect Rabies Rev. Dow Sargent, Pastor of charged at a group of five small its head. It freed itself and by, Jake Devos and Allan Meyer.

animal with one shot from his A posse of fourteen local restant been sent to Bowmanville lab- When they arrived at the Jones' oratories for rabies tests .. A residence, the fox had escaped. complete report on their find- All children in the area were ings is expected on Thursday, ordered to remain indoors. The and called their mother. She was wander. surprised when the fox, instead Mrs. Jones was loud in her

"Tippy" a small border collie children, Edward 9, Susan 7, He charged at the fox and a the fox. brief fight ensued. "Tippy" is Local residents who took part; A letter of appreciation from owned by 15 year old Kenneth in the fox hunt were - David, Mr. Barrett of Glen Cameron White, a neighbour. When the Fred, Enos, Harvey, Peter and Ave. was read before council. It fox momentarily evaded the dog Joe Nighswander, Jim and Ken-the Altona United Missionary Persian kittens lying in the Church, climaxed a two-mile yard. They were quite bady, cross country chase by fourteen mauled. "Lassie" the Jones' famlocal residents when he killed a lily dog never actually entered mad, half-grown fox on the farm the fray. "It acted just like a of Mr. Harvey Nighswander, on cheerleader," said Mrs. Jones. Yonge St. sub-division, had con the northbound train six cars Monday morning. Rev. Sargent, Both "Lassie" and "Tippy" have > men scoured two miles of farm The fox was first sighted on countryside before the fox fell the property of Mrs. Howard victim to Rev. Sargent's gun: spotted it in their chicken pen the farm of Mr. David Nighs.

complimented the Road Supt. on and once again attacked Mrs. neth White; Rev. D. Sargent, Jones, she slammed the door on Bob and Stan Lewis, Frank Biel-

White. Altona, holds half-grown ing. The White dog, Tippy the fox was rabid. Tipes 1200. fox that was shot and killed . has been quarantined followon the farm of Mr. Harvey ing a scuffle with the animal.

Fifteen year old Kenneth Nighswander, Monday morn- Laboratory tests will show the

At present the sale of nonresident pheasant licenses is restricted in Markham Township to a total of 300. Since the town. Municipal Board. of days for this year's annual Hearing Thursday shoot", the number of permits ship has increased the number to be issued is expected to be Representatives of the Ontario Municipal, Board, will be in jammed into the rear seat of Stouffville this Thursday mornthrough government sources, ing at 10 o'clock for a Public Cox and P.C. John McCague inand a number are also being Hearing on the new Stouffville vestigated. Police Chief. Fred raised locally for release later. Zoning Bylaw. The Hearing will White of Markham Village also Reeve Clark stated that he be held in the Masonic Hall and would like to have Mr. E. Har- anyone objecting to the bylaw. per, local Game Preserve Officer should appear and state their present before a decision on the An opportunity was given the agreement calls for a retainer the course of preparation for a in August, it was announced at fee of $500 with $100 for the year and a half, is believed by Markham Township council on first hour of each call and $50 Board members to be quite fair | Monday night. for each additional hour. to all buildings and the various Richmond Hill Area has been zones are of sufficient size to The traffic division, Markham reduced, going east only as far, adequately take care of building police, has recommended a 40as Bayview. The agreement for some time.

states that either party may ter-minate the contract on 30 days sufficient objections to the bylaw ugh Unionville. It was stated ord as endorsing a resolution of that the government give local MAIN STREET municipalities a better distribufore the Board.

Ronald Charles Baker, 22, of later in his pasture.

Ballantrae, was committed for recognized the cattle from their would have full control. trial by judge and jury on a identification tags, bearing his i Ebbs in Oshawa last week.

the property of Garland Swanick, of Lot 6, Con. 13, Reach | sale. Township.

Baker was refused ball. Crown Attorney Alex C. Hall, QC, said that Baker had been on ball on another charge of assault with the side of the truck was the offence occurred. Magistrate Ebbs agreed with the Crown.

Mr. Swanick told the court that He also took an identification he had missed 12 head of cattle tag from one steer and turned on Thursday. June 5. The cattle it over to Dr. Wood, veterinar-had grazed on 100 acres of land ian-in-charge at the Toronto on Lot S. Con. 13 of the town- stockyards.

down. He had recovered eight would make application to Counhead; of cattle in the Toronto ty Judge E. Pritchard for bail. stockyards, three head he had Crown Attorney Hall had subfound lying beside the fence on poensed 11 witnesses for the prethe roadway, and one steer turn- liminary hearing, of which only ed up mysteriously some time two were called.

He had checked the eight head

Defence Counsel Lorne Lee, The rail fence had been taken |QC, of Aurora, said that he Vaughan Twp. there is no limit On Zoning Bylaw in the number of licenses issued; Five hundred and fifty pheasants have already been released and a representative of the Dept. objections at this time.

number of permits was decided. public last Thursday to visit the local Planning Board at the Mu- In August A new fire agreement bylaw nicipal office if they wished to was passed by Markham Town- discuss any details in connec- Beamish Construction Comship on Monday night, setting tion with the bylaw, but very pany will complete the paving forth new rates for the Rich few objections appeared. on the approaches to the new mond Hill brigade. The new The Bylaw, which has been in bridge at Cashel, 6th concession, law are advanced before the that only a very small portion Municipal Board, this Thursday, of the highway could be classed Markham Council went on rec- the bylaw will be declared law. Fort Erie Council requesting HEARING ON UNIONVILLE has, advised Markham Township Council that they will conduct a hearing on the pro-posed road expenditure for

The Ont. Municipal Board Trustees.

Unionville Main St., on Fri-

Mr. Wm. Hall, Tribune adverday, July 25th. The hearing will be held in Home Contravening tising salesman, attended, the Shakesperian Festival at Stratford on Wednesday." the municipal building at Buttonville at 2 p.m. and anyone The Zoning Bylaw Work is progressing on Mr. who has objections to the pro-Glenn Byer's new home at Alposed widening and improving of the street should appear tona. The residence is located in the recently opened Bunker to state their objections be-

Ballantrae Youth Faces Cattle Rustling Charge

ton avenue, Toronto, partner in and the police department was Baker pleaded not guilty to a cattle brokers firm located in instructed to enforce the bylaw. two charges of theft and posses. the Toronto stockyards, stated sion of the eight head of cattle, that Baker had brought the cattle to the firm for a commission of cattle after Baker had brought them for sale on consignment. The cattle had been brought by Baker in a truck. On name R. Baker on a sheet of brown paper taped to the truck. 'Anderson said he had taken In the preliminary hearing, the licence number of the truck.

Seeks Bruce Mill for Park and Museum ditch following the impact. Most seriously injured was the driver "Our offer still stands," said had been made on acquiring the site during the past year. He pointed out, however, that he expected the subject would be reopened for discussion in the near future.

mill operator, Mr. Robt. Neil would be appointed caretaker of added in 1936.

toll during the past century. A water power, was completely destroyed by Hurricane Hazel only the cement bulkheads reclosed. It was said that there that the Act had been amended ern farmers."

charge of rustling eight head initials, registered with health it was realized there was a of Shorthorn cattle. He appear authorities in Toronto. Eric Anderson, of 105 Lambhad no alternative but to comply had no alternative but to To Resign His Position Little Interest Shown

Mr. Jack Sanders, local post- get Support Area, Toronto of master, and Civil Defence Co- course being the target. The ling show in the local arena on ordinator for Stouffville, is 're- Barrie Zone 4 office has been Friday night of this week. signing his position, he has an most co-operative, and is pre-Last summer, close to 1,500 nounced. Mr. Sanders has spent pared to provide equipment for fans, many of them children, considerable time on the work civil defence training at any came out to watch the Midgets of organization but told the Tri- time, Mr. Sanders told The Tri in action. The ever-popular Lit- bune this week that there ap- bune. A number of local departtle Beaver will team up with pears to be little enthusiasm in ments had shown some interest Cowboy Bradley against the town for such a project.

to organize the unit while others combination of Ski Lo Lo and The Stouffville Civil Defence had not. The Co-ordinator said Budget and work report for the that because of Stoluffville's The main bout will match past year is quite exhaustive, classification there was much Yukon Eric against Karl Kal- even for a community of this need for a proper system of mikoff in two out of three falls | size, and this report has been | communication to be set up. and the opening bout will pair fully prepared for the federal Money for civil defence is off Ivan Kalmikoff against government by Mr. Sanders. provided principally by the gov-Maarice LaPoint. The bouts Stouffville is classed in the ernment, and some assistance will start at 8.45. Civil Defence scheme as a Tar- by the municipality.