BIRTH
REESOR—Cecil and Ruth (nee Wideman) are happy to announce the birth of a daughter, Joyce Elaine, on Oct. 2, 1958, at York County Hospital, Newmarket, a sister for Arthur.

DEATH
REDSHAW—Entered into rest on Friday, Oct. 3, 1958, Larry Roger Redshaw in his fifteenth year, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redshaw and dear brother of Wayne, Donna, Jack and Ted. The funeral was held at the family residence on Sunday, Oct. 5th, at 2:30 p.m. in Interment Claremont Union Cemetery.

Remall 1c Sale
 Local shoppers will again have the opportunity to purchase quality drugs at tremendous savings when Houston's Drug Store holds its annual Fall Rexall 1c Sale. This year, for the first time, the Rexall Fall 1c Sale will be held for six days—Monday October 20 through Saturday October 25. The fact that Houston's Drug Store can offer such a variety of merchandise at "two articles for the price of one—plus a penny" is a boon to every home in Stouffville and area and, according to Mr. Houston, many shoppers ask "How is it possible to buy so many well-known Rexall products at such a saving?" Mr. Houston explains that the items sold are all freshly made, guaranteed Rexall products, that they are sold on a money back guarantee, are newly stocked for the 1c Sales, and that only through increased volume resulting from 1c Sales can Rexall druggists offer Rexall quality at such a saving. Adrienne Quality Cosmetics, Vitamin Preparations, Cod Liver Oil Remedies, Tooth Paste, Tooth Brushes, Shaving Cream, Baby Needs, Cough Remedies, First Aid Supplies, Bachelor Shaving and Grooming Aids and extra surprise buys are but a few of the over 300 items shoppers in Stouffville will be purchasing at these great savings.

Fall Weddings

IRWIN-STOVER
 Yellow mums decorated the Stouffville United Church on Saturday, October 11th, 1958, for a double ring ceremony when Gertrude Marie Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stover, became the bride of William Bruce Irwin, son of Mrs. Irwin and the late Mr. R. Irwin. Rev. Davis officiated.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with lace applique and seed pearls on the bodice. The full skirt fell into a slight train. A matching Juliette cap of satin and lace held her fingertip veil of tulle illusion and she carried a white Bible with a spray of stephanotis.
 The maid of honour, Catherine Stover and bridesmaids Marian Stover and Roberta Lockyer wore trapeze style dresses of jewel green taffeta with matching headbands and carried crescent bouquets of bronze and yellow mums.
 Groomsman was James Irwin, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Keith Sutherland and John Willis. Mrs. Chas. Nolan accompanied the soloist, Mr. Lorne Broadway, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You."
 At the reception held at the Masonic Hall, the bride's mother received the guests wearing beige lace over taffeta with brown and beige accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in pale blue lace over taffeta with navy accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.
 For a wedding trip to the East Coast the bride donned a sapphire blue wool suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations.
 Mr. and Mrs. Irwin will make their future home in Toronto.

HARVIE - BROWN
 Amidst a setting of gladioli, a quiet wedding was performed in the Stouffville Christian Memorial Church on Friday evening, October 3, at 7 o'clock, when Erma Elaine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy D. Brown, exchanged vows with Mr. Herbert Anderson Harvie, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harvie of Altona. Rev. A. Dearmond officiated at the double ring ceremony.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz-length lace over satin gown with a boat neckline, long lace sleeves adorned with sequins. Her seed pearl coronet held her fingertip veil of nylon lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses.
 Mrs. Francis Hoye, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She chose a waltz length blue lace over satin gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
 Mr. Allan Kirkwood of Waterdown, brother-in-law of the groom, acted as best man. Mrs. Clifford Wagg played the organ.
 The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents on Boyer St. The bride's mother received in a blue wool dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother received in a blue crepe and lace dress with pink accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.
 For travelling, the bride donned a light brown suit with pink and dark brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Upon their return, the happy couple will reside in Stouffville.

KINGDON - CRAWFORD
 Wesley United Church, Vandorf, was the scene of a wedding of local interest on Saturday, Sept. 20, when Elsie G. Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Crawford, became the bride of Mr. William H. Kingdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kingdon.
 Amid a setting of standards of gladioli banked with ferns, Rev. Ivan E. Kennedy officiated at the afternoon double ring ceremony. The organist, Miss Gail Aylett, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Edward Griffith, Aurora, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "Wedding Hymn" at the signing of the register.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of antique white silk brocade fashioned with portrait neckline, long torso and bouffant skirt. An iridescent pearl tiara held the fingertip illusion veil. The bride carried an arrangement of white chrysanthemums on a white Bible.
 The attendants, Miss Anne Crawford as maid of honour, Mrs. Robert Staley of Finch, Ont., and Miss Betty Arbuckle of Laskay, Ont., as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in waltz-length dresses of emerald green crystal charm fashioned with a pleated cummerbund caught at the back with matching roses. The attendants wore gold feather headbands and carried bronze and gold chrysanthemums.
 Mr. John Baber, Vandorf, attended the groom as best man. The ushers were Mr. William Richardson of Vandorf and Mr. Charles Scott of Leaside.
 Receiving at the Ridge Inn, the bride's mother chose a jacket-dress of periwinkle blue brocade accented by winter rose accessories with a corsage of pink rosebuds in white gladioli petals. The groom's mother assisted in a queen Anne blue tuscanny crepe dress with matching feather hat and gloves, and wore a corsage of shaded pink carnations.
 The bride's table was centered with three-tiered cake with heather topping, sent by relatives of the groom from his grandfather's home, Arnish House, Isle of Iona, Argyllshire, Scotland.
 For their wedding trip to the west coast, the bride chose a heathertone English worsted suit with the blouson back, small feather trimmed hat of forest glow and accessories, and a corsage of baby chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Kingdon will reside at Highland Acres Farm, Vandorf.

Horticultural Meeting
 Horticultural meeting was held in the United Church on Monday evening, with a good attendance. Mr. Walter Atkinson showed coloured slides and gave an interesting and instructive talk on their recent trip to Moosonee and return home via Fort William and northern Michigan. Music was supplied by Mrs. Lloyd Hamm on her cornet. There was a good flower show despite the frost. This was judged by Mr. Joe Tiffin and Mr. Thompson of Agincourt. Prize winners were as follows:

United Church W.M.S.
 The Autumn Thanksgiving Service of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held in the church auditorium Thursday, Oct. 9, with Mrs. Nolan at the organ and Mrs. Gayman at the piano.
 The meeting opened with a Call to Worship by the President, Mrs. Woods, and after singing "Oh Master of the Waking World," the W.M.S. Motto was repeated in unison.
 Invitations from Melville, Victoria Square and Markham were received and accepted.
 Mrs. Sisco took as her worship Scripture Deuteronomy 11: 11-18. She said the Study of Neighbors is the Study of man and his relation to man, and gave an interesting talk on that theme.
 Mrs. Duxbury rendered two solos which were enjoyed by all.
 Mrs. Hastings introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Muir who, with her husband and family, have recently returned from Japan. Mrs. Muir gave a concise picture of some of their work, and dressed one of the ladies in Japanese costume, and with the help of Mr. Muir showed pictures, many of the children they work with, also flowers and scenes which made her talk most interesting and informative. She closed her remarks by quoting "The Gospel is the power of God unto salvation."
 Mrs. B. Sanders thanked all who had contributed to the meeting to make it an interesting and profitable one.
 Rev. Davis closed with prayer and benediction. Several ladies from town and the surrounding district shared the meeting with us and enjoyed a social half hour afterward.
 —G. Holden, Press Secty.

Christmas is less than two months away and in addition there are a number of reports from committees, set up at the last meeting of the association. Keep your Association alive! Be sure you attend.

Gifts for Baptist Church, Stouffville
 We are sorry to say that, owing to a misunderstanding, the report given in last week's Tribune was rather misleading. The Rev. J. Williams, minister of the Baptist Church, informs us that the church decorations only were paid for by an anonymous donor, and that the funds for the new pews, organ and carpet are to be raised by the local church. It is expected that the large auditorium will be completed and ready for re-opening on Sunday, Nov. 2nd.

NOTICE
 Anyone wishing to send old woolen or cotton rags to be made into blankets, rugs, auto-robes, sheets, socks and numerous articles of wearing apparel must have rags and money at my place by Oct. 27th.

High School News
 Initiation last Friday was a great success! This was due to the co-operation on the part of the niners, the older students, the merchants, and residents. While the programme was being carried out at the school, several groups of Grade 9 students were sent on a scavenger-hunt. The dance following was well supported and a great deal of fun. Ron Patrick won the hula-hoop contest and received a record. It is hoped that dances in the future will be as successful as this one.
 The MacLean - Hunter Magazine campaign is off to a good start. The students are working hard and the public is responding well to make the drive a success. We hope that at the end of the 12-day drive, we will have reached our objective.
 The students of Grades 11 and 12, accompanied by Mr. Waite and Mr. Marshall, visited the Ontario Museum on Tuesday. The trip was arranged to furnish background for their history courses.

Announcement
 Because of the great increase in the number of parishioners attending St. Patrick's Church, Markham, it is necessary to increase the present number of Masses.

York North Liberal Women's Association
 Some sixty-five members and friends attended the dinner of York North Liberal Women's Association at Yangtze Pagoda, Richmond Hill. The tables were festive with rosebuds, candles and favors. The President, Mrs. D. Downey, welcomed the guests and introduced those at head table, viz: Miss L. Starr, Sec.; Mrs. H. Hooker, VP; Mrs. Howard Vane, Hon. Past Pres.; Mrs. Kirkwood, VP; Mrs. Bruce Hunter, Record Sec.; and Mrs. Tod, Membership and in charge of table. The President, Mrs. D. Downey and the guest speaker, Miss Judy LeMarsh, Pres., Ont. Liberal Women's Association.
 Miss LeMarsh was introduced by Mrs. H. Hooker, giving a brief resume of Miss LeMarsh's activities and achievements, politically, professionally and in municipal work. A few of her salient points were: The hypocrisy of present liquor policy; the great lack in our educational system, bad and growing worse, but that the cost of "trills" in schools pays in curbing of juvenile delinquency. Not least of her ideas in this field was the removal of part of the cost from the taxpayer.
 Miss LeMarsh is a strong advocate of profit sharing in business, and employs that system on her own office; feels it creates pride in the job. She feels that the mushroom growth of towns and cities should be stopped when it reaches an uneconomic point.
 Mrs. Bruce Hunter thanked Miss LeMarsh, expressing for all the benefit and pleasure we had in hearing Miss LeMarsh, with emphasis on the ideas for betterment in the field of education.
 The next monthly meeting of the Association will be on Wed. Nov. 19, at 8.15 in the Veterans' Club Room, Newmarket Town Hall, Mrs. F. McMahon, Pres. Toronto Women's Liberal Assoc. will be guest speaker. Refreshments will be served.
