BALLANTRAE

Friday night was a full house at the Euchre. There were ten tables and a lot of fun for all. The ladies to carry off prizes were, Mrs. C. Paxton with a whopping 112, and Mrs. C. Johnson, consolation. For the men it was Ernie DeGeer and Doug Moorehouse. The door prize this week was donated by Ken Ogden and won by a lady from Vivian.

This Friday, Nov. 28th, we want you all to turn out for the special Euchre for the boys from Ballantrae who won the Baseball Championship this year. All proceeds are to go to help buy trophies as a token of appreciation of their achievement. There should be a good crowd, so come early to be sure of a playing place. Bring several friends—everyone welcome. The price is the same, 35c, and a tasty lunch and cup of tea will round off a pleasant evening.

There are a couple of church notices this week. Don't forget the W.A. meeting for the election of officers on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd. A special reminder—Sunday School at Ballantrae is to start at 9.45 from now on.

Hope you've got a lot of knick knacks and white elephants and the like collected ready for the Christmas carnival. All you good cooks on the alert, too, for the bake table.

There's going to be an election again this year. The councillors want it by acclamation and Mr. C. Wallwork of Ballantrae was acclaimed for the office of Deputy Reeve. The race this year is for Reeve only and is between Mr. S. Legge and Mr. G. Richardson. You, and only you, can make the choice, so be sure you get your vote counted by getting out and getting it in. Hope you all get down to see the parade. Sounds like it's going to be a really big show this year.

BROUGHAM

meeting will be held at the home of Carol White on Dec. 1. The meeting was closed with the Benediction, followed by refreshments.

4-H Club News—
 The Brougham 4-H Club paid a visit to the butcher shop at Markham on Tuesday evening, Nov. 18, for a study on the various cuts of beef and pork.

On Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22, the club held its seventh meeting. Mrs. Harden demonstrated the proper way to make Hamburg Steak and then when it was cooked, everyone had a taste in the form of Hamburgers, which I might add were very tasty. But the next dish that was cooked proved to be the best—it was none other than Stuffed Flank Steak — muck duck. Perhaps several families in the community will be having this tasty dish for Sunday evening dinner, for I am sure it is now the favourite dish of all the club girls. Roll Call for this meeting: "Read the menu which had been planned for the family" to which 7 girls answered. In the discussion work, the topics were "Made Over Dishes" and "How to Prepare and Cook Frozen Meats." The next meeting will be held on Dec. 28 when the girls will use Swiss Steak, Stew, and Liver, which have not already been taken. Roll Call for next meeting—Snow Completed Record Books. An odd feature of Mideast oil is that it causes friction.
