GLEESON - In loving memory of Wilbur B. Gleeson, who passed away Feb. 24, 1951. This day we do remember. A loving thought we give, To one no longer with us. But in our hearts he lives. Ever remembered by his sisters Minnie and Margaret.

MILLER - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, John Miller, who passed away Feb. 26, 1958. Gone from us but leaving memories. Death can never take away. Memories that will always linger While upon this earth we stay. Sadly missed by wife and sons Gerald, Hillard and family.

He is gone but not forgotten. And as dawn another year. In our lonely hours of thinking. Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness will come o'er us. Many think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow. That lies in the heart concealed. Lovingly remembered by wife and family.

CEDAR GROVE

(Feb. 19) Magazines and newspapers average about one article a week on what is happening to the present teenagers. If you eavesdrop on the last generation or the one before, you can hear all about the countless joys and endless pleasures that today's young people are missing. They have nothing to do; they don't have any fun; they don't enjoy themselves. Perhaps, but not in Cedar Grove. Let's take a look at a few of the activities that our teenagers find interesting or enjoyable.

Glance over your programme for last week's production of the Mikado in Markham. You'll have to go by the program because on stage you would never recognize Joan and Roberta Whittaker or David Ramer. It never suffered from forgotten lines, miscues or faltering voices. No, this five night run was a full-time venture for our young musicians.

The Church's Young People are a very active group. At Zion they are not only busy with their village activities but they trod all over the country linked with others under an organization encompassing all United Churches. With participation comes experience in the conducting of meetings, public speaking and organization.

The Mennonite young people lay heavy emphasis on music and their lovely choral work is a gratifying hobby with many of them. At Christmas, shut-ins all over the township are carried by travelling groups. And there are still quilting bees here, too. Quilting is a necessary and a happy social event, not a sentence in a history book.

Motion to Rebuild York Manor Quashed for Present

A motion by Reeve Armstrong and Reeve Perry to rebuild the present York Manor which is the York County Farm building, was quashed last week as members declined to vote without more information. In discussing the Manor, Reeve Armstrong stated that it had been the intention to rebuild the Manor, as far back as 1953. The motion immediately met with opposition and it was finally agreed to shelve the matter until June. Reeve Clark of Markham and Reeve Perkins of Richmond Hill moved that the county recognize the need for a new home and that a full report be prepared and made ready for the June session. Deputy-reeve Wagg of Stouffville stated that he would find it difficult to make any decision in view of the lack of a report. Reeve Armstrong stated that it was expected the farm would show an increase in the 1959 return of about $2,000. Reeve Luck of Newmarket suggested that this seemed a small amount. Reeve Anderson suggested that Mr. Luck try farming if he wished to find out the meagre returns in the business today. Farm Manager Ritchie declined to place a valuation on the county's herd of cattle, numbering 27. He said that many factors could enter in valuation such as the purpose for which they were to be used. Reeve Richardson of Whitchurch said that he expected the farm manager to make a profit, but as the Manor received the support of the county, he expected that the farmers in the county would benefit from any increases in the herd. He noted that the herd had been increased in the last five years from 14 to 27 head.

For the High School set, there is so much to do, there is little time for anything else. Last week, for instance, skiing parties were arranged for skiers and would-be skiers, to Collingwood. Several bus-loads of teenagers took in this happy get-together in Ontario's wintry north. A Valentine dance in the school was one of many that mark every special occasion throughout the year.

There is high interest in the Agricultural groups among our young farmers, and this year some are old enough to take on executive responsibilities. Barry Little is now Treasurer of the 4H Club and Caroline Little is president of the Home-makers.

Those are the highlights, but hobbies, athletics and dates, too, fill in any second that happens to be left over from homework. And need we add, our young people do well in High School. Just watch their grades when the results are published next spring.

Anyone who keeps a diary in Cedar Grove will record with glowing phrases Sunday, Feb. 15th. It was a glimmering, glorious day. That bold blue sky and every tree bedecked with jewelry that would have made any mere mortal look outlandishly gaudy. On a maple or a walnut or even a weed, it was something to behold. And on the dogwood—oh, my what did we ever do to deserve such a day? A car went off the road at Woodland Park. It burned. You can see the dark blotch on the snow to prove it. How? Why? Who? I don't know. It was the fastest accident and the quickest removal of evidence in recorded history.

We are sorry to hear of the death last Thursday of Mr. Joe Barkey of Cherrywood and extend sympathy to his daughter, Esther. Mr. and Mrs. Morley Ryan welcomed a baby boy into the family on Feb. 9th. We join in the welcome and congratulate the parents.

Just because they don't fit in to the teenage category is no reason to omit from praise, Alex Allen and Charlie Whittaker for their parts in the fine production of the Mikado. Community Club meeting for February will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Little.

The kiwi, New Zealand's bewhiskered, burrow-digging, tailless and almost wingless bird, is waging a losing battle for survival against the depredations of stoats, ferrets, rats, house cats and bush fires.

Fined $50 For Use of Illegal Fishing Tackle

Stanley Auckland, Mt. Albert, was fined $50 and costs on Tuesday when he appeared in Vaudorff Court, charged with using a snagger in fishing through the ice. Officer Harold VanVyk and Officer Terry Ross of the Department of Game & Fisheries presented the evidence. They stated that in one case prosecuted, they had walked fourteen miles over the ice to secure the necessary evidence. Auckland pleaded guilty. He admitted that he was found with the line in his hand and surface ice was found to have a snagger at the end. Officer Ross said that the basket in the hut contained several fish that from their mangled condition it was obvious they had been caught by a snagger. Magistrate Kelly commented that it was regrettable that persons living near Lake Simcoe, attractive to tourists and providing a living for many in the area, would not be protected by those residing in the area. Leslie R. Lockbie of Keswick, also pleaded guilty to securing fish with a snagger and he was likewise fined $50 and costs. Reginald Tomlinson received a similar fine for the same offense. Lockbie was not fishing when apprehended, but on returning to the hut with the Officer, two snaggers were found. Magistrate Kelly stated it appeared that many persons had little regard for the law and less for the fish. He added that if the present fines did not prove deterring, he would increase the amount. Lewis Rose, of Brown Hill and William Green of the same address received similar fines when they appeared to answer the same charge. Too Many Fish John Ellis, charged with having more than two trout in his possession, was fined $15 and costs. Officer VanVyk told the court that he trailed two cars to discover the fish. On the stand Ellis stated that he was under the impression that the limit was two trout per day and these three were not caught on the same day. Officer VanVyk stated it was illegal to have more than the legal catch of fish in your possession at any time. Ellis requested time to pay up the fine. Sympathy is fine for everyone until it gets you into the habit of wanting it.
