

Local and Personal Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sutherland sign the register following their recent marriage in the Stouffville United Church.

SUTHERLAND-STOVER
Easter lilies graced the altar of the Stouffville United Church on Monday, March 30, 1959, for a double ring ceremony when Catherine Anne Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stover, became the bride of Mr. Wemyss Keith Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sutherland, Rev. D. Davis officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza with a yolk of lace applique with seed pearls and sequins. A full skirt fell into a slight train. A small cap held her fingertip veil of tulle illusion and a cluster of white orchids.

The matron of honour, Mrs. Marie Irwin and the bridesmaids Marian Stover, Marie Schell and Carol Henesey wore blue silk organza strapless gowns with tiny jackets and harem skirts. They carried bouquets of white button mums.

The groomsmen were Eric Sutherland, Ushers were Harold Hodgson, Malcolm Wright and Peter Stover. Mrs. Charles Nolan played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Claude Brillinger, who sang, "The Lord's Prayer," and "I Love Thee".

At the reception held at the Masonic Hall the bride's mother received the guests wearing turquoise silk chiffon with white and turquoise accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in navy with navy and pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For a wedding trip east, the bride donned a beige linen dress with matching cocoa coat and beige and cocoa accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will reside in Stouffville.

Honored by Staff
The members of the Spofford & Co. staff gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nigh last Tuesday evening to honour Mr. and Mrs. H. Spofford who have disposed of their Main Street business. Following a sumptuous dinner served by Mrs. Nigh, Miss Hosie read the following address:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Spofford, It is with feelings of regret that we think of the changes soon to take place. Our pleasant association with you in the business of the store, your help and understanding and your efforts to improve our working conditions, will be hard to equal. You have shown a personal interest in each of us, but, in our families, we have this, we assure you, has been much appreciated. We have also enjoyed many happy occasions with you, outside of the business, too. These we hope we may be able to continue, since you have elected to remain in Stouffville—we trust for always. We would like you to know that you will always be welcome in our homes.

As a token of our appreciation and our esteem, we would now like you to accept this gift. That you may enjoy health, happiness and prosperity, is the sincere wish of all your staff members.

Then Miss Barkey, on behalf of the staff, presented Mr. and Mrs. Spofford with several long playing records. Mr. Spofford replied and much to the surprise of the staff, presented each member with a gift. Mr. and Mrs. Spofford were missed in the store, but it is nice to know that they will still be residing in our town.
