Jones and Mary Yake, and was the last remaining member of a family of three sons and five daughters. She was a member of the Altona Christian United Missionary Church.
Funeral services were held on Thursday from the L. E. O'Neill
funeral parlours with Rev. D.
Sargent conducting the service.

etery. The pallbearers, all great-nephews of the deceased, were:
Clarence Hawey, Mervyn Bunker, Everett and Ray Burnham
and Will Hopkins.

CNR police continue a search for the person who placed rocks on the CNR main line a mile and a half north of Newmarket last week for the second time in two days.
Friday night 13 rocks, each the size of a fist, were kicked from the northbound rails two minutes before a Vancouver-bound flyer reached the spot. Sergeant John Hutchinson, of East Gwillimbury Township police, raced five miles to the stretch of rail where rocks were spotted by a brakeman on a southbound freight train. He warned the station agent here who relayed the message to the township police at Queensville.
