

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Martin Milne are pictured here following their recent marriage in Goodwood United Church. The bride is the former Glenda Marlene Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Goodwood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milne, Ajax. The happy couple are shown with Pastor, Rev. Cecil Wood.

MILNE-TAYLOR
White and yellow mums, shasta daisies and gladioli decorated Goodwood United Church for the wedding of Miss Glenda Marlene Taylor and Barry Martin Milne on Saturday, June 20, at 3 p.m. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Stouffville R.R. 3, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milne of Ajax. Rev. Cecil Wood of Goodwood and Rev. Douglas Davis of Stouffville officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over net with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and seed pearls, and bouffant floor-length skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a jewelled tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses, stephanotis, white baby mums and carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Beverly Rodgers of Oshawa, Susan Milne of Ajax and Mrs. Carolyn Karrys of Toronto wore waist-length gowns of Mint green organza, with portrait neckline and picture hats to match. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of yellow daisies and tea roses. Miss Sharon Taylor, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, wearing yellow nylon, with daisies in her hair and carrying a nosegay of carnations centred with roses. Groomsman was Mr. Albert Jones of Gormley RR 2, and the ushers were Carl Miller, Theo Karrys and Brian Milne. Mr. Clarion Baker was organist and Mr. Kenneth Hallett soloist, sang "A Wedding Prayer" and "Because".

For the reception in the Church hall the bride's mother received wearing a sheath dress of helio iridescent organza with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a sheath dress of pink brown silk linen with beige accessories and corsage of yellow mums. For a trip to the States the bride wore a beige and brown paisley lace ensemble with beige accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Milne will make their home in Oshawa. Guests were present at the wedding from Kitchener, Brampton, Uxbridge, Clarendon, Gormley, Oshawa, Richmond Hill, Waterloo, Toronto and Goodwood.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Bristol McGuckin, RR 3, Stouffville, wishes to announce the wedding date of her daughter, Gloria Frances to Mr. Keith Robert Paradine of Uxbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paradine of Uxbridge. The wedding to take place in the Trinity United Church in Uxbridge on July 18th, at 2:30 o'clock.

BIRTH

BELL—Ivan and Dorothy (nee Lawrenson) thank God for the happy arrival of a son, Dale Ivan, 8 lbs., 14 ozs., at the Brierbush Hospital on Wednesday, June 24th, 1959.

BLOOMINGTON

It being Missionary Sunday in our school last Sunday, Mrs. H. Tomlinson conducted the program in which Mrs. C. Lemon gave a reading. Master Buddy Herbert sang accompanying himself on his guitar. Mr. Cross told a story of a devoted missionary who although never realizing his goal of China, sparked numbers of others in the work. Mrs. Simmons led in a chorus and then was narrator as the life and work of Hudson Taylor, pioneer missionary to China, was shown in films. Pastor Ronald Warder of London is holidaying with Jonathan Lemon.

Mr. A. Granger of Stayner and Mr. Geo. Granger of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Tranner on Saturday. Miss Carol Winterstein of St. Catharines is spending a few weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Winterstein. Vacation Bible School is being conducted in our church this week and next, every forenoon, under the able leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Wagg opened their home for the July meeting of the W.A. Mrs. O. Baker conducted the devotionals. Mrs. H. Tomlinson read a letter from Miss Mary Neal of Sault Ste. Marie, telling of her very busy missionary schedule for the summer. Mrs. E. Nesbitt and Mrs. Tomlinson presented a program including short histories of David Livingstone and John Bunyan by Mrs. M. Barnes, Mrs. E. Lemon and Mrs. V. Ferguson. Mrs. E. Burnett led in the scripture reading. Mrs. A. Dowswell of Stouffville brought a splendid message. Mrs. V. Wagg and Mrs. D. Burnett were hostesses. Honor has come to one of our local lads, Mr. Robert Barnes, who was chosen from his division at Cornwallis to be one of Mrs. Stephens of Toronto was visiting with Mrs. Joe Hoover and the girls.

Visitors at the Pete Barrie home last week included Mrs. A. Duncan and Mr. Doug. Mrs. J. McGowan and Mr. Mrs. J. Eakin from Toronto.

Jim Eddington, Gordon Holden and their wives had a trip to Crystal Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Baxter are away up on Manitoulin Island where Truman is building a cottage.

Miss Carole Hoover and Carol Skinner are at Miriam in Gravenhurst for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kerswell visited at the Winn Home at the top of Church St. on Sunday.

A towel shower was held at Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crowder's home in honour of their granddaughter's coming marriage. She is Miss Barbara Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jennings have been on holidays at Hawk Lake and visited in Sarnia, calling on Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Baines.

Mrs. Coultice and Mrs. Wilson visited at the Lehman home, Church St., last weekend, along with Mrs. Brooks and son Kenney from Guelph. Mrs. Wilson is a cousin of Mrs. Lehman and Mrs. Coultice is her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lickorish, with Mr. and Mrs. R. Parker and son Bobby of Mimico, enjoyed a trip down the St. Lawrence seaway and missed nothing of the wonders of the new project. They returned by Ottawa, Carleton Place and Peterboro.

Four cousins, their fathers all being brothers, and who had been girls together in this district, have been visiting in Stouffville and at Mrs. Allen Manderston's at Balsam. They are Mrs. O. Lehman, Miss Bernice Jones of Invermay, Sask., Mrs. V. Cook, Phoenix, Arizona, and Mrs. Manderston.

The honor guard for the Queen's tour and the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Local and Personal Happenings

Garden Party— Watch for the St. Patrick's Garden Party, August 15, 1959, at Markham Fair Grounds.

Mrs. W. R. Wees, conc. 2, Uxbridge, noted novelist and world traveller, will leave in August on an extended trip to China.

Residents in the west end of town were amazed last week when the large helicopter, owned by Mr. Alan T. Lowe of Unionville, landed in a vacant lot near Hamilton's Auto Supply Store. Mr. Lowe, owner of the Commercial Sand and Gravel pit at Baker Hill, purchased some parts for his machines and left—straight up.

The home of Mrs. Joseph Gayman on Main St., near Church St. S., has been sold to Mr. Dan Hall of Stouffville. Mrs. Gayman will make her home in Ridgeway at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brillinger. This dwelling was formerly a double store some thirty-five years ago. It was remodelled into a double residence by Noah Baker who resided there at one time. The east portion was purchased a number of years ago by Mr. Telf. Renie.

Miss Erma Dowswell, a staff teacher at the Charles Wesley Public School, Toronto, accompanied by another teacher friend left on Sunday, June 28th by plane for an extended trip to the British Isles and Scandinavian countries. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dowswell and Mr. and Mrs. George Dowswell watched the two girls embark from Malton airport. They plan to return early in September.

DANCING—every Saturday night, 9 o'clock, to Rudy Spratt and his Skyliners, Cedar Beach, Musselman's Lake.

Friends will be pleased to know that Mr. S. S. Ball who was recently in Newmarket hospital, has returned to his home in Stouffville.

Mrs. Russel Crosier and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weames and family of London, Ont., attended the Crosier Reunion at Memorial Park, Stouffville, on Saturday last and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Crosier and family of town, the Weames returning home on Sunday while Mrs. Crosier is here visiting with the Crosier family.

Dominion Day, July 1st, was a very pleasant occasion for S. J. and Elizabeth Foote, conc. 7, Whitchurch. The well-known residents were at home to about fifty Foote cousins from Newcastle, Uxbridge, Beeton, Richmond Hill, Toronto and Stouffville. Among the visitors was a sister, Pearl Foote Whiteley of Mission, Texas. She is spending the summer with her brother and sister.

Mr. Stan Hall, conc. 7, Whitchurch, was the lucky winner of the copper-guessing contest sponsored by the Stouffville Horseshoe Club. Mr. Hall was only 7 coppers short of the correct figure of 3.51. He guessed 3.44. The money jar has been located in Schell's Food Market Store for a number of months. The winner took a $500 prize and donated the remainder to the Horseshoe Club. The money will be used to purchase covers for the pits.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Phoenix, Arizona, called on Mrs. Cook's cousin, Mrs. O. Lehman, Church St., on Sunday, also on Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barrie. The Cook family were former Ashburn residents, and neighbors of the Barries. The Cook family left seven years ago to make their home in the South.

Mr. Howard Malloy was a visitor in town last week. He enjoyed a few days at the home of his son, Mr. Wm. Malloy, Market Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pilkey of Victoria St. celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary on Monday, July 13th.

It is not expected that the addition to the Stouffville District High School will now be built until next summer, since the by-law approving the expenditure has yet to pass the Ontario Municipal Board, and a couple of months would still be required to commence construction.

BINGO—Friday evenings, 8:00 p.m. Valuable Cash Prizes and Merchandise. Sponsored by Cedar Beach Community Association, Musselman's Lake.

Rick Wedseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wedseloff, O'Brien Avenue, was successful in completing his Grade 11 year at Carleton College, Toronto. He plans to return to the school again in September. During the vacation period he is serving as a swimming instructor at Camp Kandalore, north of Minden.

Mrs. Feasby, who has been assisting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Button during Mrs. Button's poor health, was taken suddenly ill last week and removed to Scarborough Hospital. Mrs. Button is presently in the Brierbush Hospital.

New Police Booklet—A new booklet entitled, "Yours for Safety" has just been issued by the Ontario Provincial Police. The new book sets forth the work of the force, its fine record in crime and accident prevention throughout the province. The Ontario Provincial Police head, by Commissioner W. H. Clark has grown to be one of the largest and best-equipped police forces in the world. Its major functions as outlined, are to maintain traffic patrol on the Queen's Highways, to police all of rural Ontario, to enforce provisions of the Liquor License and Liquor Control Acts and to maintain a Criminal Investigation Bureau.

WATSON REUNION—The Watson re-union picnic was held in the Stouffville Park last Sunday afternoon when sixty-five were there to enjoy a social time together. Due to the kindness of Mr. Arthur Latham in providing the picnic tables shelter for our Park, we will be able to enjoy our supper during the rain. Relatives there from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, Avonmore; Mr. David Watson, Monckland; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moth of Oshawa and daughters; Mrs. Vivian Ambrose and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Moore and family; Mr. George Watson and daughters; Mrs. Carl Lamb and Mrs. Willbee and girls of Mt. Albert; Misses Lillian and Jean Dowswell, Toronto; Mr. Everett Watson of Whitby, and daughters Mrs. Jack Linsley and Mr. and Mrs. Wade, Port Union; Mr. and Mrs. William Cassie, Uxbridge; Mr. Arthur Little and Mr. Archie Little, Agincourt; Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Wilson and family, Whitby; Mr. and Mrs. James Peddie and Fred of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Alderson, Clarendon.

Those from Stouffville and vicinity included the Bacon, Dowswell, Wideman and Watson families. The officers for 1960 are as follows: Pres. Mr. Dudley Wilson, Whitby; Secretary, Miss Lillian Dowswell; Treas. Mr. Arthur Dowswell.

Stouffville Municipal Council has agreed to an increase in the Stouffville Cemetery budget of $500 to take care of an increase in the cost of caretaking by Mr. Fred Pilkey of this amount. Salary on his new contract will be $2,000. The Commission expressed considerable satisfaction with Mr. Pilkey's work and favored the increase.

Mrs. Sam Roberts, 17th Ave., gave a very unique, bridal shower for Nancy Reid, on Tuesday evening, June 30, at both Nancy and her fiancé are enthusiastic campers, the shower was centred around the camping scene. The many lovely gifts were placed in a large silver canoe, with smaller canoes hanging from the ceiling, which when tipped up, showering the bride-to-be with rose petals. After a lovely lunch served by Marian and Helen Roberts, Linda Saunders and Barb. Miller, Nancy cut into a special cake, decorated with a tent, canoe and camp-fire, made by the very ingenious baker at the Stouffville Bakery Ltd.

BEAT THE ANNUAL INSECT INVASION with CO-OP INSECTICIDES

For more beautiful flowers and productive garden—
 CO-OP Derris Dust
 CO-OP 2 1/2% Aldrin Powder
 CO-OP Potato and Tomato Dust
 CO-OP Flower and Garden Dust

For more comfortable, healthful living
 CO-OP Household Spray
 CO-OP Household Insect Bombs
 CO-OP Dual-Purpose Insect Bombs. (For home and garden use.)

For livestock protection
 CO-OP Livestock Bomb
 CO-OP Livestock Spray
 CO-OP Barn Spray
 CO-OP Insecticides are formulated to control the insect menace to your home and on livestock and are available for every home, farm and garden use. Visit your CO-OP Chemical Centre.

AT YOUR COOP STORE
Stouffville Co-Op
 PHONE 269 or 122

Summer Weddings

GIBSON—LEASK

On Saturday, June 27th, 1959, Rev. C. E. Fockler of Markham, Ontario, officiated at a quiet marriage ceremony of his great niece, Lois Eileen Leask, daughter of Mrs. Leask and the late Robert Leask of Greenbank, to Murray Clements Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gibson of Port Perry.

Mrs. Margaret Carr, sister of the bride, and Mr. Charles Lown both of Port Perry, were their attendants. After the ceremony the bride and groom were entertained at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tomlinson, Weston, Ont.

On their return trip from Ohio and other American States, they will reside in their new home at Port Perry.

THOMAS—PASCOE

Amidst a setting of white peonies and yellow primroses in Greenwood United Church, Jean Grace Pascoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Pascoe of Greenwood, and James Herbert Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thomas of Markham, were united in marriage on Saturday, June 20, 1959, with Rev. T. H. Fleetham officiating. Mr. Alan Clark played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Thomas who sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina gown of white brocade peau de soie fashioned on princess lines with scalloped short sleeves and beaded sweetheart neckline. A matching beaded headress held her shoulder-length veil. Her only jewelry was a pearl choker, a gift of the groom. She carried a nosegay of Aalsmaer red roses and stephanotis.

Miss Doris Woodland was maid of honour in yellow crystal charm. Miss Jacqueline Pascoe, niece of the bride, was junior attendant wearing yellow eyelid organdy over crystal charm. Their gowns were identically styled to that of the bride. They wore matching headress and mittens and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and tallisman roses.

Mr. Donald Thomas, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushering were Mr. Robert Thomas, brother of the groom and Mr. Allan Pascoe, brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the church hall. The bride's mother received, wearing a gown of dusty rose silk organza with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations and cornflowers. She was assisted by the groom's mother who was dressed in powder blue organza over taffeta with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

For the wedding trip to the United States, the bride wore a powder blue linen suit with white accessories and a gardenia and stephanotis corsage. The couple will live at 381 Rupert Street, Stouffville.

Guests were present from Toronto, Scarborough, Markham, Highland Creek, Brooklin, Whitby, Oshawa, Pickering, Clarendon and Stouffville.

Brougham Centennial
 Two of the oldest ex-pupils present at the celebration are pictured here. Mrs. N. Hubbard (left) is 78 and Mr. F. Brown is 83.

"QUALITY" "SERVICE"
 Ticket No. 38713 Winner of $25.00.
Allan D. Wideman of Unionville R.R.1
 Many thanks to Reeve Gar Lehman for making the draw Saturday morning.

Insecticides and Fungicides
 For Lawn and Garden
FERTILIZER and FERTILIZER
 Materials
 Golden Vigoro with Chlordane, Golden Vigoro, So-Green, Evergreen, Vigoro Plant Food.
STIVER BROS.
 Phone Stouffville 45

SHOP HERE GREAT
 where the savings are

KLEENEX 200'S OR 300'S 2 BOXES 35c
Peanut Butter Royal York 16-oz. ICE BOX JAR 35c
Sweet Mixed Pickles ROSE 16-oz. Jar 31c
Brunswick Sardines 1/4's 3 for 27c
FRESH BEEF LIVER Lb. 49c
SLICED SIDE BACON Lb. 49c
 Fully Cooked Shankless Skinless
Cryovac Hams MAPLE LEAF Lb. 69c

Schell's Food Market
 FREE PARKING PHONE 220 FREE DELIVERY

Attention fishermen: Sea-Horse Season NOW OPEN

Get a line on JOHNSON DYNATAICAL DESIGN

Goes better with your boat... makes your boat better. See our new, 3, 5 1/2 and 10 h.p. fishing Sea-Horses—prize catches of the season.

GET THEM AT Hendricks Hardware
 Phone 600