WEDDINGS

Tall standards of blue and white delphiniums decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Tran, Claremont, for the marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Doris, to John Charles Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams of Tunstead, Norfolk, England. The double ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. C. P. Shapter of Locust Hill United Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon organza over silk, styled with surplice bodice and very full skirt with a crushed cummerbund, ending in a butterfly bow at back. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a sequined tiara and she carried a semi-cascade of blue and white carnations. She wore a single strand of pearls and earrings, the gift of the groom.

Attending the bride was her sister, Betty Jeanne, who wore a ballerina-length gown in pale blue organza over silk styled with bateau neckline embroidered bodice and trimmed with velvet bows and belt. She wore matching blue flowered headband, shoes and gloves, and carried a semi-cascade of pink and white carnations. She also wore a single strand of pearls and earrings, the gift of the groom.

Mr. John Pollard of Stouffville was best man. The reception was held at the Masonic Hall, Stouffville, where the guests were received by the Mrs. E.
