

Knowledge could save a life

Knowledge of proper meth- two Stouffville lifeguards, are four young Stouffville ael Brillinger, 7; and Jody Community Swimming Pool ods in applying artificial res- Joan Harper, 14 and Mardele boys, (left to right): Craig Holden, 7. Mr. A.H. Williams, has stressed the need for in piration is depicted here by Willis, 15. Watching intently Schell, 8; Rod Schell, 6; Mich- Manager of the Stouffville creased instruction

Two-car crash on townline west, takes life of Toronto man died in the Toronto General was hit broadside by a west Hospital on Thursday after bound vehicle driven by Frank noon following a two-car crash Mischka of R.R. 42, -Uxbridge. at the intersection of conc. 6. The driver of the Uxbridge car Markham and the Markham- was not seriously injured, but Whitchurch townline. Gerald his wife, Anne, 51, was admitted Racine, Keele Street, was ad- to the Uxbridge Cottage Hosmitted to the York County, Hos- pital for treatment. pital, Newmarket, but was later Officers from the Vandorf De- which the Sissons' purchased in transferred to Toronto when his tachment of the O.P.P. said that condition worsened. He suffered the 6th concession stop sign was was actually required but they a fractured skull and a broken partially hidden by a dense fog wished it to extend the full left arm.

passenger in a northbound auto driven by Daniel McRae, 24, of lice, the McRae car failed to police arrived.

A 27 year old Toronto man stop at the townline road and bank. Other accidents at the length of the pool to shelter it The accident victim was a scene were possibly averted by from northwest winds. Contemlocal truck drivers who set up Willowdale. According to po. flares along the highway until simple lines and exposed wood born in Towbridge, Wiltshire, Council felt it had no right to

Reeve Wm. Clark in head-on crash

Reeve Wm. L. Clark of Markham Township suffered back New fire equipment and chest injuries on Wednesday morning when his car was involved in a head-on crash at the intersection of Kirk's sideroad and No. 48 Highway. According to police, Reeve, Clark was negotiating a left hand turn | cently obtained for use of Stouffville attended the scene hours.

this Thursday evening.

Man killed

for Vivian Forest

It is expected that five new 1,000-gallon water tanks, when a southbound auto, driven county forests in the Lake Simby Kenneth Morrison, 77, of 150 coe district, will help consider-Dowling Ave., Toronto slammed ably in making water available into his vehicle. The Morrison quickly in protecting plantation car skidded for a distance of 78 areas from fire. The tanks are feet on the pavement. The driver round in shape, approximately suffered a gash on his head. Nel- 12 feet long. When using a high ther party required 'hospital pressure, low volume pump the thousand gallon water supply Police Chief Frank Edwards will last approximately three when both Markham Township . The tanks with mounting arcruisers were tied up on other rangement fit on 3-ton trucks, and in one case, at Vivian Forest headquarters at Ballantrae Stouffville municipal council the tank is permanently loaded

Local construction firm gets notable publicity

Ken Betz Construction Co. of Stouffville received notable pub licity last week when the current August issue of Canadian Homes & Gardens featured a swimming pool and home addition on the front multi-colour

The home where the pool was built is at Box Grove and be longs to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sissons. Lying along the pool is a beautiful post and beam addition to the century-old home 1950. The addition is larger than porary cream, blue and dark brown, the addition with its room and adjoining sewing vives. room-study at one end, and a big living room at the other. dent of Stouffville for the past Crisp. gained considerable prominence with the Stouffville United thing has been done to influence in the past few years for its Church. He was in his 78th the C.N.R. in a change of locaconstruction of swimming pools year. and is presently undertaking Besides his wife, he is sur- of the united ratepayers has a pool as far away as New- vived by two sons, Fred of Ni- made a direct appeal to both foundland. The extensive Tam- agara Falls, Frank of Tow- Federal Transport Minister Geo. O-Shanter Club curling rink bridge, England, and two step- Hees and C.N.R. President Donand bowling alley is one of the daughters, Lillian (Mrs. Ben ald Gordon. In addition Mr. many nearby accomplishments, Talbot) of Stouffville, and Elsie Clark was a member of a delebesides pools in Stouffville, New- (Mrs. James Carl). of Toronto. gation that travelled to Ottawa market and a host of other ity to get water on any fire out- King. break quickly, particularly in these high hazard coniferous plantations, is extremely important and department staff feel that these new large-capacity will convene in regular session on a truck together with other mobile tanks will be a further

Late Fred Woodward was school crossing guard payers group at its own ex-tion. A very capable committee

York County Engineer A. J

for the paving of Bayview Avenue from Steeles Avenue ot

No. 7 Highway has been let to the lowest bidder, the K. J. Beamish Construction Co. Ltd. Thornhill, with a contract price

'Five tenders were received, the highest bid in the amount of $237,189, coming from the

The contract price covers the grading of Bayview Avenue; putting on 15 inches of gravel and four inches of asphalt paving, with grade improvement at so that work may commence on this stretch of Bayview Avenue

"next and the following year."

Dufferin Construction Co.

to get

of $208,025.

Stoufiville's good-natured Public School crossing guard is dead. Mr. Fred. Woodward, Further Church Street, passed away suddenly on Friday morning. Death has been attributed to a heart Betitions

The deceased had become a useless cross-walk adjacent to the Summit-View Public School. For the past five years, rain or shine, has turned down a request from he helped the young children the Doncaster ratepayers that known as "Pop" Woodward to be asked to prepare a petition ly and genial personality has opposing the southern location won him a host of friends over of the C.N.R. line. The ratepaythe years. This relationship in ers planned to circulate the peticluded both young and old alike. tion and secure some 10,000

The late Mr. Woodward was names. beams contrasts with the white England. He was one of a fam. have Mr. Lucas prepare a petiasbestos siding of the old ily of eleven children. Three tion for a ratepayers group a members have passed away public expense. "It would be fa-The addition is mainly for ad- since Christmas. His wife, the; tal for council to employ its ults, with spacious master bed- former Annie Holyoake, sur solicitor to do work for a rate-

The deceased had been a resi- pense", contended Clerk I The local building firm has twelve years. He was identified Reeve W. L. Clark felt every-

The funeral service was con- to see Mr. Hees personally. The ducted by Rev. Douglas Davis reeve questioned the value of Betz workmen are at present from the chapel of L. E. O'Neill, a further petition in light of all working on the Stouffville post- Stouffville, on Monday after that has already been done. office and Bank of Commerce noon with interment in the Stouffville Cemetery. The pallbearers were: James Sartin, fire equipment, in readiness to Abe Lehman, Bill Talbot, Frank BOVVIEW move quickly to any fire. Abil- Yake, Percy McKay and Basil > pavement Markham Twp. Council has postponed any further meetings until August 24th, except in case of emergency. Rettle reports that the contract was caused to the Principal's left untouched. Footprints were offices in the Stouffville District plainly visible in room nine High School and in the Orcnard where the men had entered the Park Public School during the building. They were discovered in Stouffville ing. Although the motive was bury. P.C. Robert Hart of the burglary, the thieves were Ontario Provincial Police Van-forced to leave the premises dorf, inspected the scene, ac. Aug. 19 and 20 forced to leave the premises dorf, inspected the scene, ac empty-handed. At the High School, the would- Koughnet of Stoutville.

be robbers gained entry through A small stone was used boiler room. Valuable typewrit- tion.

Damage estimated at $400 ers and adding machines were companied by P.C. Hugh Vanschools, estimate of damage set at $400

a small window in room 9. The break a window in the rear of break-in was discovered by the the Orchard Park school. As caretaker, Mr. Ira Burkholder, at the High School, the Princh at 6:30 a.m. The door to the pal's desk and filing cabinet principal's office had been forc- were thoroughly searched. The ed open. Filing cabinets and cabinet was forced open with a desks were ransacked in a fruit- claw hammer. The break-in was less search for money. Burned discovered by the caretaker, Mr. out matches were strewn about | Geo. Byer. A number of articles the floor. Much of the damage were sent to Newmarket to be was caused by a pair of shears | fingerprinted. P.C. VanKoughthat were removed from the net is conducting the investiga-

Repairman falls 145ft. from television tower

A 33 year old Toronto man Electric Co. Cpl. W. E. Warner fell 145 feet to his death on Fri- of the O.P.P. Detachment day when he slipped through a Whitby conducted the investigatrap door opening in a platform tion. An autopsy was performed that skirts the top of the Bell at the Oshawa General Hospital. Telephone's micro-wave television tower, conc. 7, Uxbridge Twp. Auriel Richard of 453 Ruxton Road was killed instant. DVCTITTEE ly. His body was discovered at; the base of the tower by another Crone Blocks employee, Herbert Snelgrove, 81 Yorkview Drive, Willowdale.

The victim had been repairing TUILC the huge antennae on the north side of the structure. He appar- Traffic on Highway No. 48 building permits issued in all.

Markham Township Council tion. The huge antennae are highly property of the K. J. Beamish to proceed. P.C. Bob Hood of sensitive and adjustments are Const. Co. keep the mechanism function but the cab of the crane was caused some damage to local telently did not see the opening in had to be re-routed for almost the platform as he walked along two hours on Thursday morning was pleased to see that the ratio the steel ramp. His body struck when a 30-ton crane overturned building was holding up to a one of the steel cross-members while removing stumps adja- very good percentage as comabout half way to the ground, cent to the Murray Little pro-pared to-residential. The impact made a six inch de perty. The operator, James Marpression-in the gravel founda- ritt of Ravenshoe, leaped from the cab as the fifty foot boom was Marritt's first accident in The relay station is used for lopped over his machine. A: 20 years of road work. both long-distance telephone weak hook on the end of the ca-. An emergency roadway had calls and as a television booster. ble has been blamed for the to be used through the west across the highway. He was township Solicitor J. D. Lucas It is known as a T.D.2 tower, accident. The crane was the ditch to permit highway traffig > necessary from time to time to . The operator escaped injury the scene. Although the boom ing properly. The deceased was badly dented. All air hoses on ephone lines, it missed high

Gladiolus show

The Toronto District Gladlolus Society and the Stouffville Horticultural Society are sponsoring the Canadian International Gladiolus Show which is to be held in Stouffville Arena on August 19 and 20. This is-Canada's largest Gladiolus Show and exhibits come from all parts of Canada and the United States. Added attractions include demonstrations of corsage making, flower arranging and competitive basket arranging for men only. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to come and enjoy this display of bloom and very fine arrangements. Regardless of how many "glads" you grow, there is a class for you. Holders of tickets purchased now are eligible for a lucky draw, as follows: wrist watch, oil painting, table lamp. Tickets may be purchased from M. Mertens and Jean Pipher.

MARKHAM TP. BLDG. QUARTER MILLION

Building during the month of July in Markham Twp. is valued at $285,650.00, the building inspector's report revealed this week. Of this amount, $181,950 was .for new residential construction, $59,500 for industrial and commercial and $41,500 for public buildings. There were 34

Reeve Clark stated that he Markham Twp. Police attended an employee with the General the machine were broken. It powered hydro wires by inches.

His tirst hole-in-one

Mr. Ken Laushway, possibly a five iron. yds. He dropped the ball with Laushway are left-handers.

scored the second hole-in-one to Only a couple of weeks ago,

Mr.: Laushway got his big one Stouffville's most activegolfer, This is the second hole-in-one Monday afternoon while playto be scored on this new course. ing in a foursome with Mrs. be chalked up at the Markham Mr. Ted Topping of Stouffville Laushway and Mr. and Mrs.

and witnessed the feat.

Car is tossed 200 ft. in an early morning car-truck collision at Goodwood

A shovel operator at the dead man, Mervin Campbell of Stouffville Sand and Gravel pit; Atherley and another employee, was instantly killed, one mile Donald Jarvis, 24, of Canningeast of Goodwood on Wednes- ton, came on the scene minutes day morning when his car after the collision but did not of Seebright, Ont.; was pinned ed across the highway directly in the wreckage of his auto; into the path of his eastbound which was tossed nearly 200, vehicle. Three crates of eggs partment has ordered an feet by the impact. Donald Wal- were strewn on to the roadside quest into the death of Walter ton, 21, driver of the transport, from the truck. Wreckage from Weich, 9, who drowned when held, despite complaints by the escaped injury. The truck was the car was scattered over the owned by Edward Ferguson of pavement for more than 100 ft. Scarboro. An inquest has been! The 1956 model Meteor was alordered.

the accident. An uncle of the gated

There were no eye witnesses tachment of the O.P.P. Investi- be held into the lad's death.

smashed into a truck on No. 47 see it occur. The truck driver Highway. Dalton MacNeal, 19, told police that MacNeal swerv- 5010 LONE UIVVIIII The Attorney General's De I tion into the death of the North!

tipped from a raft at Island Lake on Sunday, July 26.

announced no inquest would be No. 7 Highway to Richmond Hill boy's father that the death was not accidental.

Following police investiga- teen-agers.

the railway crossing south o No. 7. Highway. Paving will be 22 feet wide (hot asphalt pavement). The grade itself will be 50 feet between the ditches. Mr. Rettle said plans are go-York boy, assistant Crown At- ing forward to acquire land for torney Arleigh Armstrong again the widening of Bayview from most torn apart by the impact. Newmarket Crown Attorney's who could not swim, was tipped The county requires a 100 foot Golf & Country Club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the other was insured at the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, Golfer made a hole-in-one on the same Chan Nolan, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, the country club, golfer made a hole-in-one on the same club, golfer made a P.C. Mallon of the Whitby De-office had said no inquiry would from the raft at the lake, two right of way; at present there Leushway's feat was performed 8th green, using the same from Toronto, were miles north of Stouffville, by is only a 66 foot width on Bay on the par 3 eighth, hole, 185 Both Mr. Topping and Mr. standing quite near the green