As a special Friday afternoon event for children, Markham Fair is sponsoring a Pony Party, under the capable direction of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Durant, with close to $2000.00 in prizes.

We thought some of the children of Cedar Grove would find this interesting. This is open to boys and girls 15 years and under, with a horse or pony (with or without saddle).

Speed is not necessary, agility and control are more important. A try-out of these races (such as potato race, slow race, egg race, etc.) will be held at Capriole Farm, residence of Mr. and Mrs. Durant, 3 miles north of Markham on Saturday, Aug. 15, starting at 12 o'clock noon.

Bring your horses or ponies along and have some fun. This is also open for parents or any one interested.

Prize winners at the Euchre Monday night were—Ladies 1st, Betty Swayn; 2nd, Mrs. Oldham; Consolation, Mrs. Cec. Latham; Gents 1st, Walt Brignall; 2nd, Mr. George Freeman; Cons. Norm Jarvis. Travelling prizes went to Mrs. Fred Marquis and George Carr.

Congratulations to Mrs. Robt. Milroy who was 89 on Sunday. Dates to Remember—

Sunday, Aug. 9 — Mothers' Club Family Picnic at Cedar-ena. Come in afternoon; supper from 6.30 p.m.

Saturday, Aug. 15 — Pony Party at Mr. and Mrs. Durant's, Capriole Farm.

Mr. Dan Hall, on leave from Trenton Air Force Base, was a weekend visitor in Stouffville.

Reeve and Mrs. Gar Lehman, along with son Bill, have been enjoying a motor trip to Eastern Ontario and Quebec.

This issue of the Tribune, containing many mid-summer merchants' display advertisements, is being delivered to all the summer cottagers at Preston's Lake, Musselman's Lake, Shadow Lake and Island Lake. Many of these summer residents visit Stouffville weekly for holiday supplies. We welcome them to our town and trust that they take advantage of the big mid-summer bargains being offered by our storekeepers in almost every line.

WEDDINGS

WIDEMAN — GROVE

A happy marriage was solemnized on July 4 at Wideman's Mennonite Church when Pearl Grove, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Grove, Markham, became the bride of Mr. Murray Wideman, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wideman, Almira, Ont.

The bride was given away by her father and mother, and Rev. Elmer D. Grove, Baden, Ont., brother of the bride, officiated.

Miss Katharine Wanbold, of Markham, Ont., acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Ken Reesor, Unionville, was groomsmen.

Ushers were Mr. Lorne Wideman, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Herb Reesor, brother-in-law of the groom.

Inspirational wedding songs were rendered by the male quartet composed of Merlin Grove, (brother of the bride), David Reesor, Willis Hoover and Elvon Ramer, at the church, and later, during the reception, at Parkside Youth Centre.

The happy couple left from home amid showers of confetti, for a short honeymoon in Montreal and other points north.

DAVIDSON — JOHNSON

Stouffville United-Missionary Church was nicely decorated with standards of gladioli and baskets of large shasta daisies and delphinium, on Saturday, July 18, 1959, at 3 o'clock for the wedding of Carol Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Claremont, Ont., to Mr. Harold Leonard Davidson, Ajax, Ont. Rev. D. Sargeant performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lace bridal gown accented with pearls, sequins and featured a scalloped neckline. The scallop motif repeated in panels of lace over a ruffled tulle skirt. Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown of rhinestones and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white mums.

The matron of honour was Mrs. Wm. Linton who wore a gown of mauve silk organza over taffeta featuring a harem skirt, cummerbund and large bow at back. She wore a matching open crowned picture hat and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow mums and white carnations. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Graeme Mason and Miss Grace Jackson, cousin of the bride, wore similar gowns in a soft shade of green with matching picture hats and carried cascades of pink and white carnations and gladioli.

Flower girl was Miss Helen Johnson, sister of the bride, wearing a floor length gown of yellow taffeta with bow at back featuring a yellow silk organza overskirt trimmed with yellow bows and matching headband. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Master Kenny Davidson, brother of the groom, was ring bearer. Best man was William Linton and ushers were David Davidson, brother of the groom and Gordon Johnson.

Miss Bertha Stouffer played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Nell Petty, cousin of the bride, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

The reception was held at the Parkside Youth Centre where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a dress of pink lace over satin with matching hat and white accessories and wore a corsage of blue mums and pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore champagne lace over taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of blue delphiniums and yellow roses.

For a wedding trip in the States, the bride chose an ensemble of rose flowered organza over satin with rose and white petal hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of sweetheart roses.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside at 653 St. Marie Street, Collingwood, Ont.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Miss Margaret McKenzie of Toronto was a recent visitor at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Ross Winterstein.

The contract has been let and plans are being made to erect a new barn on the farm of Ross Winterstein, sixth con. of Whitchurch, to replace the barn destroyed by fire two weeks ago. The type of barn that will be erected is known as "loose-housing". The structure will accommodate from fifty to seventy-five milch cows.
