

Late Summer Weddings

O'CONNOR - MATTHEWS

Standards of pink and white gladioli formed a pretty setting in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, on August 29, 1959, for the marriage of Mary Ursula Matthews and Dr. Raymond Denis O'Connor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Matthews, Kingston, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. O'Connor, Pickering. Monsignor J. P. Sullivan officiated at the marriage. Mr. L. Noury played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mr. A. McC...

into a full hemline. They carried nosegays of yellow and white shasta daisies and turquoise baby mums.

Mr. Morgan O'Connor, Pickering, was groomsmen for his brother. Ushering were Dr. Terence O'Connor, Messrs Maurice O'Connor, Paul Matthews and Michael Matthews.

Following the ceremony, an outdoor reception was held at home, Brewer's Mills. They were the home of the bride's parents, Brewer's Mills. The bride's train became transformed into a bustle back at this time, and her mother received the guests attended in a beige pink lace dress with royal blue and natural accessories. A corsage of yellow roses completed her ensemble. The groom's mother assisted wearing a pink-rose lace dress with black and white accessories, and a corsage of white roses and pink stephanotis.

The couple left by plane for a honeymoon in Bermuda. For travelling, the bride chose a pink and green cotton suit with beige and brown accessories, and a corsage of satin tinted fall leaves with a yellow orchid.

The bride is a graduate in Household Science from Macdonald Institute, Guelph, and was formerly on the staff of Trenton High School. The groom is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College and is in partnership with Dr. J. R. Smith in Stouffville. The couple will make their home at 404 Elm Drive, Stouffville.

Guests were present from Washington, D.C., Vancouver, B.C., Jackson, Michigan, Birmingham, Mich., New York City, Goderich, Chatham, Guelph, St. Catharines, Bradford, St. Thomas, Shelburne, Montreal, Aurora, Stouffville, Toronto, Pickering, Trenton and Kingston.

MARSH-COLLIS - RICHARDS

On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5th, a wedding of quiet simplicity was solemnized in Brown's Corners United Church when Barbara Lois, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Richards of Buttonville and Derek Marsh-Collis, son of Mrs. M. E. Marsh-Collis and the late W. Marsh-Collis of Northampton, England, made their marriage vows before Rev. W. G. Burton. Organ music was played by Miss Dorothy Hood, and the altar of the church was beautiful with standards of pink and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an ice blue brocade taffeta gown fashioned with abbreviated sleeves and a Sabrina neckline cut to a deep V at the back. A crisscross sash of nylon marquisette emphasized the snug fitting bodice and the bouffant waltz length skirt. On her head was a small hat of matching chiffon petals with diamante and veiling accent, and blue and silver shoes and mittens completed her costume. The flowers she carried were a fan of white gladioli with blue feathered carnations.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Douglas Wright of Toronto, was her only attendant, and her orange ice dress and accessories were similar to the bride's. Her flowers were a plume bouquet of white gladioli and orange gladioli tips.

Mr. Howard Perrigo was best man, and Mr. Douglas Wright ushers.

At a reception which followed at The Four Winds, Mrs. Richards received her guests wearing a pink and white dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Later the bride and groom left for a Muskoka honeymoon, the bride travelling in a sheath dress of figured wool challis in autumn tones, with brown jacket, cloche hat of taupe velvet and feather trim and matching accessories. Her flowers were a cluster of tawny gold roses and orange gladioli tips.

Entertaining for Miss Barb... ara Richards prior to her marriage, were Mrs. James Hood and Mrs. A. Terry at Mrs. Terry's home - a miscellaneous shower; Mrs. Douglas Wright, Toronto, a kitchen shower; and Mrs. T. F. Richards and Miss Irene Richards, a miscellaneous shower.

McWHIRTER - RUSSELL

Pink gladioli and ferns decorated the chancel of Victoria Square United Church on Saturday afternoon of last week when Carol Elizabeth, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, Arnel Heights, and Berry Gilbert McWhirter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McWhirter of Gormley were united in marriage.

Rev. A. F. Binnington performed the ceremony and Mrs. Coral Barker played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of misty white net banded with Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice with its portrait neckline and short sleeves, was accented with lace, and the graceful crinolined skirt, fashioned with a deep flounce, swept to a slight chapel train. A dainty headdress caught her embroidered tulle fingertip veil, and she carried red roses and white carnations.

Miss Sandra Russell was maid of honour for her sister, and the bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Miskimmin. They wore similar waltz length dresses, in shades of delphinium blue nylon brocade on princess lines, with matching feather bandeaux and accessories. Their flowers were crescents of pink gladioli flowers.

Attending the groom was his brother, Mr. Douglas McWhirter, and the ushers were Mr. Eldon Brillinger and Mr. Arnold Steckley.

The reception which followed was held at the Buttonville W.I. Hall, where Mrs. Russell received wearing a brocade taffeta sheath of ciel blue with matching three-quarter length coat and small hat of blue chiffon flowers. Her corsage was pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. McWhirter assisted Mrs. Russell wearing a moss green crepe afternoon dress with matching hat and accessories and corsage of yellow carnations.

When the bridal couple left for a motor trip to Montreal, Ottawa and other northern points, the bride travelled in a pale blue suit with white hat and gloves and patent accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. McWhirter will live at Concord.

Lecture - Flower Show

Do not miss hearing Dr. Ives of Stayner who will be giving an illustrated talk on "Flowers and Birds" in the United Church Basement on Monday, Sept. 14, at 8 o'clock. There will also be a Flower Show in connection with this meeting.

Labor Day holiday saw little activity in town although quite a number visited the park and a good many of the small fry enjoyed their final day in the pool before school opening. Traffic returning to the city was divided between Sunday and Monday evenings and was no more than on an average weekend.

The expected traffic congestion on the Don Mills Road, Monday evening failed to materialize, according to Sgt. Bill Shearn of Markham Twp. Police. Sgt. Shearn informed the Tribune that the majority of weekend vacationers returned home to Toronto on Sunday night or early Monday afternoon. Police have noted that this trend has been apparent on previous long holidays. Drivers have elected to return during the daylight hours rather than endure the hazards of traffic tie-ups after dark.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Badgerow from Syracuse, N.Y., were visitors at the home of Miss Ruth Badgerow during the holiday weekend. Mr. Badgerow enjoyed the facilities of the local swimming pool while in town and commented favorably on our well-kept park. He himself has had a good deal to do with swimming instruction and handled Red Cross instruction for more than twenty-five years.

United Church W.M.S.

Quiet music played by Mrs. B. Sanders preceded the first Autumn meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church, Thursday, Sept. 3rd.

The Fall Rally will be held at Sandford, September 15th, registration at 9:30 a.m. After the business session, Mrs. Crouch dedicated the offering.

An invitation to Cherrywood was received and accepted, to visit their Auxiliary Sept. 23 at 2 p.m.

Rev. Mr. Davis led in worship with the words from St. Luke Chapter 9, verse 27, "I will follow wherever you go." Jesus answered, "Foxes have holes but the Son of Man hath nowhere to lay his head."

As we begin the fall work in the church, we are sowing the seed which will bring the harvest, and the servants of God will have their names written there. Mrs. Crouch gave a most informative introduction to the new Study Book, "Africa Disturbed," and said the key word in Africa today is "Disturbed." But it is a healthy restlessness, she said.

Mr. Bert Bell left by train on Sunday evening for Saskatchewan where he will visit his brothers and sisters.

Mr. Henry Slack has accepted the position of school crossing guard on Main Street at the Summit View Public School.
