

VICTORIA SQUARE NEWS

Mrs. W. Sandlo
Despite the hot weather the main order of the day the first part of last week was the return to school for the children and teachers who had had ten weeks of holidays. For some it was the beginning of school for the first time, while for others it meant a higher grade. We trust that the children will enjoy their school year and will work hard to succeed.
At S.S. 7 school the Beginners were: Stephen McMullen, Shirley Heise, Marlin Heise, Jerry Collins and Monica Sprague.
The following commenced their studies at High School: David Barber, Beverley Carrington, Cheryl Cochrane, Sheila Henderson, Walter Kelly, Douglas Reid, Frank Stansbury, Edwin Taitton, Dinah Wilcox, Ivan Winger, Bruce Mortson and Allan Nichols. We wish these students every success.

W.M.S. —
There were sixteen ladies who attended the W.M.S. meeting held at Mrs. A. Valliere's, Markham, on Wednesday afternoon of last week.
Mrs. Acreman opened the meeting and with Mrs. Joyce conducted the Worship period from the Missionary Monthly. The theme was, "Fellow Workers with God". The new Study Book, "Africa Disturbed," was very ably introduced, by Mrs. Acreman. This book is so interesting that each member is planning to read it.

The business was in charge of the president, Mrs. H. McCague. A committee was named for the joint meeting with the W.A. in November: Mrs. H. Collard, Mrs. S. Boynton, Mrs. H. McCague, Mrs. R. Brumwell and Mrs. R. Perkins. Mrs. Binnington very ably invited the Auxiliary to the Manse for the December meeting.
A "get-well" card was signed by all for Mrs. McCachern who is ill in the hospital.
Dainty refreshments were served at the close, and a social

Neighbourhood Notes—
The Leaf household has been up in the air, literally, for a whole week now, so this week this column will be limited to necessities.
Perhaps it should be explained that finally, after a year of negotiations, F. H. Leaf and York County have come to terms and the property which the County had expropriated has now been granted to the Leafs with the proviso that the century-old house be removed from the road allowance which it occupied after 17 feet was taken in the summer of 1958.
On Labor Day, Sept. 7, the firm of James D. McCrae and Son brought in their house moving equipment and since then there hasn't been a dull moment.

The house has been placed 70 feet from the road, and centred on the lot. At this moment the new foundation is almost completed, and so far there has been no casualty to any part of the building or the furnishings. A more efficient group of workmen it would be hard to find.
Now that primary and high school students are packed off to school it is time to wave an older group on to higher learning.
Betty Patterson has begun her year at the Toronto Teachers' College; Nancy Erown and Beverly Burr are back at Ryerson for their second year, and Harvey Brown and Don Gohn are both university bound. We wish for them all success in their chosen fields.
Mrs. Dick Jones and her daughter and granddaughter, Doreen and Gail Vaughan, motored to Wallaceburg recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jones and see the new baby in that family. Reports are glowing!
Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill have spent most of the summer at their new cottage at Gull Lake this summer, and some of the neighbours have enjoyed a visit and some fishing with them. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots were among these, and Ken and another neighbour, Dick Jones, hope to have a few more days fishing soon.
When Mrs. Jean Cooke was on vacation she spent some time in Owen Sound and then travelled to Niagara Falls to visit her daughter there. On her way home she unfortunately left her purse in the car when there was a stop to see the Rock Garden at Hamilton. While she was absent, the purse was stolen with all the valuable papers it contained. Mrs. Cooke is only now receiving duplicates of some documents.
Lions Auction Sale—
Next Saturday will be a big day at Victoria Square. The Lions are holding a jamboree—afternoon bake sale and evening auction. Gord Mortson's place will be the centre of attraction, and the ladies of the community are asked to make donations of pies, cakes and other delicacies.
For the auction sale, all kinds of articles have been donated. If you have anything in the attic you think would be useful to someone, give the Lions a call and they will be glad to add it to their store.
Aubrey Stephenson, in this neighbourhood, or Gordon Mortson at Victoria Square, will be happy to send a truck around for any donations. Antique lovers should find this sale a paradise!
Y.P.A. Dance—
After they visit the Auction sale, there is an interesting evening in store for all the young people of the community at Victoria Square Community Hall, where there will be a dance commencing at 8:30 p.m., Sept. 19. There will be a Record Hop and wonderful refreshments, so ring the calendar!

time was had by all.
