Hart Kennedy Joins Grandfather in Practise

October 5, Hart Kennedy, D.C., will join his grandfather, A. C. Kennedy, in the practice of chiropractic in Stouffville. A. C. Kennedy has been practicing in Stouffville part time since he opened his practice in Unionville 42 years ago.

Hart, the third generation of Kennedys to practise in the area, was graduated this spring from the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College. He is the only son of Keith B. Kennedy, D.C., one of the operators of the Kennedy Chiropractic Clinic in Unionville.

Hart has renovated the offices at 17 Church Street and installed new equipment. He and his grandfather, between them, will spend several hours a day in Stouffville. Arrangements have been made to have the telephone answered when the doctors are not at the office and the calls referred to them at Unionville.

Since graduating, Hart has taken a short internship at the Toftness Clinic in Wisconsin.

WEDDING

Winger — Bennett
On Saturday, September 26, 1959, the marriage of Evelyn Claribel Bennett and Ray Kenneth Winger took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wideman, Gormley, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Roy Nigh.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor-length princess style dress of white satin with a lace covered jacket. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. The maid of honour, Miss Luella Winger, wore a street-length dress of blue figured taffeta in princess style, and carried pink and white carnations. Miss Sharon Bennett, little sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of bronze silk organza, white hat and gloves, and carried a basket of flowers. Mr. Kenneth Smith, nephew of the groom, was the best man and Mr. David Bennett, brother of the bride, was the usher.

Miss Dorothy VanderBent was the soloist, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Edward Mashinter, the bride's aunt.

Following the wedding, the reception was held at the Parkside Youth Centre for 95 guests. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a rose crepe dress with black accessories. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing navy crepe.

For travelling to Northern Ontario the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a bronze corsage.

On their return the happy couple will reside at their farm near Maple.
