Miss Kate Terry Formerly of Gormley Dies at Parry Sound

Mrs. C. Millsted

Miss Kate Terry passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Parry Sound, on Friday evening. Miss Terry had been in the hospital for three and a half years. She was in her 87th year. The Terry family lived at Gormley for many years. Eleven years ago she, her brother Fred and sister Ida moved to Parry Sound. The funeral was held at 2 p.m. on Monday afternoon. Sympathy is expressed to the remaining members of the family. Mr. Dalton Moses, a nephew, attended the funeral at Parry Sound.

Congratulations to Mrs. Norman Johnston who won twenty-one prizes at Markham Fair. Twelve prizes were for sewing and nine for baking.

The Spelling Contest at Markham Fair, sponsored by Markham Township Federation of Agriculture was very successful. The judges were Mrs. Mullett and Mrs. Walmsley. Inspector Hallman dictated the words. First prize of $25 was won by Patricia Gerrie of St. Patrick's Separate School at Markham. The second prize of $15 was won by Karen Pike of S.S. 9, Markham. Third prize of $10 went to Kristen Burkholder of S.S. 18, Markham (Box Grove School). Each contestant received a $1 award.

Congratulations to these girls for their excellent spelling. The fine prizes should encourage other contestants to make greater effort for next year's contest. Mrs. R. G. Britnell convened the contest. Last year we had some winners from S.S. 4, Markham—where were they this year?

We are pleased to report Mrs. J. T. Johnson is able to be out of the hospital and is convalescing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Thompson in Toronto.

Mr. Ralph Baker underwent a very serious heart operation at Toronto General Hospital on Friday. At the time of writing, although Mr. Baker's condition is still very critical, he is as well as can be expected. His many friends are very pleased for his progress thus far.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson spent the holiday weekend at Elm Lodge near Peterboro.

Another new citizen has arrived—a son, Timothy, born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Winger (Evelyn Bennett) were guests of honour at a miscellaneous shower on Thursday night at Fordwich.

Special Thanksgiving services were held in our local churches on Sunday. Truly we have so many things for which to be thankful in our fair land. We couldn't help thinking of several citizens who have passed on recently, making changes in our community. Then also several other residents have had very severe illnesses and we are very grateful they are much better.

Mr. Victor Britnell spent Thanksgiving at Kirkland Lake.

On Sunday morning, the 3 departments of the United Missionary Sunday School started functioning. The new pre-school department was begun for the first time with Mrs. C. E. Hunking as Supt. These children met in the basement and had their complete school by themselves. The Jr. Dept. held their school in another part of the basement. Only the adult department met in the main auditorium of the church. We feel this is a forward step as each department's programme can more adequately suit its age group. For a Sunday or two it will seem rather strange not to see the whole school as one unit in the opening exercises.

The Sr. W.M.S. met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. J. W. Berry. Mrs. D. Sargeant of Altona was the guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. French are wearing broad smiles—it's another great grand-daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rush of Ridgeway.
