EDITOR'S MAIL

363 Main St., Stouffville Oct. 20th.
 Editor, The Tribune,
 Dear Sir,
 Concerning last week's editorial, "Council Elected to Handle Town Business for Entire Year," I wish to inform the writer responsible for this, of one or two facts.
 First, it never was nor is it the intention of myself and other interested parties to attempt to change Council's minds. They are just as entitled to their opinions as we are. All we have ever wanted is a FAIR AND PUBLIC hearing for Chief Edwards, and no 'hanky-panky'. In my letter published in the Tribune last July, I said, "If charges are proved, then by all means let something be done!" As far as I and several other people are concerned, nothing has yet been proved. We do not, directly or indirectly discredit... council but only their methods in this particular instance. Incidentally, the petition to the Attorney-General was sent off with 127 signatures, not 50. But I do agree with the Tribune writer in one statement, and earnestly hope that rate-payers WILL voice their opinions in December!

Sincerely,
 Shirley A. Hansen
 Editor's Note — When the Tribune contacted one of the promoters of the petition, it was rather reluctantly informed that "more than forty" signatures had been received.

Ten pupils at the Summitview Public School were successful prize winners in the writing contest held recently at Markham Fair. The winning entries were as follows: Grade 1 — Marilyn Daniels, 4th; Grade 2 — Jimmy Lamoreaux, 1st; Harold Crowder, 2nd; Stella-Mae Pearson, 3rd. Grade 3 — Marianne Malloy, 1st; Hugh McPhail, 2nd. Grade 4 — Linda Sargent, 4th; Grade 6 — Denise Holden, 4th; Grade 7 — Valerie Boham, 3rd; Mary Otter, 4th.

Newspapers are the conveyors of local sanction, "the sort of things people do around here."

The W.A. of the United Church met in the Church Parlor on Monday evening, Oct. 19th, with the President, Mrs. F. Fairless, presiding.

After the opening exercises were over, Mrs. Hammond favored us with two lovely solos, "Thanks be to God" and "Now the Day is Over." Devotional was taken by Mrs. A. Wood who based her talk on "Faith is of the Living God."

The highlight of the meeting was the talk given by Mrs. Mercer of Toronto who is a field worker under the Home Mission Council. The story of her life as a deaconess and later in the work of Church Extension in new districts around Toronto, helping to establish Sunday Schools and churches. She has helped to start 24 churches in the past 18 years. We now have a better understanding of the work being done by the Home Mission Council in Church Extension.

On November 7th the W.A. will be holding a Tea & Bake Sale in the basement of the Church. They would appreciate contributions of Baking, Candy, Sewing or something for the White Elephant table, from any of the ladies who would like to help us.

Wedding

BENSON — MIDDLETON

A pretty lawn wedding took place on Saturday, September 26, 1959, at 2.30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Middleton, Claremont when their daughter Marion Kathleen was united in marriage to Mr. Stanley Ostin Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Benson, also of Claremont. Rev. George Davison officiated.
 The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a ballerina gown of lace and faille. She wore matching lace mittens, and a fingertip veil held by a crown of pearls and rhinestones, and carried a cascade of red roses and white mums.
 Miss Grace Middleton was maid of honour for her sister, wearing a street length dress of powder blue featuring a taffeta skirt and lace bodice. She wore a matching feather headband, and carried a cascade of pink roses and white mums.
 The flower girl was Joanne

Madill, niece of the bride, who was dressed in pale blue nylon overlaid with white lace, and a matching headband. Pink roses and white mums comprised the nosegay which she carried.
 Mr. Harry Benson, Stouffville, was groomsmen for his brother.
 Following the ceremony a reception was held in Claremont Legion Hall. The bride's mother received attired in a navy blue lace dress with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a royal blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of off white roses.
 The bride and groom left amidst a shower of confetti, for a honeymoon in eastern Ontario. For travelling, the bride donned a mauve dress with matching jacket, black accessories and a white carnation corsage. On their return the happy couple will reside in Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benson are pictured here following their recent wedding in Claremont. The bride is the former Marion Kathleen Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Middleton, of Claremont. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Benson.

Women's Missionary Meeting

On Wednesday, Oct. 14, the W.M.S. of the United Missionary Church met at the home of Mrs. J. Hoover, Mill St., for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. E. Herbert conducted the service and led the devotional. Two letters from missionaries in Africa were read.

The program was arranged by Miss Vera Tarr, and the subject, "Why I am Thankful I am not a Heathen Woman," was discussed. After several readings which told of the sufferings of heathen women and babies caused by heathen superstitions and practices and the work of witch doctors, and through lack of proper teaching, care and sanitation, every woman present was thankful she was born in a Christian country. During the discussion Mrs. E. Boettger, missionary on furlough from Nigeria, W. Africa, and at present residing in Stouffville, dressed and acted as a native African woman.
 Surely at this Thanksgiving time, we, who live in this community can thank God for our Christian heritage and use our blessings and means to help our less fortunate sisters in heathen lands.
