

Flag-Raising Ceremony

Rev. Douglas Davis conducted a very impressive flag-raising ceremony at the Summit View Public School on Tuesday morning. The local Legion Branch presented flags to both schools recently. A similar ceremony was also held at the Orchard Park School. Two Legion members, Ray Sargent and Jim Abell were in attendance. This picture shows the students and staff of Summit View School gathered around the standard as the flag is raised to the top.

Local and Personal Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lickorish attended the marriage of their granddaughter recently in the Wesley United Church, Mimico. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Mrs. Annie Betz.

We were pleased to receive a note from a subscriber of long standing, Mrs. Leslie H. Smith, now residing at Blackwater. Mrs. Smith says "when one has moved to a new locality, The Tribune is like a letter from home. We especially enjoy the columns from Mt. Pisgah, Gormley, Victoria Square and Buttonville.

WEDDINGS

BENSON—McCAUGHEY

A pretty wedding took place in the Claremont United Church manse on October 10, 1959, when Rev. A. Cresswell united in marriage Miss Esther Ann McCaughey and Mr. Robert Gordon Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Benson, Claremont.

The bride chose a blue taffeta dress with a blue nylon net overskirt and matching taffeta jacket. A beaded halo band held her blue nylon veil, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white mums.

Attending the bride was Miss Marie Lynn, who wore a blue flowered nylon dress with blue net hat and a corsage of red and white mums.

Mr. Ronald Hedges was the groomsmen. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents against a setting of fall flowers. The groom's mother received the guests wearing a green wool sheath dress with matching jacket and green accessories.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Philadelphia, Pa. For travelling, the bride wore a royal blue arnel faille dress. They will make their home in Claremont.

Nearly a dozen new homes are now under way on the new Weston Heights sub-division just east of Tenth St.

Markham Village, which presently has three men on the police force, is advertising for a fourth constable. The police budget for the current year is $25,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hodgins from Montreal were up visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Reid of Ringwood over the weekend.

It's not too early to order that Portable Typewriter for Christmas delivery. The Tribune has both Smith-Corona and Underwood models.
