Thankoffering Speaker -

The retiring executive secretary of the W.M.S. of the United Church of Canada, Mrs. Loveys, was the colourful and interesting guest speaker on Wednesday evening of last week, when Brown's Corners W.M.S. members held their autumn Thankoffering meeting.

Mrs. Loveys spent the summer months in Jamaica on W.M.S. work, and while there she put her colour camera to good use, returning with a pictorial account of that beautiful island and the life of its people. There have been no slaves in Jamaica since 1838, and the protestant church has been active since be-

Mrs. Roscoe Chapin of Unionville conducted the devotional service, using the lesson of the Prodigal Son from the standpoint of the elder brother's attitude. The soloist was Mrs. W. J. Russell, also of Unionville, who was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. S. J. English.

Mrs. Wm. Rodick occupied the chair, Mrs. A. W. Miller performed courtesies and the offering was taken by Mrs. Douglas
