Victoria Square Guides Mark National Birthday

Mrs. W. Sandle
The Girl Guide Association celebrated their 50th year of guiding in Canada and it was marked by their Birthday Party held on Wednesday, Jan. 27th, at the Eaton Auditorium. The Auditorium was filled with Guides and past Guides.

The marching on of the Union Jack and World Girl Guide flag marked the opening to a wonderful evening. Mrs. Rankin Nesbitt, Chief Commissioner of Canada opened with an informal speech.

Five members, one still active, of the 1st St. Catharines Girl Guide Company formed in 1910, came to the platform, all silver-haired but still very agile, were congratulated.

"When We Look Back", a pageant narrated by June Denis, radio commentator, and written by Mrs. C. Thompson of Richmond Hill, was directed by Miss June Woodland, a Guide leader who went through Brownies and Guides with Mrs. P. Rumney as a girl in Toronto.

The pageant presented Brownies and Guides in various activities. A very humorous fashion show of uniforms worn from 1910 to 1960 added a touch of color.

The grand finale came with each province of Canada being represented by the Provincial Commissioners and a color party carrying the World Flag, a large coat of arms, backed by a large map of Canada.

The 4-ft. square birthday cake was cut by Mrs. Nesbitt, and a smaller cake was presented to each provincial commissioner by the two deputy commissioners.

Mrs. P. Rumney, Mrs. N. Johnston and Mrs. G. Hardie were present to witness this event in the history of Girl Guiding.

Sixty-four Brownies, Guides, Leaders and Local Association members were present at Melville United Church on Thursday evening, Jan. 27th to celebrate the 50th Birthday Party. The Brownies and Guides held their opening ceremonies, and played a game before their mothers joined them. Slides on Guide Camping were shown by Mrs. P. Rumney.

A huge birthday cake decorated with birthday wishes to the Brownies and Guides of Canada was the centre-piece for a candle-light ceremony. Each member held a candle which was lit by five Brownies and five Guides who represented the ten provinces. Girls taking part were Dawn Tatton, Rachel Farquharson, Irene Crane, Kathy Roxborough, Noreen Powell, Judy Hart, Judy Varden, Dinah Wilcox, Susan Nigh and Marilyn Stacey. The Guides and Brownies were each given a place-mat beautifully decorated for the golden jubilee year.

Mrs. N. Johnston, one of the Guide Leaders, was presented with her Lieutenant Warrant by Captain Mrs. P. Rumney.

On Saturday morning the Brownies and their leaders enjoyed a tobogganing party at the home of Tawny Owl, Mrs. Varden, Cashel. Following the tobogganing they enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies served by Mrs. Varden assisted by Mrs. J. Leitch.

The first meeting of the New Year was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Carl Walker with twenty-seven ladies in attendance. The scripture and prayer were given by Mrs. C. Story. Mrs. Earl Empringham gave the leader thoughts. Mr. Carl Walker showed pictures on the Holy Land and the Victorian Era. Mrs. A. F. Binnington conducted the installation of officers. The new president, Mrs. Marcus Jarvis took charge of the business period.

Annual Congregational Meeting
The annual congregational meeting was held Friday evening. The meeting was preceded by a pot luck supper served by the ladies of the W.A.

The meeting was chaired by Rev. A. F. Binnington who opened it with a short worship period. The reports were given by the different organizations. Some of the highlights of the reports were: The work of the W.A. to renovate the bathroom at the manse; The work of the men in repairing the church tower; Fencing the new land purchased by the cemetery board and planting trees around it; Arrangements were made to let the park use the new land to the north; The Couples Club made a substantial donation to the Community Park; The M. & M. Fund was up in 1959.
