Buttonville News

Neighbourhood Notes—

Buttonville W.I. members are busy people at present. Quilters have been busy recently at Mrs. E. Hill's home and this week at Mrs. J. Donaldson's. On Tuesday evening of last week, those interested in learning the fine points of dressmaking met at the home of Mrs. George Hooper where Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Don Arnott launched sewing projects for Achievement Day to be held in Newmarket this spring.

Mrs. S. J. English had several successful pupils in the examinations held recently at the Royal Conservatory, Toronto. In grade 8 Piano there were Jean Gladding, Joan Gladding, John Rumble (honours); grade 5 — Danny Farquharson; Theory, grade 1, first class honours—Janice, Farquharson.

On Monday evening of this week C.G.I.T. members from the Victoria Square Charge held their meeting at the home of Joy Fuller.

For Mr. Wm. Clark, one of the pleasant aspects of his new office as Warden of York County has been the letters received from many friends. One received last week was from Mr. Geo. Henry who wrote from Rome where he and Mrs. Henry, who are on a European tour, were staying at the Hotel Mediterraneo. Mr. Henry noted that his own father had been County Warden 51 years ago. Another pleasant surprise last week was the presentation by fellow Markham Township Councillors of a brief case—something Mr. Clark had never owned.

On Sunday morning at the Brown's Corners United Church, Rev. A. F. Binnington conducted a dedication service for the four new stewards — Mrs. Walter Craig, Messrs. Walter Brumwell, Rae Donaldson and Garnet Stewart. Two new elders were also installed in office, namely Charles Turner and Walter Craig.

W.M.S. at Brown's Corners— Mrs. Edgar Fuller and Mrs. Harold Steffler took charge of the February meeting when members of Brown's Corners W.M.S. met at the church parlours on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Wm. Rodick opened the meeting and Mrs. S. J. English played quiet music for the "Call to Worship." During the business session Mrs. Ross Hord was appointed to the church reception committee to replace Mrs. Walter Craig who asked to be relieved for a time. Numerous cards of thanks and greetings were read from Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. W. Turner and various members. Mrs. A. Gardner, reporting through Mrs. N. Reid, requested flower fund money, and announced two new books were purchased for the book shelf at the Presbyterial at Stouffville. Mrs. Douglas Hood reminded members that clothing (large sizes) was needed for a special sale. For those who have old Christmas cards to dispose of, Mrs. A. W. Miller explained they may be sent to the Home for Retarded Children, Smith's Falls.

During the worship service on The Lord's Prayer, Mrs. E. Fuller and Mrs. R. Hord, Mrs. W. Miller, Mrs. James Rodick and Mrs. N. Reid each took part. Following hymn 148, Master Paul Steffler took up the offering, and Mrs. S. R. Patterson sang a solo.

Mrs. H. Steffler reviewed a chapter from "Africa Disturbed", in which were described some of the difficulties which the church is facing in Africa today because of awakening conditions. A letter from the Elizabeth Fry Society was read and a motion made by Mrs. N. Reid (seconded by J. Leaf) that $25.00 be sent to aid work of this society. Following the close of the meeting, Mrs. Fuller expressed courtesies, and tea was served by the hostesses.

Hooper—Vollett— Rev. J. F. O'Neill officiated at a quiet ceremony held Saturday evening in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, when Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vollett, Buttonville, became the bride of Kenneth Hooper, son of Mr. Lloyd Hooper, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Verna Hooper, Toronto. The bride chose a dressmaker suit in a pretty shade of blue for her wedding. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of pink.

Miss Teresa Williams was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Walter Magee attended the groom.

A reception followed for members of the immediate family and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper. Among the guests was the groom's father who flew up from Pennsylvania for the wedding.

After a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hooper will live in Scarborough.

Euchre Series— There were 22 tables of Euchre played at Buttonville Hall on Friday evening of last week. Ladies winners were Mrs. E. Snider, Mrs. Russel Boyington and Mrs. A. Cameron. Gentlemen were Messrs. Chas. Sinclair, A. Calvert and Roy Woods. Mr. Earl Freeland won the lucky draw, a chicken, and freeze-out

Gormley Man Judge At Sportsmen's Show

Mr. Geo. P. Davies of Gormley will be one of 14 judges who will attend the three international all-breed dog shows that will be held in conjunction with the 1960 Canadian National Sportsmen's Show in the Coliseum, Toronto, from March 11 to 19. Some of the most outstanding and prized dogs in North America will be entered in the competition. Other judges will be William J. Burgess, Thompsonville, Conn.; George P. Davies, Gormley; John Devlin, Thornhill; Mrs. W. C. Edmiston, Ralston, Nebraska; Mrs. Anna M. Gargett, St. Clair Shores, Mich.; Walter Konradt, Dundas, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Marsh, Ipswich, Mass.; Mrs. Jesse Mason, Fine Orchard, Conn.; Wm. McDerment, Toronto; Dr. F. P. Miller, Riverside, Cal.; Louis A. Oberly, Chagrin Falls, Ohio; Alva Rosenberg, New York City; Mrs. Mary Southcott, R.R. 5, Milton, Ont.; and Mr. Cliff Tushingham, Toronto.

The dog shows will be a feature attraction at "North America's finest springtime exhibition" on March 16 to 19. In addition, for the first time at any Sportsmen's Show in Canada, retriever field trials will be held each evening during the four winners were Mrs. Trimble and Miss Trimble against Mr. Milt Sherman and Mrs. A. Brown.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. O. Brooke, Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. Lak and Mrs. J. Donaldson.

days of the dog show. The training ring of the Horse Pavilion of the Coliseum will be the setting for the retriever field trials and it will be so arranged as to simulate an outdoor scene with ponds, clumps of bushes and fences.

Arrangements for the dog shows, which are expected to be the largest of their kind ever held in Canada, are under the supervision of a committee of which H. V. P. Lewis, Toronto, is chairman.

It is expected that approximately 1,000 entries will be received for the three shows from all parts of Canada and the United States.

Other features and attractions of the 1960 Sportsmen's Show will be a boat and marine show, an International Motor Show, a Travel Show, a Cottage Show, a conservation and wildlife exhibit, bowling competitions, sports demonstrations by champions and experts and trick and fancy ice skating.

In addition, there will be a big stage and water revue featuring some of the world's finest entertainment. It will be M.C.'d by Andy Devine of Hollywood.

Proceeds from the Sportsmen's Show, again this year will be used to conduct an extensive program designed to conserve the nation's natural resources of forest, field and stream.
