Mrs. C. Milsted

Another blustery weekend! It seems as if by Thursday, or Friday, a real old blow has developed, and now for five weekends we have had real blustery ones. People with long lanes who have paid thirty, forty, and even fifty dollars to have their lanes bulldozed and then to see them closed in a day or two later, are becoming discouraged.

Mr. Allan Hoover had a farm auction sale on Thursday. Although the day was very cold, a good crowd gathered and the prices were good.

Mrs. Geo. Cober spent several days in Toronto General Hospital for treatment on her eye. Mrs. Cober was able to come home Saturday night.

We wish a speedy recovery for Mr. Dick Baycroft who is also in hospital in Toronto.

A surprise birthday party in honour of Miss Miriam Heise and Mrs. A. L. Winger was held on Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stickle. The guests were all treated to an oyster supper.

Mrs. R. N. Bell has returned from a delightful two weeks' cruise to the West Indies.

Misses Evelyn Reesor and Mae Summerfelt arrived home Saturday night from two weeks in Florida. Quite a contrast when they arrived at the 5th Concession of Markham!

Mr. Douglas McWhirter left from Malton over the weekend for Paris, France, on a business trip. He will be away for several weeks and will visit a number of places.

Mrs. Harry Hunt commenced as teacher of the Jr. Room at Lloyd School on Feb. 1, and replaces Mrs. Ivan Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Haddon of Stoney Creek visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Heise on Saturday.

Mr. J. C. McKendry is wearing a broad smile—it's another grandson, Scott Russell, born to Mr. and Mrs. John McKendry.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Sider and baby daughter of Wellandport spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Wideman.

The pupils of S.S. No. 7, Markham, presented a very fine display at the Athletic Night on Thursday and Friday night in the school. Many athletic events were well done by the pupils. Following the two-hour program, lunch was served in the Jr. Room.

Master Boyd McAdam is visiting his grandmother in Bolton for a week.

Mr. John McKendry and Paul of Stoney Creek spent the weekend with his father, Mr. J. C. McKendry. He also visited his mother in Scarborough Hospital.

The Christ Crusaders of Oak Ridges and Heise Hill held a Rally on Sunday at Heise Hill Church. Bishop E. J. Swalm of Duntroon was guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Morby and children visited Eric's parents on Sunday at Stayner.

Jr. W.M.S. was held on Monday evening at the home of Miss Marilyn Harman.

A special drive is on for the month of March at the United Missionary Sunday School. The slogan is "March to Sunday School in March".

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George French were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heise on Tuesday afternoon, and Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Vanderbent of Richmond Hill on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise entertained on Saturday at a birthday dinner for Mrs. Jos. Heise. Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Haddon of Stoney Creek were present for the occasion.

Mr. Fred Puckrin

The flowers in the church on Sunday were from the funeral of the late Mrs. Priest, grandmother of Dick Winter, Jr. Sympathy of the community is extended to the Winter families.

Attendance at club Saturday evening was down to fourteen when those on the fourth concession west of Audley were snow-bound. The meeting was held at the home of the president, Bill and Mrs. Guthrie.
