STAYNER HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Midgets Reach Quarter Final Playoffs

It will be Stayner vs. Stouffville on Thursday night in the OMHA Midget "C" quarter final playoffs. Stayner defeated King City in two straight games, 5-2 and 2-1 to sweep the round by a score of 7-3. Hal Gibson, Ken Wagg and Lloyd Jennings, three Stouffville minor hockey promoters attended the game in Stayner on Monday night. The Stouffville club held a workout under the direction of Keith Sutherland and Bob Ban-

Thursday's contest will be three periods of twenty minutes, stop time. Coach Hal Gibson doesn't expect to make any major changes in his lineup for the important game. It will start at 8:45 p.m. Although arrangements have not been completed for the return. tilt, it may be scheduled for the Stayner Arena on Saturday.

All eyes will be focussed on two standout Stayner. performers, Dave Armstrong and Stan Blanchard. They attended two practice sessions with the Barrie "Flyers" and have been invited to their training camp in the fall. Both boys excell in rink-long solo dashes and possess potent slap shots. Stayner knocked off Shelburne prior to their series with King City. Coach Gibson expects to ice a full team for the contest. To date, Stouffville has defeated Uxbridge, Pickering and Bobcaygeon. It is hoped that a large crowd will add their vocal support

Midgets Beat Bobcaygeon 6-3 In Return Tilt

Stouffville's Midget entr stepped onto the big ice surface at Bobcaygeon on Wednesday Allen Top Marksmah night of last week and whipped their hosts 6-3. They swept the playoff round by a score of 15-6. A large contingent of local fans accompanied the club.

Warren Hendricks and Roger Forsyth each potted a pair of goals for Stouffville. Single tallies came from the sticks of Gary Yates and Barry McLean. Nichols and Grills blinked the light for Bobcaygeon's three goals. Nichols fired two.

The contest wasn't as cleanly played as the series' first game in Stouffville. According to the local management, the officiating wasn't so strict. Following the game, the Bobcaygeon Management treated the Stouffville team to refreshments, prior to their trip home. The gesture was much appreciated.

TED TODD'S SPREE NETS SEVEN GOALS

Teddy Todd was wound up like a steel spring on Thursday night and nobody could stop him. His team, the Canadiens, trimmed the Leafs 7-1 in a scheduled Peewee House League contest. Todd scored, all seven goals. Six tallies were unassisted efforts. Kent Winterstein picked up an assist on the other. John Heaton blinked the light for the Leafs.
