CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks in Altona for the lovely shower to all our friends and neighbors of gifts we received when we were married. John and Sylvia Thompson.

I wish to extend sincere thanks and appreciation to my friends and relatives for visits, cards, gifts, and kind inquiries during my stay in Uxbridge and Sunnybrook Hospitals. G. L. Morden.

Mrs. Reginald Tansley Claremont would like to take this opportunity of extending her warmest appreciation to the many friends who remembered her during her recent stay in hospital. She extends a thankyou for the many cards, the fruit and the flowers which did so much to help pass the time.

As we enjoy the quiet of our new home in Stouffville, we do not forget the kind neighbors and friends in Ringwood, Stouffville and Dickson's Hill who were so kind in helping us get ready for our sale, and moving, also the lovely gifts that were presented to us. To one and all we can only say a very hearty thank-you.

. Albert and Pearl King.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to my neighbors, friends and relatives, for their lovely tards and calls, also al who helped during my illness. I would also like to thank the Brougham Union Loage Ioi their lovely box of fruit, also the Women's Auxiliary for their nice card. Thanking one and all again - it all was very much appreciated. Fred Evans.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown to our dear aunt, Mrs. Shaffer, during her months of affliction in the Gormley Nursing Home, York County Hospital and Stouffville Nursing Home. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gostick for their kind care during the years she spent in their home. And during this of bereavement the time thoughti'ulness of each one who helped in any way will be long remembered. Special thanks to Rev. R. Chapin, Rev. G. Davison, Henderson sisters trio, and to the Bethesda W.M.S. for their kind service extended to us at

19-YEAR-OLDS REQUIRE SEPARATE HOSPITAL INSURANCE.

Many parents still do not realize that their dependent children no longer have hospital insurance with the family after they reach age 19. According to the Ontario Hospital Services Commission, some young people of 19 are found to be uninsured when they are admitted for hospital treatment.

About 77,000 children in Ontario will reach age 19 this year, and while many of them will become insured on their own through becoming employed ininsured groups, others must arrange to pay premiums directly to the Commission or they will be uninsured when the need

Care should be taken to act promptly to keep insured. Application forms are available at all hospitals, most banks, or any office of the Ontario Hospital Services Commission.

Stouffville's Sand & Gravel Co. was awarded the tender for the supply of gravel for Stouffville streets this year, at a price of 75c a ton. The amount is 1500 yards, more or less. Two other firms bld on the contract at prices of 80c and 90c. Deputy-reeve Wagg reported that some grading had been done on a few streets where it had dried sufficiently but he said that little could be done until the weather improved. Councillor Laushway drew attention to the bad condition of streets where there were no ditches, such as the south part of Edward St., Park Dr. north and others. Reeve Lehman said that the problem of a permanent road on Church St. would never be right until the trees were taken out. It was simply not wide enough. A communication was receiv-
