Motorcyclist Injured In Collision With Car On Fourth Concession

Kenneth Quinn of Gormley, who has been working as a service station attendant at McQuay's Garage this summer met with a serious accident on Thursday evening. He was travelling north on Don Mills Road at eight o'clock when his motorcycle rammed into the rear of a car driven by James Ogden of Stouffville. Kenneth was thrown to the road, receiving head and neck injuries and a fractured shoulder as well as cuts and abrasions. There was no damage to the car or its occupants. An ambulance was called and the boy was taken to Newmarket Hospital where his condition was discovered to be less serious than was at first thought. Cause of the accident was undetermined.

Members of the Buttonville W.I. took a vacation in July and missed having a meeting for the first time in many years. However, in August the ladies will get together again on the evening of August 24th when Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. E. Walton and Mrs. K. Stots plan a corn-roast at the home of Mrs. Wilkins.

Mrs. S. J. English returned on Friday from a month's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gray at Kirkland Lake and Lake Kenogami.
